PURSE STRINGS CUT

Mill Valley Treasurer Hit For Expenditures

The Mill Valley City Council last night cut the city treasurer's purse strings.

The council notified City Manager A. E. Almcrants that no more expenditures will be approved for extra help for Treasurer William G. Rutherford after installation of a municipal data processing system.

The system, which has been contracted for, is expected to be installed within a month.

Councilman George Blackwell called the situation "ridiculous."

"Every two weeks we have another $200 going into the treasurer's office," declared Blackwell. "Two weeks ago we were told there wouldn't be any more for several months. Now we have another $200."

The council, Almcrants said, had budgeted $1,200 for the office for the fiscal year. Already $1,836 has been spent.

The council last night approved warrants for $146 for accounting and secretarial help for Rutherford.

Mayor Robert D. Huber said Rutherford was working on foreclosure sales now and the money was for secretarial help. "It's got to sit there (the work) until the switchover takes place, if we stop all money to him now," said Huber.

Blackwell said "it's not all secretarial work. There's an accounting fee there too."

The city is in process of "streamlining" its fiscal functions and is gradually moving many of Rutherford's duties from the treasurer's office to the fiscal department.

Blackwell told the council he was also disturbed at the amount of money being paid out to planning consultant Robert Cornish. He said it is about three times the amount paid for county planning services prior to giving Cornish the bulk of the work.

Other council members, as well as Mrs. Elizabeth Rodman from the audience and Planning Commissioner Lew Tyrrel, said the city has a great deal

Mill Valley To Skip Exam For Finance Director Job

There will be no written examination for the position of finance director in Mill Valley, the city council learned last night.

The position has been vacant since March 1 when John Hoopingarner resigned to take a position with the Irwin Memorial Blood Bank in San Francisco.

Hoopingarner left over a "disparity in point of view," presumably with the city council's 3-2 vote Jan. 4 that he would be requested to take an examination for the director's job.

City Manager A. E. Almcrants told the council last night that, since only five applications have been received, it is his opinion, and that of the state cooperative personnel services that it is not necessary to give an exam. Oral interviews will be given the applicants, he said.

The council did not object.

This, in effect, means that had Hoopingarner remained with the city, he would not have had to take an examination.

Applicants for the job include Arthur E. Lang of Tiburon, an accountant in the fiscal department for about one year, and applicants from Fresno, Florida and Washington.

SENATE SETS POINT REYES PARK HEARING

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Public Lands Subcommittee will conduct a hearing March 23 on the proposed Point Reyes national seashore park in Marin County.

A hearing on an identical authorization will will be held March 24 by the House National Parks Subcommittee.

Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) said congressional action on the proposal has been stepped up because subdivision is imminent of portions of the 53,000 acres to be included in the recreation area.

School Merger Study Voted

The Marin County Committee on School District Organization last night voted to try again a merger of the San Jose and Novato Unified School Districts.

The committee set up three hearings on the proposal: April 5 at the Novato district office, April 12 at Hamilton Air Force Base and April 19 somewhere in the San Jose district.

More than a score of visitors were present at the meeting in the county superintendent's office to urge that a new study of the merger proposal be made. All were from the San Jose district, where a majority of voters turned down such a merger twice in the past. Novato majorities approved it both times.

The situation has changed since the previous attempts, committee members decided. Incorporation of Novato has placed most of the San Jose district within the Novato city limits. And the high school population of the San Jose district has grown markedly. These students now must travel to San Rafael High School. If the districts were merged, they would go to Novato High, much nearer home.

A new road now being cut between new subdivisions also will give the Loma Verde area direct entry to Novato.

Science Fair Judging Set For Tonight

At least 175 entries in the countywide science fair will be judged in the College of Marin gymnasium tonight at 7:30 o'clock, with the grand prize winner to go on to the Bay Area Science Fair in San Francisco on April 7.

The fair will be open to the public at 9 a.m. tomorrow and Saturday, remaining open until 9 p.m. both days.

Judging will be done by 24 college professors, science teachers, members of the Marin Medical Assn. and industrial scientists and engineers from the Bay Area. None of the teachers judging the exhibits are from Marin County schools.

Represented in the exhibit will be all high school districts in the county and most of the elementary school districts.

There will be a grand prize for the top high school entry and for the top group entry. For elementary school entries, none of which are eligible for the Bay Area fair, there will be first, second, third, fourth and merit prize ribbons in both physical and biological science categories.

The Bay Area fair is held each year at the California Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park.

For the first time, the fair is sponsored by the county superintendent of schools office. In past years, it has been sponsored by the Tamalpais Union High School District.

23 Americans Being Held By Congolese

U.N. Troops Move To Rescue; First Indian Units Arrive

LEOPOLDVILLE (AP) — Congolese soldiers are holding 23 American missionaries and seven other white persons under arrest at Kasongo, in the anarchy-torn province of Kivu, the United Nations reported today.

A U.N. spokesman said the Americans—believed to be Protestant missionaries of the World Grace Testimony or the Evangelisation Society African Mission—succeeded in getting out a message saying they were held under guard and were without food.

Malayan U.N. patrols were reported advancing to rescue the Americans from their base at Kindu, more than 100 miles from Kasongo. The Malayans have been ordered to take them to Kindu so they can be flown to Leopoldville.

An American girl, reported in messages to U.N. headquarters to have been raped by four Congolese at another outlying Protestant mission station in Kivu, now has been brought to safety at Kindu.

Malayan patrols reached the girl after a two-day trek through the jungle. They met no opposition, the U.N. spokesman said.

The girl is one of several white refugees at Kindu awaiting evacuation to Leopoldville

SOUTH AFRICA HIT IN U.N. RESOLUTION

Effort To Annex Former Mandate Of League Of Nations Termed Illegal

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —The U.N. General Assembly today censured the Union of South Africa for its actions in West Africa.

The action came less than 24 hours after the South African government announced it was withdrawing from the British Commonwealth because of attacks on South Africa's racial policies.

ONE-SIDED VOTE

The vote on today's resolution was 74-0 with nine abstentions. The South African delegation did not vote.

The approved resolution asserted that the South African government was acting illegally in trying to incorporate the former League of Nations mandate into South Africa. This, the resolution said, "constitutes a challenge to the authority of the United Nations."

U. S. SUPPORT

The United States and all members of the British Commonwealth, except Britain and Australia, voted for the resolution. Those abstaining were Australia, Belgium, Dominican Republic, Finland, France, Luxembourg, Portugal, Spain and Britain.

There was no immediate reaction from the South African government, but there was mounting speculation that the union government might withdraw from the United Nations.

Two more complaints against South Africa's white supremacist policies and her treatment of Indian nationals on her soil are scheduled to come up this session. Delegates wondered of Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd's government, smarting over its break with the Commonwealth, might carry out repeated threats to withdraw from the United Nations.

Similar speculation was reported widespread in South Africa itself.

The South African delegation walked out of the General Assembly in 1955, protesting that the assembly was meddling in the nation's internal affairs. The delegation kept only a token staff at U.N. headquarters for the balance of that session.

STILL ANOTHER STORM HEADS FOR BAY AREA

With one storm's showers barely departed, another was on its way for the Bay Area today, the U. S. Weather Bureau reported.

If it does not slow or change direction, it could hit here tonight, the bureau said. It should bring rain throughout the area, with snow in the Sierra.

What looked like snow fell early yesterday atop Mount Tamalpais. It was actually sleet that lay on the ground for a half-hour before melting, reported the 666 Radar Squadron atop the mountain.

Gale warnings were posted today for San Francisco and Monterey Bays for winds increasing to 35 to 50 miles per hour tonight.

Programs Would Cut Surpluses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President John F. Kennedy today proposed a write-it-yourself program for American farmers. Under the plan, farmers themselves would be authorized to draft and adopt, subject to congressional veto, a sweeping new series of crop-by-crop farm marketing control programs to cut surpluses and boost farm income.

Congress, which rejected a similar plan last year, would be relieved of the chore of writing farm law.

6,800 WORDS

The plan, presented in a 6,800-word message to Congress, is aimed at carrying out Kennedy's campaign promise to seek to lift farmers' income to equality with the income of city dwellers.

The president coupled it with proposed expansion of programs to use the nation's food abundance to feed the needy at home and abroad, including a five-year extension of a law authorizing "food for peace" exports of farm surpluses for foreign currencies.

Kennedy said the farm problem could not be solved "in a day or in a year, or perhaps even in this administration." But he said his proposal would eventually cut the tax cost of the farm program by reducing farm surpluses, and would "gradually reverse" the decline in farm income.

THE ALTERNATIVE

The alternative to boosting income, he said, is a "substandard rural economy (and) a weakened nation." He promised consumers the proposed new plans—none of them detailed in the message—would assure them of "stable" price levels.

The president's message contained no specific suggestions for programs to reduce government surpluses of wheat and feed grains, which account for 7.8 billion dollars of the government's 9.4-billion-dollar farm surplus stockpile.

The administration feels that if congress acts quickly, new programs for these grains can be proposed within the framework of the Kennedy plan in time to affect 1962 crops. Ten-

DEBATE CHALLENGE HURLED

Pacheco P-TA Leaders Disavow Attack By Members On Teacher

By ELLEN BRY

Other members of the board of the Pacheco Parent-Teacher Assn. yesterday disavowed any connection with the verbal attack by two board members against a Pacheco teacher.

A personal challenge by Mrs. John H. Tindell, board president, to debate the issue was refused today by Mrs. Robert W. Dodson, first vice president.

Mrs. Dodson, at a San Jose School District Board meeting Monday night, asked that tenure be denied seventh grade teacher Edward L. Hanchett, who in 1957 took the Fifth Amendment before a subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

Mrs. Dodson at the board meeting said she found shades drawn and lights out when she walked into her daughter's classroom Feb. 3. "Kids" were dancing to rock and roll music, she said.

She protested Hanchett's reading of selections from "I Was A Teen-Age Dwarf" by Max Shulman.

In a personal challenge, Mrs. Tindell said:

"I will resign my position as president of the Pacheco Parent-Teacher Assn., if Mrs. Dodson will resign as first vice president. . . . I will then meet Mrs. Dodson any time, anywhere in public debate on the issue of alleged subversion and immorality in Pacheco School."

Mrs. Dodson said today she would be willing to resign from her P-TA post if other board members requested it, but said she was not willing to debate the issue.

She said she was "dumfounded" by publicity her charges received and had not known that the school board meeting was a public meeting.

"I don't intend to have anything more to do with it. I'm sick and tired of the whole thing," she said. But she said she would appear at the April 10 meeting of the school board, when the matter will be on the agenda.

Hanchett was hired by the San Jose district in the summer of 1958 after having been suspended from the Dixie School District. In 1957 he took the Fifth Amendment to questions of alleged Communist affiliation prior to 1949 when he appeared before a subcommittee of the House Un-American Activities Committee in San Francisco.

Phillip Schneider, superintendent of the San Jose district, said no complaint against Hanchett's teaching had been received in the three years he has been with the district. Some parents have called and asked about his background, Schneider said.

School board members backed Hanchett at their meeting Monday, but declined full discussion, since Mrs. Dodson's protest letter had reached board chairman William Vandergriff only that morning. Mrs. Dodson's husband is a candidate for the San Jose school board in the April 18 election.

In the letter to Vandergriff, Mrs. Dodson wrote that she was protesting against a teacher of Hanchett's "caliber and background being placed in a

NEW YORK LANDMARK FOR SALE

Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher of the New York Times, announced today the proposed sale of the Times Tower, pictured here, a landmark on Times Square in New York City. Douglas Leigh, advertising executive, plans to purchase the 24-story building and develop it into a combination exhibition hall and office structure. The tower, while owned by the Times, has not housed any of the newspaper's operating departments for 47 years. (AP Wirephoto)

Pentagon Numbers Racket Broken Up By U.S. Agents

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Six raiding parties of federal agents, bristling with maps instead of guns, moved in on the gamblers.

They burst into a crowded locker room, began calling out names and handing out warrants to startled workers accured of running a numbers racket and betting on it.

They needed maps because the locker room was in one of the world's largest office buildings—the Pentagon.

U.S. Attorney Joseph S. Bambacus said it was "fantastic" that organized crime could make "so deep an inroad into the nation's defense nerve center."

The arrest of 35 laborers, most of whom handled pentagon office supplies, climaxed a four-month investigation.

"It was a real cloak-and-dagger operation," said Bambacus.

He said the ring was estimated to have grossed between $225,000 and $500,000 a year.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Marine Artist Dies

SANTA CRUZ (UPI) — Miss Margaret Rogers, one of the Pacific Coast's best known marine artists, died yesterday in a nursing home. She was 88.

Miss Rogers was president emeritus of the Santa Cruz Art League, and her paintings have been exhibited in art galleries and exhibitions throughout the West for many years.

Nu Resigns Post

RANGOON, Burma (UPI) — Premier U Nu resigned today as president of the governing Union Party as a protest against growing factionalism in its ranks.

Political sources said Nu's resignation might lead to the collapse of the party, which is deeply divided by the rival ambitions of various factional leaders.

Quake Recorded

SAN LEANDRO (AP) — Bay Area seismographs recorded a slight earthquake at 3:15 p.m. yesterday in San Leandro and Hayward. No damage was reported.

Hoffa Case Stalled

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Government attempts to bring James R. Hoffa to trial on a 12-count federal mail fraud indictment apparently have been stalled, at least until next fall.

Some who attended this week's three-day hearing on defense motions for dismissal predicted that the president of the Teamsters Union will never face trial in the case.

U. S. District Judge Joseph P. Lieb turned down a government plea at the close of the hearing yesterday which would have set a trial date for May 15. He gave both sides until May 1 to submit written briefs. An additional seven days was allowed for counsel to reply to each other's briefs.

Bees Classified

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The State Senate has decided, despite what zoologists say, that bees are livestock.

They are, at least, under terms of a bill passed yesterday at the request of Sen. Walter Stiern (D-Bakersield). Bees, he explained, had to be added to the legal deinition of livestock in the agricultural Code so apiarists could purchase drugs which are technically classified as livestock remedies.

Indicted For Threat

CONCORD, N. H. (AP) — Richard P. Pavlick, 74, was indicted yesterday by a federal grand jury on a charge of threatening to kill President John F. Kennedy prior to his inauguration.

Pavlick, formerly of Belmont, N. H., was arrested in Florida last December.

Cuban Money Move

HAVANA (AP) — All Cubans have been ordered to change their foreign currency into Cuban pesos and report all deposits in overseas banks to build up the Castro regime's foreign exchange reserves.

New national bank regulations issued yesterday also ordered Cubans to surrender all stocks and bonds, and said they would be "subject to the bank's disposition."

Coal Mine Disaster

YAHATA, Japan (AP)— Twenty-four rescuers tried to save two coal miners today, and all 26 were believed killed in the choking fumes of a pit fire 3,000 feet below ground.

The manager of the mine and other officials were among the group that failed to come up from the Shin-Otsuji mine, nine miles from another mine where 71 miners died in a similar tunnel fire last week.

Boy Foils Robbery

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Jimmy Frederick is only six but already a hero.

He foiled an armed robbery while walking down the street with his mother and 7-year-old brother.

When a man armed with a knife demanded Mrs. Frederick's purse, Jimmy grabbed him around the legs, knocking him off balance. The robber hit Jimmy in the stomach, then fled.

Six Proposals Signed Into Law

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed six proposals into law, including one to extend the time for drivers to apply for refunds on vehicle registration and license fees.

The governor also signed:

A measure tightening restrictions on kinds of cotton grown in certain areas of the state.

A proposal to allow hay loads to extend over the front of trucks if driver's view unobstructed.

Measures to exempt podiatric medical equipment, such as arch supports, from sales tax when furnished to patients and to allow student podiatrists to practice in podiatric hospitals.

A bill to authorize construction of a sports stadium in San Diego but requiring approval of the people if stadium built in Balboa Park.

Off To Conference

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur H. Dean left last night by plane for the Geneva nuclear conference where he will head the U. S. delegation. He said he is "realistically hopeful" that an agreement to ban nuclear testing can be reached among the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union.

Cuban Diplomats Quit

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Fidel Castro was in the market today for a new diplomatic staff in the Netherlands.

Ambassador Ignacio Fiterre, his embassy counselor and attache, and the two members of the consulate in Rotterdam resigned yesterday in protest against the Castro government's policies.

Kennedy Scores Big Victory On His Depressed Areas Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate has handed President John F. Kennedy a resounding victory in its 63-27 vote to pass a key part of his economic program — the 394-million-dollar depressed areas bill.

The more than 2-1 margin in last night's roll call compared with the slim 47-46 tally by which almost an identical measure squeaked through the Senate two years ago this month.

The measure now goes to the House where leaders said today they expect to be able to pass it before the Easter recess late this month.

A House Banking subcommittee yesterday approved a bill almost identical to the Senate version. In the past, the House has trimmed such legislation, but it appears to have more support there this year.

The bill carries 300 million dollars in federal loan funds and 94 million in grants designed to bring new jobs to communities long suffering from high unemployment.

As it passed the Senate, the measure follows almost exactly Kennedy's recommendations including administration of the new program by the Commerce Department.

Forty-eight Democrats and 15 Republicans voted for the bill, with 11 Democrats and 16 Republicans opposed.

Among those voting aye was Sen. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky), chairman of the Republican National Committee. Senate Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois vigorously opposed it.

Sharing the victory with Kennedy was Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.), who has championed the bill since 1955 and has four times piloted it through the Senate. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower killed two of the previous bills with vetoes.

Frogs and toads use their eyes to help them swallow. The eyeballs are pulled down and the food forced down the throat.

Algeria Peace Talk Hopes Given Boost

ALGIERS (UPI)—Apparently favorable Arab reaction to a French call for Algerian peace talks heightened hopes today that negotiations would get under way soon.

The French government announced last night that it was ready for "direct and official negotiations" on ending the war.

The statement did not say with whom France was prepared to negotiate, but there was no doubt the statement was drafted with the rebel organization in mind.

Spokesman for the rebels announced in Cairo that they are ready "to enter immediate negotiations with France," provided French negotiators would "discuss conditions for guaranteeing free self-determination" for Algeria.

Gold Shares Tumble After S. Africa Move

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—Gold shares tumbled on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange today in the shock of South Africa's leaving the commonwealth and the realization the nation was alone in a hostile world.

Most prices dropped an average of 70 cents with gold shares dropping an average 15 per cent from yesterday's prices. Lorraine Gold Mines took the worst beating, dropping from $4.05 to $3 at market opening.

Most shares recovered slightly after the initial flurry of selling, but prices remained well below yesterday's.

The nation was reeling from the shock of leaving the commonwealth and the morning newspaper Rand Daily Mail summed up the country's position with the stark headline: "Alone."

It said Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd had "gambled . . . and lost. We are on our own in a hostile world with all this implies."

Most responsible diplomatic quarters believed Verwoerd's decision to leave the commonwealth would have far-reaching international repercussions.

Non-white South Africans were overjoyed by the surprise decision and a former executive member of the outlawed Pan-African Congress said he hoped "Verwoerd's walkout would be the flame which would weld the African factions into a united front against apartheid.

VERWOERD SADDENED

British Accept S. Africa Move

LONDON (AP)—South Africa's walkout from the British Commonwealth was seen today as a big boost to the Commonwealth's influence in Africa and Asia.

Britons generally accepted the break as inevitable while South Africa adhered rigidly to white supremacy. But they held hope for a change in policy that would lead the African nation back to the multi-racial family of nations that replaced the empire.

South Africa's Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd, outwardly nonchalant but reported privately saddened, remained in London, to take part in the closing sessions of the Commonwealth ministers' conference. South Africa's membership does not officially end until the nation becomes a republic May 31.

Aides said Verwoerd would also attend Queen Elizabeth's farewell reception for the visiting ministers.

Most British newspapers felt South Africa would return to the fold some day. "Good riddance," said the left-wing Daily Mirror. The Laborite Daily Herald said the alliance had gained strength. But the empire minded Daily Express saw a dangerous precedent, asking, "who can say which member will be picked on next for ostracism—and on what ground?"

White South Africans of British descent were shocked by the severance of the two-century-old ties with Britain. Opposition political leaders challenged Verwoerd to put the issue to a referendum.

But white nationalists, the Dutch-descended Boers, claimed Verwoerd's walkout meant the "beginning of the end" for the Commonwealth and applauded his defiance of Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah, Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and the other dark skinned Commonwealth prime ministers. There was open talk that South Africa should also get out of the United Nations, because of the persistent criticism from the world organization's growing non-white membership.

Black Africans openly cheered what they regarded as a decisive setback to racism.

Perfect Grades

Olney Retiring From S.F. Bank

Herbert E. Olney of 425 Cascade Drive, Fairfax, trust officer at Crocker-Anglo National Bank's San Francisco trust department, has retired after a career of more than 35 years with the banking institution.

Olney received his AB degree from the University of California and his law degree from Boalt Hall before joining Crocker-Anglo in 1925 at the bank's 1 Montgomery Street office in San Francisco. After serving in various positions in the commercial banking department, he was assigned to the trust department at that office in 1930. He was appointed an assistant trust officer in 1948, and, six years later, was promoted to trust officer.

A member of the California State Bar Assn. and Phi Alpha Delta, a legal scholarship society, Olney is a veteran of overseas service with the University of California Ambulance Unit during World War I.

Algeria Peace Talk Hopes Given Boost

ALGIERS (UPI)—Apparently favorable Arab reaction to a French call for Algerian peace talks heightened hopes today that negotiations would get under way soon.

The French government announced last night that it was ready for "direct and official negotiations" on ending the war.

The statement did not say with whom France was prepared to negotiate, but there was no doubt the statement was drafted with the rebel organization in mind.

Spokesman for the rebels announced in Cairo that they are ready "to enter immediate negotiations with France," provided French negotiators would "discuss conditions for guaranteeing free self-determination" for Algeria.

Gold Shares Tumble After S. Africa Move

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI)—Gold shares tumbled on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange today in the shock of South Africa's leaving the commonwealth and the realization the nation was alone in a hostile world.

Most prices dropped an average of 70 cents with gold shares dropping an average 15 per cent from yesterday's prices. Lorraine Gold Mines took the worst beating, dropping from $4.05 to $3 at market opening.

Most shares recovered slightly after the initial flurry of selling, but prices remained well below yesterday's.

The nation was reeling from the shock of leaving the commonwealth and the morning newspaper Rand Daily Mail summed up the country's position with the stark headline: "Alone."

It said Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd had "gambled . . . and lost. We are on our own in a hostile world with all this implies."

Most responsible diplomatic quarters believed Verwoerd's decision to leave the commonwealth would have far-reaching international repercussions.

Non-white South Africans were overjoyed by the surprise decision and a former executive member of the outlawed Pan-African Congress said he hoped "Verwoerd's walkout would be the flame which would weld the African factions into a united front against apartheid.

VERWOERD SADDENED

British Accept S. Africa Move

LONDON (AP)—South Africa's walkout from the British Commonwealth was seen today as a big boost to the Commonwealth's influence in Africa and Asia.

Britons generally accepted the break as inevitable while South Africa adhered rigidly to white supremacy. But they held hope for a change in policy that would lead the African nation back to the multi-racial family of nations that replaced the empire.

South Africa's Prime Minister Hendrik F. Verwoerd, outwardly nonchalant but reported privately saddened, remained in London, to take part in the closing sessions of the Commonwealth ministers' conference. South Africa's membership does not officially end until the nation becomes a republic May 31.

Aides said Verwoerd would also attend Queen Elizabeth's farewell reception for the visiting ministers.

Most British newspapers felt South Africa would return to the fold some day. "Good riddance," said the left-wing Daily Mirror. The Laborite Daily Herald said the alliance had gained strength. But the empire minded Daily Express saw a dangerous precedent, asking, "who can say which member will be picked on next for ostracism—and on what ground?"

White South Africans of British descent were shocked by the severance of the two-century-old ties with Britain. Opposition political leaders challenged Verwoerd to put the issue to a referendum.

But white nationalists, the Dutch-descended Boers, claimed Verwoerd's walkout meant the "beginning of the end" for the Commonwealth and applauded his defiance of Ghana President Kwame Nkrumah, Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru and the other dark skinned Commonwealth prime ministers. There was open talk that South Africa should also get out of the United Nations, because of the persistent criticism from the world organization's growing non-white membership.

Black Africans openly cheered what they regarded as a decisive setback to racism.

A CASE OF TOO MANY MICE

Donald Gilbert, 8, looks over his problem—white mice. He has 21 of them now at his Ridgewood, N. J., home, and more are expected. He thought he had the solution when he offered to raise the mice and sell them to a research laboratory to finance his college education, but the plan was turned down. So now he's reached the point where he has either got to find a market for his "livestock," or give up the project. (AP Wirephoto)

General Agreement Reached On Disarm Talk Resumption

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union were reported agreed today to renew disarmament negotiations next Aug. 1 provided they can also agree on basic principles for disarmament and the makeup of the negotiating group.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said last night he thought he and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko had "generally reached agreement" on a date for resumption of negotiations, which the Soviets broke off last June 27. He would not give the date but other sources said it was Aug. 1.

Earlier, President John F. Kennedy said at his news conference that the United States first suggested September and then "August at the latest" as the time to start.

Stevenson had an hour's talk with Gromyko yesterday, his third such in 10 days. He said he had arranged tentatively to see Gromyko again tomorrow and that they were working on a resolution to be submitted to the General Assembly.

Stevenson said the resolution was intended to cover the time and place for new negotiations, the composition of the new negotiating committee and some basic principles for disarmament.

This indicated that the United States had made a concession. Other diplomats said privately that at early meetings with Gromyko, Stevenson had opposed mentioning principles in any resolution since the new Kennedy administration had not yet formulated its disarmament policy. Kennedy told his news conference his experts are "working full time on developing an American position."

Stevenson said the United States is urging a 10-nation negotiating committee and the Soviet Union a 15-nation group. Some informants in touch with the discussions expected the two would agree on a membership of 12—the last 10-nation East-West disarmament committee plus Mexico as chairman and India as committee reporter, with both the new members fully empowered to negotiate.

The last committee included the United States, Britain, Canada, France, and Italy for the West and the Soviet Union, Bulgaria, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Romania for the East. It negotiated for three months, got nowhere and the United States was about to present new proposals when the Communists walked out, charging that the West was stalling.

U.S. Stand On Angola Threatens NATO Split

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The United States decision to join Russia in voting against Portugal on the question of the African territory of Angola threatened today to breach the NATO alignment within the United Nations.

U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson, underlining President John F. Kennedy's announced policy of "Africa for Africans," split with the other NATO members of the Security Council when it backed an Afro-Asian resolution calling for reform in Angola.

The measure did not carry since it received only five of the necessary seven votes. Britain, France and Turkey—other NATO members on the 11-nation council—joined China, Chile and Ecuador in abstaining. The five voting for it were the United States, Russia and the three sponsors, Ceylon, Liberia and the United Arab Republic.

Portugal is a member of NATO and a close American ally. It is not a member of the Security Council.

Liberian Ambassador George A. Padmore, chief sponsor of the resolution, told the council he would raise the issue of Angola in the General Assembly.

Stevenson made a clean break with what its opponents described as African colonialism in voting for the resolution which accused Portugal of drastic suppression of native Africans in the territory and calling for a full-scale inquiry.

Stevenson said he disagreed with council members who saw no cause for any security council action on Angola. He said the U.S. "view has not changed since Thomas Jefferson wrote that all men are created equal.

He said the anti-Portuguese riots in the Angola capital of Luanda could be prudently viewed only "in the context of the dramatic changes which have taken place in the last few years."

Santa Rosans Hurt In Crash

A Santa Rosa teacher and her husband suffered minor injuries at the south end of the San Rafael overpass last night when their sedan was rammed from behind as it was traveling about 50 miles an hour.

Victims were Mrs. Arletta Mary Altes, 49, and Otto G. Altes, 58. Mrs. Altes told the California Highway Patrol she was driving in the left lane and just entering the curve at the start of the overpass, northbound, when her car was hit from behind by one driven by William Gilbert Tite, 31, of 148 Wolfe Grade, Kentfield.

The Altes car was driven against the right guard rail and its front was smashed that investigating authorities at first reported a head-on collision.

It bounced over into the left lane again and stopped facing south. The Tite car hurdled the divider and stopped on the west side of the southbound lane.

Reed Trustees Drop Land Transfer Plan

Reed School District trustees will not pursue their study of possible transfer of the Strawberry Point and Bay Vista areas from the Mill Valley School District to the Reed District.

This was decided Tuesday at a meeting of the board after a report by Trustee David D. Ring.

The study, begun about one year ago and headed by Ring, was made with members of the Mill Valley school board and county and state officials.

The committee weighed the advantages of Reed district taking in the entire Tiburon Peninsula with Highway 101 being the boundary.

Ring reported that if the two areas were brought into the Reed district it would cost Reed taxpayers approximately 25 cents additional per $100 assessed evaluation.

Supt. Paul R. Stouffer said the assessed valuation per pupil in Reed district is higher than that of Strawberry Point and Bay Vista areas, and, thereof it would be necessary to increase the tax rate if the areas were included.

Stouffer said the merger would complicate building problems.

Politics Of Space Subject Lecture

"The Politics of Space" will be surveyed by an expert on the legal and political problems of outer space in a lecture Monday at 8 p.m. in San Rafael.

Howard J. Taubenfeld, professor of law at Golden Gate College, San Francisco, will speak in the Marin Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission Avenue.

The talk is another in a current series on "The Coming Struggle Over Space" presented by University of California Extension. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Garety Denies Probe Influenced By Politics

Politics had nothing to do with the investigation of Sheriff's Inspector Richard J. Argento in connection with the Anita Venza abortion case, Dist- Atty. Roger P. Garety declared today.

Garety charged that an editorial which appeared in the Independent-Journal a week ago "was replete with erroneous statements and false and reckless implications."

"In my opinion, it demands an answer," says Garety.

The district attorney, in a three-page statement, makes these points:

Chief William Woodington of Belvedere sought the district attorney's help in the abortion case. Garety assigned Inspector Donald Midyett to help. When the evidence was in, Garety decided to present the case to the grand jury.

Newspapers learned of the investigation independently, and a columnist reported that the D. A. was investigating a member of the sheriff's office. When that item appeared in print, Garety decided to inform the press that he had previously advised the sheriff of evidence linking his inspector to Mrs. Venza's criminal activities. "No accusations were made public at any press conference.

"Sheriff Louis Mountanos has never been subjected to any interference or pressure by me."

Allegations in the editorial that political considerations were a motivating factor in this investigation is false, Garety declared.

"This case was presented to the grand jury because a law enforcement officer had betrayed his trust and failed to discharge his duties."

Although the grand jury did not indict, it wrote to the sheriff that the inspector's "actions and apparent dereliction of duty did not reflect credit on his profession or himself" and that in the opinion of the grand jury "he is unfit for law enforcement work." Garety said he has been authorized to make public the above statement.

"If the writer of the editorial in question challenges the accuracy of my statements, I wish him to know that I will be most happy to discuss them with him publicly, via radio, or privately, as he may choose."

Garety points out that the overwhelming majority of law enforcement officers are hard-working, conscientous, dedicated men.

"But when a man conducts himself as did the recently resigned inspector, then he should be brought to task for it irrespective of whether he works for the district attorney, the sheriff or other law enforcement agency."

JOHN K. GALBRAITH
He's Kennedy's choice

Galbraith Gets Ambassador To India Nod

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Kenneth Galbraith, who became one of America's most widely read economists with his book "The Affluent Society," has been nominated as ambassador to India by President John F. Kennedy.

Selection of the Harvard professor was announced last night.

Galbraith, 52, was deputy administrator of price controls during World War II, director of the U.S. Strategic Bomber Survey and director of the State Department's Office of Economic Security Policy.

An internationally known expert in the field of economic development, he has served as adviser to the governments of India, Ceylon and Pakistan.

A staunch Democrat, Galbraith served as a speech writer and adviser on key issues for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson in the 1952 and 1956 campaigns.

Last year Galbraith was an early supporter of Kennedy. He is given credit for switching some key votes to Kennedy during the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles.

Galbraith began his academic career as an instructor at Harvard, where as a tutor at Winthrop House he first met the Kennedy brothers, Joseph Jr. and John F.

JOHN K. GALBRAITH
He's Kennedy's choice

Galbraith Gets Ambassador To India Nod

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Kenneth Galbraith, who became one of America's most widely read economists with his book "The Affluent Society," has been nominated as ambassador to India by President John F. Kennedy.

Selection of the Harvard professor was announced last night.

Galbraith, 52, was deputy administrator of price controls during World War II, director of the U.S. Strategic Bomber Survey and director of the State Department's Office of Economic Security Policy.

An internationally known expert in the field of economic development, he has served as adviser to the governments of India, Ceylon and Pakistan.

A staunch Democrat, Galbraith served as a speech writer and adviser on key issues for Democratic presidential candidate Adlai Stevenson in the 1952 and 1956 campaigns.

Last year Galbraith was an early supporter of Kennedy. He is given credit for switching some key votes to Kennedy during the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles.

Packed House Watches High School Rehearsal

San Rafael High School sold out the house last night for a dress rehearsal of the musical "Brigadoon."

The show is scheduled tomorrow and Saturday at 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium, presented by the a cappella choir and the orchestra. But interest appeared so great, the music department decided to sell tickets—at 75 cents each—for a dress rehearsal in the auditorium last night. The result was a sellout.

Heading the cast of the musical are sisters Gaylen Horgan as Fiona and Holly Horgan as Meg, with Gary Linscott as Tommy and Terry Bradley as Jeff.

Other principal roles are taken by Dennis Le Duc as Sandy Dean, Larry Jacobsen as Laurie, Jon Gladstein as Stuart Dalrymple, Ron Nave as Angus McGuffie, Tony Gladstein as Archie Beaten, Marty Vincent as Harry, Dave Hull as Andrew McLaren, Sue Duncan as Jeanne, Barry Levin as Mr. Lundie, Allan Finley as Frank, Peggy Hayman as Jane Ashton and Diane Blackford as Maggie Anderson.

The townspeople of Brigadoon are portrayed by members of the choir, directed by Byron Jones. The dancers have been instructed by Leona Norman, choreographer, and George Felker, director. Providing the musical background is the orchestra, conducted by Hugo Rinaldo.

"Brigadoon" is the story of a miracle come to life. In it, two American travelers lose their way in the highlands of Scotland. By a quirk of fate, they find themselves in the tiny village of Brigadoon, a 20th century holdover from the 18th century.

Lawyer Claims Witness In Coors Slaying

GOLDEN, Colo. (UPI) — Dist. Atty. Ronald Hardesty said today he had found a witness, a 73-year-old woman, who believed she saw the body of Adolph Coors III being dumped into a car the morning of Feb. 9, 1960, when he was abducted and killed.

Dist. Judge Christian D. Stoner immediately sent court officers to her home in Denver to bring her here for a conference. She was identified as Mrs. Beulah Nebe Lewis, a chiropractor.

The surprising development came as attorneys were still trying to pick a jury to hear the trial of Joseph Corbett Jr., 32, who is accused of murdering Coors while trying to kidnap him and collect a $500,000 ransom. (Corbett was convicted of a Marin County slaying in 1950. He escaped from Chino state prison in 1955.)

Hardesty and his assistant, F. Richard Hite, suddenly switched strategy yesterday and began qualifying prospective jurors on the death penalty.

Judge Stoner abruptly recessed court yesterday when Hardesty and Hite began qualifying for the death penalty and defense attorney William Erickson moved for a mistrial. The judge then set a conference for early today which was where Hardesty announced he had found the witness.

'GIFT OF GOD' SAYS FATHER OF NEW QUADS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "A gift of God," exclaimed William W. Cutaiar III after his young wife gave birth to quadruplet girls last night.

"It's quite a feeling," he said. "I'm more or less starting to get back to reality. But tell me, what do you do with four at once. I still don't know. I can't imagine what it will be like taking care of four at once."

As for the babies and their mother, 24, a supervisor at Delaware County Hospital in Upper Darby gave this report: "The mother is doing well. The babies are holding their own. We haven't weighed them yet but I estimate they weigh from two and a half to three pounds. They are in satisfactory condition.

The infants were born seven weeks ahead of schedule.

Assembly Passes Swim Pool Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly, by a 48-24 vote, yesterday passed a bill permitting school districts to build swimming pools and still apply for state aid.

The bill, by Assemblyman Bruce Allen (R-Los Gatos) provides that when a district builds a pool, it will not disqualify from receiving the state money.

Opponents protested it would permit poor districts to build pools when they should be using their money for classrooms.

Mill Valley Planners Urge Rapid Transit Site Stand

The Mill Valley Planning Commission recommended to the city council Tuesday that the city re-emphasize its stand that it favors the proposed rapid transit line on the east side of Highway 101.

Commissioners decided this move was necessary upon receipt of a new booklet from the Bay Area Rapid Transit District showing the line following the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right of way on the west side of Highway 101.

The commission denied 4-2, Chairman A. A. Hemmerling and Commissioner Lew Tyrrel voting in the minority, a request by Manual Gomez that his 11.43 acres in Garden Hill subdivision be rezoned from one acre lots to over-all 15,000 square foot lots.

A public hearing was continued on a proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance to add an "open area" district.

Vallejo Man Smiles, Then Leaps To Death

An elderly Vallejo widowerer jumped from the Golden Gate Bridge yesterday afternoon after smiling, waving and shouting "goodby" at a would-be rescuer.

When cards left in his car identified him as Herbert Willson Gifford, 78, of Vallejo, California Highway Patrolman J. J. Flynn recalled him as a longtime friend and owner of Gifford's Lodge in Lake County.

"My loved ones, do not mourn me," read a message scrawled on one of the cards. "I'll only be a care . . . I have too many troubles. Forgive me, my dear son."

The son proved to be William D. Gifford of Napa.

Gifford was recorded as the 204th known suicide in the history of the bridge.

Charles Stack of 72 Palm Lane, Trailer Village, Novato, a tow truck operator for the bridge, was on his way to work at 3:45 p.m. when he saw Gifford climb out of his car and over the bridge railing. He shouted, "Wait a second! Let me talk to you!"

But Gifford only smiled gently, waved, said "goodby" and jumped. His body was seen floating on the water for about five minutes, then disappeared. Coast Guard search was abandoned in the evening.

Way We Eat

WASHINGTON, D. C. (UPI) — Every American ate 330 eggs, 29 pounds of chicken and six pounds of turkey on the average last year, the U. S. Agriculture Department reports.

Wild geese can fly as fast as 60 miles an hour and as high as 29,000 feet.

EAGLE SCOUT—Phil Weil, a Redwood High School sophomore, received his Scout Eagle award at a Court of Honor last Friday at St. John's Community House in Ross. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Weil of 11 Redwood Drive, Ross.

Contract Let For Water District Job

Zoellner Construction Co. of Ross was awarded a contract for construction of a new Marin Municipal Water District office building in Corte Madera at a special meeting of the district board yesterday afternoon.

Zoellner was low of nine bidders, with a figure of $743,369.

A representative of the contractors promised to "get under way immediately" on construction of the one-story structure which will have 30,000 square feet of floor space.

The contract time is a year. Steel has already been ordered and the contractor said that speed of the steel delivery will be a major factor in determining whether the building can be completed ahead of stipulated time.

HER WELCOME HOME WAS A WARM ONE

CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP) — No doubt about it, the furnace in Mrs. Kathryn Staton's house really puts out.

Returning from a 10-day vacation, she found the thermostat on the furnace had gone haywire, the furnace had run full blast, the house's temperature had reached an estimated 140 degrees and:

Cooked eggs and very unfrozen foods in the refrigerator; melted candles with the tallow evaporated, leaving only the wicks; piano keys bulged upward; warped floor boards; and the wallpaper peeled off in sheets.

The furnace's thermostat, which had been set at 55 degrees, blew up.

School Trustee Candidates In Marin Now Total 100

An even 100 candidates for Marin County school board trusteeships had filed notice last night with the county superintendent of schools for the April 18 elections.

Filings close tomorrow night.

Of the 10 latest to file four were incumbents, as follows: Mrs. Winifred S. Frederick, Lagunitas, J. H. Mendoza, Point Reyes Station, and John F. Nielsen Jr., Forest Knolls, all for Lagunitas School District; and Emil Valena, Bodega Bay, for Tomales Joint Union High School District.

Three listing themselves as tax economists were among the challengers: Joe V. Lopes of Woodacre; Charles S. Graham of 229 Almonte Boulevard, Mill Valley, and Philip J. Rowland, 869 San Anselmo Avenue, San Anselmo, all for Tamalpais Union High School District.

Other challengers are Frederick M. Morris, business administrator of 29 Corte Madera, Greenbrae, also for Tamalpais Union High School District; Curtis P. Kanai, civil engineer of 33 El Camino Drive, Corte Madera, for Larkspur School District, and A. L. Cunninghame Jr., dairy farmer of Fallon, for Tomales Bay Union School District.

Bonded Wineries

Mill Valley Refuses To Sponsor Teen Dances

Seven Mill Valley teen-agers and City Recreation Director Ronald R. Samet pleaded in vain last night for the city to sponsor two teen-age dances per month.

City councilmen decided the Mill Valley Teens organization is doing so well as "private enterprise" that it should be left that way. The organization has been holding three dances each month at the American Legion Hall.

The council voted 3-2 to deny city sponsorship. Councilmen George Blackwell and Michael Wornum supported the teen-agers' request.

The teens asked two more Saturday dances at the hall each month be sponsored by the city. If the trial worked out, the city would be asked to sponsor all the dances.

"Teen-age dances are not the proper function of a municipal government," declared Councilman Joseph E. Sheeks, who has a teen-age son.

Sheeks said he believed the organization's sponsors were tired of running the Teens and, "anything the city does costs the city money."

Dr. P. R. Danford, adviser to the Teens, said the teen-agers had not asked the city to take the program over but that it was a parks and recreation commission recommendation. He said there is a city program for small youngsters but none for teen-agers.

"We are trying to get the city to have a well-rounded recreation program," said Danford.

Councilman George D. Monardo said he was for the summer recreation only and asked why seventh and eighth graders needed to have dances.

From the front row of boys in jeans and girls in sweaters, Albert Robertson spoke for the seventh and eighth graders.

"We're just starting to become teen-agers. Big guys like us don't want to go to Park School and play baseball or go on hikes," he said.

Samet said it would be better for him as director to have some activity the year around to get leaders from the teen-agers. "I feel I'm a member of the city, too," he said.

Hugh James, speaking from the audience, said he seriously wondered whether this was a city or a parent responsibility. He said that as soon as his boy gets big enough he feels he will work on the dances with the parents rather than with the city.

Teen-ager James Hall said the teen-agers would appreciate it if the city would work up a recreation program that would include teen-agers' interests.

Drake High Teacher To Study In India

Charles G. Simonds of 340 Fawn Drive, Sleepy Hollow, social studies department head at Sir Francis Drake High School, has received a Fulbright grant providing eight weeks of study and travel in India next summer.

Notification came from the State Department which will hold an orientation conference June 21 in Washington, D.C., for the 20 history teachers in the United States receiving Fulbright awards.

Simonds is to attend a five-week seminar in Indian history, institutions and culture at the University of Poona south of Bombay. He will make a two-week tour of India ending with two days in Bombay. This will be his first visit to the Far East.

Civic Center Talk Tonight By Grand Jury

Marin County grand jurors will meet at 7:30 o'clock tonight in the courthouse to discuss the one-week work stoppage on the civic center building last January, which has resulted in a damage claim for more than $14,000.

Harry Heifetz, secretary of the grand jury, said that Marin County supervisors are not scheduled to appear tonight.

A committee, which has been studying the work stoppage, will give a report. The grand jurors will then decide what course of action to take, Heifetz said.

Wife Says Mate Took Her Money

Mrs. Helen N. Day of 36 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael, wants either her husband of one month or her bank account back, San Rafael police reported today.

Mrs. Day married Michael Day, 40, of Forest Hills, N.Y., last month, she told police. Since that time, he has been dependent on her for support, she said.

He convinced her to back him in marketing a new type of golf scoring cards. A company was formed and a joint bank account started Monday requiring either the signature of Michael Day or Helen Lowry, her maiden name. Mrs. Day deposited $4,000 in the account, she told police.

Monday afternoon, Day withdrew $3,850 from the account. He and his clothes disappeared at the same time, Mrs. Day reported.

Science Fair Winners Told

Winners in the science fair at Edna Maguire School in Mill Valley, most of whom are taking part in the countywide science fair today and tomorrow at the College of Marin, were announced yesterday by Principal Dominic Bobbio.

The winners, all seventh graders, were:

Physical science, Gary Fay, first prize for heat transfer; Suzannah Barbour, second, pictures in plastics. In biological science, Jan Stackpole, first, blood coagulation; Virginia Homboe, second, six types of gum fungi.

Receiving honorable mentions were Pam Swendensen, hamster maze; Nancy Behr, how chemicals and minerals affect plant growth; Pam Kroner, ducks, geese, swans, adaptions; Jackie Brand, light and soil effects on plants; Kent Bladwin, bulbs, how they grow; Gwen Stocking, turtles, effect on diet; Pat Keith, collection of invertebrates.

Hayden's Wife Presses Fight

Betty Ann De Noon Hamilton, former wife of actor Sterling Hayden, served notice in Marin Superior Court today she has not given up her fight to keep their children from traveling to Europe with the actor-writer.

She filed notice that she is appealing to the United States Supreme Court to reverse the decisions of Marin Superior Court and the California courts.

A Marin judge gave Hayden the right to take his children to Europe where he hopes to complete a book. This decision was upheld by the appellate court and the State Supreme Court.

Sleeper Hands Motorist Scare

An excited motorist dashed into the Novato Police Station this morning to report there was a dead man on Highway 101, about a half mile south of Club Rio.

Officer Wayne Knutila raced to the scene to find Dave Bechtol, 36, Santa Rosa, snoozing on the grass on the divider strip between north and southbound lanes.

Bechtol said he had been hitchhiking from Novato to Santa Rosa. He was asked to move on.

Marin Bowl Reports Series Of Thefts

The theft of money from the Marin Bowl over a four-week period was reported to the San Rafael police yesterday by Mark W. Fokes, assistant manager of the bowl at Third Street and Grand Avenue.

Fokes of 207 El Prado Avenue, said that $45.29 was missing on Feb. 19; $37.87 on Feb. 26; $70.94 on March 5 and $57.53 on March 12. The money was taken from the safe in the office, Fokes told police.

Giant U.S. Air Force globemasters roared into Leopoldville's tightly guarded airport today with crack Gurkha troops, the vanguard of a 4,700-strong combat Indian brigade ordered to U.N. duty in the Congo.

Despite the Congo government's bitter condemnation of the U.N. reinforcement by Indians, there was no trouble.

By early morning 200 soldiers and 28 tons of jeeps, weapons, ammunition and equipment had arrived.

On the political front, Premier Joseph Ileo of the Leopoldville government disclosed negotiations are under way to bring rebel-held Oriental Province into the proposed Congolese confederation.

Job Picture In Marin Said Brighter

Some improvement in the Marin County employment situation was reported last night at a meeting of the Marin County Labor Council in San Rafael.

Construction trades representatives said that at times during the past month the out-of-work list had been reduced about one-third, partly due to weather favorable to building. But the over-all picture continues to be one of sizeable unemployment in the building trades, the reports indicated.

Sam Eubanks, vice president of the California Federation of Labor, appeared in his capacity as member of the Golden Gate Authority Commission to give an account of the background and work of the commission. He said the commission recommends that the authority include not only existing facilities but ultimately rapid transit as well.

Eubanks reminded the council that it had voted support of the authority idea in 1959. He forecast that ultimately the complexity of problems in the nine Bay Area counties would force adoption of an over-all authority as a measure of efficiency.

Lothar Salin, candidate for the San Rafael Board of Education, and David Menary Jr., city council incumbent and candidate to succeed himself, appeared to speak briefly on their own behalf.

Rifle Disappears

An automatic rifle with four-power scope, worth $190, disappeared from the gun rack at Sausalito Bait Shop, owner Richard A. Urbais reported to the sheriff yesterday. Investigators said there was no evidence of a break-in. Urbais told officers the thief must yanked the 30-06 Remington automatic off the rack sometime during business hours.

Workman Hurt

Clyde A. Faulkner, 38, Carmel Hotel, San Rafael, was injured at 10:20 a.m. today when he fell at the H. C. Little Burner Co. at 76 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael. Faulkner was loading forms onto a truck when he fell backward astride a tractor frame. He was taken to San Rafael General Hospital where his condition was given as satisfactory.

KENNEDY

tative plans already have been drafted by advisory groups.

But if congress fails to act quickly enough—a strong possibility in view of the controversial nature of the over-all program — the administration will submit separate legislation for wheat and feed grains.

Kennedy's new proposal would authorize development of control program for all farm commodities. This could open the way to marketing control programs for beef, pork, and other presently uncontrolled and nonsupported commodities —if producers wanted to adopt them.

Under the Kennedy plan, congress would give blanket authorization for election of national farmer advisory committees for all commodities for which new marketing control programs are planned.

The committees, working with the secretary of agriculture, would draft control and price support plans under terms of broadened legislative authority which Kennedy also requested in his message.

Farmer committees also would be authorized to propose regional and national commodity marketing orders, and marketing quota controls fixed in terms of bushels, bales, or pounds.

The committees could use income support measures including price support loans, government commodity payments, export payments, or two-price systems in which farmers get a high price for domestic production and a low price for export sales.

No new program could go into effect, however, without meeting two tests. New plans would have to be submitted to Congress 60 days before taking effect. If either the House or the Senate voted to reject the plan, it would be dead. No new control law, in addition, could be placed in effect until it was approved in a referendum by two-thirds of the producers of the commodity involved.

Under the Kennedy proposal, present farm programs would remain in effect until and unless superseded by the farmer-drafted plan.

classroom to teach our youth."

"How can this apparent degeneration of our children's classroom be condoned by the school administrators?" the letert continued, as Mrs. Dodson read it at the meeting.

In a previous letter, dated Feb. 6, to Pacheco Principal Fred Newton, Mrs. Dodson said that on Feb. 3 she had happened into her daughter's class room at Pacheco to find "kids" dancing to rock and roll music with the shades drawn and lights out.

Another teacher was present. Hanchett returned to the classroom a few minutes later and explained that the dancing was a combined physical education class and farewell party for a departing student, Mrs. Dodson said. (Dancing is used in many physical education classes in schools.)

It was the "most shocking incident that I hope I ever encounter in a public school," she wrote to Newton. The dance went on for an hour, she alleged. Five previous dances had been held in Hanchett's class at various times, she charged.

She insisted that her daughter be allowed to leave the classroom during any further dances. A week ago, her daughter was transferred from Hanchett's class to another seventh grade class at Pacheco after discussions between Mrs. Dodson and school administrators.

Mrs. Dodson called the Max Shulman reading a "waste" of school time.

Hanchett said yesterday that some sections of the book by the humorist would be suitable and enjoyed by seventh graders and that others would not be suitable. He said he had read from portions of the first part of the book, which facetiously tells of the problems of a short boy with his girl friends.

"You have to be selective," he said. "This is a point of conscience with a teacher."

In a letter to the Independent-Journal, board members of the P-TA said:

"We, the undersigned, as members of the executive board of the Pacheco Parent-Teacher Association, San Jose School District, wish to make publicly known that we are in full support of our faculty, our principal, our superintendent of schools and board of trustees."

The letter notes national P-TA bylaws which prohibit attempts to direct administration and disowns participation with Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. James J. Roberts, inspiration chairman of the P-TA board, who backed Mrs. Dodson at Monday's school board meeting.

Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. Roberts did not appear at the P-TA board meeting Tuesday at which the letter was drafted, though notices of the meeting had been sent out some time before, the board members said.

Signing the letter were Mrs. Tindell; Donald R. Slezak, second vice president; Mrs. James Swenson, secretary; Mrs. Rulon M. West, treasurer; Mrs. Abe N. Granish, historian; James M. Lemon, parliamentarian; Mrs. William Ryburn, program chairman; Mrs. John C. Park, magazine chairman; Mrs. William Entwistle, room representation chairman; Mrs. Harlan Clare, hospitality chairman; Fred R. Loback, auditor, and Pacheco Principal Newton, an ex-officio member of the board.

Mrs. Robert McKenzie, another board member, is in the East. The only other board member has decided to remain neutral and does not want her name used with the letter, Mrs. Tindell said.

Marin To See Frost Classic

The Robert Frost classic, "A Masque of Mercy," will be presented to Marin audiences tomorrow and Saturday in Mill Valley and Fairfax.

First performance, by the Bay Area Religious Drama Society of Berkeley, will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Community Church in Mill Valley. Saturday's performance will be at the same time at the Community Church of Fairfax.

The play, based on the Book of Jonah, has two moods—a drama about a night fugitive who finds refuge in a book shop and a representative mood in which the characters stand for ideas or concepts.

Job Picture In Marin Said Brighter

Some improvement in the Marin County employment situation was reported last night at a meeting of the Marin County Labor Council in San Rafael.

Construction trades representatives said that at times during the past month the out-of-work list had been reduced about one-third, partly due to weather favorable to building. But the over-all picture continues to be one of sizeable unemployment in the building trades, the reports indicated.

Sam Eubanks, vice president of the California Federation of Labor, appeared in his capacity as member of the Golden Gate Authority Commission to give an account of the background and work of the commission. He said the commission recommends that the authority include not only existing facilities but ultimately rapid transit as well.

Eubanks reminded the council that it had voted support of the authority idea in 1959. He forecast that ultimately the complexity of problems in the nine Bay Area counties would force adoption of an over-all authority as a measure of efficiency.

Lothar Salin, candidate for the San Rafael Board of Education, and David Menary Jr., city council incumbent and candidate to succeed himself, appeared to speak briefly on their own behalf.

Rifle Disappears

An automatic rifle with four-power scope, worth $190, disappeared from the gun rack at Sausalito Bait Shop, owner Richard A. Urbais reported to the sheriff yesterday. Investigators said there was no evidence of a break-in. Urbais told officers the thief must yanked the 30-06 Remington automatic off the rack sometime during business hours.

Workman Hurt

Clyde A. Faulkner, 38, Carmel Hotel, San Rafael, was injured at 10:20 a.m. today when he fell at the H. C. Little Burner Co. at 76 Woodland Avenue, San Rafael. Faulkner was loading forms onto a truck when he fell backward astride a tractor frame. He was taken to San Rafael General Hospital where his condition was given as satisfactory.

tative plans already have been drafted by advisory groups.

But if congress fails to act quickly enough—a strong possibility in view of the controversial nature of the over-all program — the administration will submit separate legislation for wheat and feed grains.

Kennedy's new proposal would authorize development of control program for all farm commodities. This could open the way to marketing control programs for beef, pork, and other presently uncontrolled and nonsupported commodities —if producers wanted to adopt them.

Under the Kennedy plan, congress would give blanket authorization for election of national farmer advisory committees for all commodities for which new marketing control programs are planned.

The committees, working with the secretary of agriculture, would draft control and price support plans under terms of broadened legislative authority which Kennedy also requested in his message.

Farmer committees also would be authorized to propose regional and national commodity marketing orders, and marketing quota controls fixed in terms of bushels, bales, or pounds.

The committees could use income support measures including price support loans, government commodity payments, export payments, or two-price systems in which farmers get a high price for domestic production and a low price for export sales.

No new program could go into effect, however, without meeting two tests. New plans would have to be submitted to Congress 60 days before taking effect. If either the House or the Senate voted to reject the plan, it would be dead. No new control law, in addition, could be placed in effect until it was approved in a referendum by two-thirds of the producers of the commodity involved.

Under the Kennedy proposal, present farm programs would remain in effect until and unless superseded by the farmer-drafted plan.

TEACHER

classroom to teach our youth."

"How can this apparent degeneration of our children's classroom be condoned by the school administrators?" the letert continued, as Mrs. Dodson read it at the meeting.

In a previous letter, dated Feb. 6, to Pacheco Principal Fred Newton, Mrs. Dodson said that on Feb. 3 she had happened into her daughter's class room at Pacheco to find "kids" dancing to rock and roll music with the shades drawn and lights out.

Another teacher was present. Hanchett returned to the classroom a few minutes later and explained that the dancing was a combined physical education class and farewell party for a departing student, Mrs. Dodson said. (Dancing is used in many physical education classes in schools.)

It was the "most shocking incident that I hope I ever encounter in a public school," she wrote to Newton. The dance went on for an hour, she alleged. Five previous dances had been held in Hanchett's class at various times, she charged.

She insisted that her daughter be allowed to leave the classroom during any further dances. A week ago, her daughter was transferred from Hanchett's class to another seventh grade class at Pacheco after discussions between Mrs. Dodson and school administrators.

Mrs. Dodson called the Max Shulman reading a "waste" of school time.

Hanchett said yesterday that some sections of the book by the humorist would be suitable and enjoyed by seventh graders and that others would not be suitable. He said he had read from portions of the first part of the book, which facetiously tells of the problems of a short boy with his girl friends.

"You have to be selective," he said. "This is a point of conscience with a teacher."

In a letter to the Independent-Journal, board members of the P-TA said:

"We, the undersigned, as members of the executive board of the Pacheco Parent-Teacher Association, San Jose School District, wish to make publicly known that we are in full support of our faculty, our principal, our superintendent of schools and board of trustees."

The letter notes national P-TA bylaws which prohibit attempts to direct administration and disowns participation with Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. James J. Roberts, inspiration chairman of the P-TA board, who backed Mrs. Dodson at Monday's school board meeting.

Mrs. Dodson and Mrs. Roberts did not appear at the P-TA board meeting Tuesday at which the letter was drafted, though notices of the meeting had been sent out some time before, the board members said.

Signing the letter were Mrs. Tindell; Donald R. Slezak, second vice president; Mrs. James Swenson, secretary; Mrs. Rulon M. West, treasurer; Mrs. Abe N. Granish, historian; James M. Lemon, parliamentarian; Mrs. William Ryburn, program chairman; Mrs. John C. Park, magazine chairman; Mrs. William Entwistle, room representation chairman; Mrs. Harlan Clare, hospitality chairman; Fred R. Loback, auditor, and Pacheco Principal Newton, an ex-officio member of the board.

Mrs. Robert McKenzie, another board member, is in the East. The only other board member has decided to remain neutral and does not want her name used with the letter, Mrs. Tindell said.

Marin To See Frost Classic

The Robert Frost classic, "A Masque of Mercy," will be presented to Marin audiences tomorrow and Saturday in Mill Valley and Fairfax.

First performance, by the Bay Area Religious Drama Society of Berkeley, will be at 8 p.m. tomorrow at the Community Church in Mill Valley. Saturday's performance will be at the same time at the Community Church of Fairfax.

The play, based on the Book of Jonah, has two moods—a drama about a night fugitive who finds refuge in a book shop and a representative mood in which the characters stand for ideas or concepts.

Interview Of Chile Student Set On KTIM

Folk dancers will be hearing a special guest on the "Folk Dance Festival of the Air" Saturday at 9:30 a.m. on radio station KTIM.

Ricardo Szekely of Santiago, Chile, an American Field Service exchange student at Drake High School, will be interviewed by Mrs. Allyn Young of Corte Madera, master of ceremonies of the program sponsored by the Marin Dance Council.

Garbage Ordinance To Be Given Trial

Larkspur's no - exceptions garbage pickup ordinance will be given a month's trial before any amendment is considered, the Larkspur City Council decided last night.

Not one of the 65 Larkspur residents who do not now subscribe to Marin Sanitary Service garbage collection appeared last night, when the council had scheduled discussion of possibles amendments to the ordinance. But councilmen instructed City Manager Ronald E. Piper to schedule possible discussion of amendments for the first meeting in May. The ordinance goes into effect April 1.

One letter, from Mrs. Louella M. Hall of 60 Diane Lane, protested the ordinance. It stated Mrs. Hall's family had no need for the garbage disposal service. All their cans were flattened and taken to the dump. She claimed vegetable matter was ground fine and composted. Garbage is too valuable to be hauled away, the letter said.

Inside the letter was a cellophane package containing compost for the inspection of the city council.

Councilman Daniel Allen asked if there couldn't be exceptions made for people such as Mrs. Hall and Frank Gunner of 11 Piedmont Avenue, who use their garbage for composting.

"The unfortunate part of these things is that they always hit some people," Mayor Arthur E. Storhaug said. "If we make a variance or exception, the others, whom it is aimed at, will get out of it."

"If we make exceptions," Councilman Lesly A. Daveler said, "these will need policing. It will create more problems."

Of the 65 persons who do not subscribe to the garbage collection service, only four have sent letters of protest to the council, it was pointed out.

More Motorists Being Arrested

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The California Highway Patrol is arresting more motorists than ever, according to its most recent count.

Patrol officials say that arrests for January totaled 82,779. This compares with a January, 1960, total of 64,349.

Of the recent arrests, 24,462 were for speed violations and 1,024 for drunken driving. In January, 1960, speed arrests totaled 18,827 and drunken driving, 1,185.

UNANIMOUS VOTE

Point Reyes Park Backed By Assembly

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — The state Assembly officially went on record today in favor of federal acquisition of the Point Reyes Peninsula as a national seashore area.

The Assembly, by unanimous vote and without debate, passed AJR 27, which memorializes Congress and the president to pass bills currently before both the House and the Senate establishing the area.

The joint resolution, introduced by John A. O'Connell (D-San Francisco) and 17 other assemblymen, but not including Marin-Sonoma Assemblyman William T. Bagley, had previously won approval of the Assembly Rules Committee.

It notes that federal acquisition has been "strongly endorsed" by Gov. Edmund G. Brown and that the "acute need of both this state and of the federal government to capitalize now on one of the few clear remaining opportunities to save our vanishing shoreline for public recreational use."

The measure now goes to the Senate for consideration.

Larkspur Man Finds Wife In Creek Bed

A 36-year-old Larkspur woman was taken to Marin General Hospital this morning after apparently having lain in the Madrone Canyon creek bed for several hours.

The hospital held Mrs. Susan Ryan of 119 Wilson Way for treatment of a possible skull fracture. Her condition is described as "satisfactory." Hospital attendants said she was wet and cold when she was admitted.

She was discovered by her husband, Harrison W. Ryan, shortly after 7 a.m. Ryan told Larkspur police officer John Cottle that he and his wife had "sat up until about 4 a.m. working on income tax" and then he had gone to bed alone, leaving her listening to the hi-fi.

He was awakened by the hi-fi "making strange noises" about 7 a.m., he reported, and discovered his wife was missing. He searched, and found her lying in the creek bed about 50 yards from the house.

Ryan told police his wife had undoubtedly gone in search of their missing cat, and had slipped and fallen.

College Trustees To Hear Architectural Firm's Report

College of Marin trustees tonight will be given a report on the college's facilities and space needs by the architectural firm of Falk and Booth.

The board meets at 8 p.m. in room 61 of the Arts Building.

An executive session will be held by the trustees to evaluate the work of probationary teachers. At present, there are 18 teachers in their probationary period of three years. Of these, three will begin their fourth year next September if rehired, and will be eligible for tenure.

Consideration will be given appointment of a committee to evaluate requests for scholarships and make recommendations to the administration.

BACK TO MAMA — Dr. Carl Eklund puts a penguin egg back in the nest after installing a miniature broadcasting station within the shell. With this stunt, the scientist was able to find out how warm a penguin egg had to be to hatch. It is pictured, along with much other Antarctic lore, in "The Penguin Egg and IGY," which Eklund will show and narrate at the Fairfax Theater on Monday.

Crew Taken Off Freighter

LONG BEACH (AP)—Twenty-two crewmen were taken from the grounded Greek freighter Dominator after a huge crack developed amidships today, but the captain remained aboard.

Great waves were crashing over the ship as the crewmen were taken aboard a small boat and transferred to a Coast Guard cutter.

The Coast Guard said the skipper, Capt. C. H. Papanicopopolous, decided to stay aboard to protect the vessel from salvage claims and try to save radio equipment and part of the cargo of 9,000 tons of grain.

The decision to take off crewmen came at dawn as the Dominator listed to starboard.

Because of darkness, hidden rocks and heavy seas, the rescue craft were unable to get closer than 50 yards to the 10,000-ton, 441-foot vessel last night.

Scientist To Show Color Pictures About Antarctica

Color motion pictures of Antarctic exploration and adventure will be shown and narrated by Carl Eklund on Monday at 8 p.m. at the Fairfax Theater, for the benefit of the Junior Museum of Marin.

During International Geophysical Year, Dr. Eklund was scientific leader of one of the U.S. bases in Antarctica. He was chosen for this assignment on the basis of his accomplishments during Admiral Richard E. Byrd's 1939-41 Antarctic expedition.

In honor of his explorations, a group of islands in the King George VI Sound have been named "Eklund Islands."

Dr. Eklund is with the Polar Branch of the U.S. Army Research Office.

He brings to the lecture platform a wealth of revealing "deep-freeze" information, illustrated with a human-interest color film, titled "The Penguin Egg and IGY."

Dr. Eklund drew wide newspaper and magazine coverage when he "broadcast" the temperature of a penguin egg. A miniature broadcasting station, placed within the penguin egg, transmitted temperature signals for nine days, as Dr. Eklund sat patiently in a shelter nearby. It was thus determined by electric telemeter that the penguin warmed its egg to 92 degrees to hatch it.

Larkspur Police Told Of Theft

Carpenters' tools valued at $120 were discovered to be missing this morning from the P. L. Pinotti apartments under construction at King and Myrtle streets in Larkspur.

The loss was reported to Larkspur police by Granville L. Wyatt, construction worker. Missing were 10 hand saws and two Yankee screwdrivers, taken from three carpenters' tool boxes.

STREET EXTENSION

Larkspur Councilmen Award 2 Contracts

Bids were opened and contracts let last night by the Larkspur City Council for extension of Doherty Drive.

Contracts were awarded low bidder for the street paving, Brown-Ely Co. of Corte Madera, at $24,998, and low bidder for construction of a bridge, O. C. Jones and Sons of Berkeley, at $24,920.

Cost of the project is being shared by the City of Larkspur and Tamalpais High School District.

The city has $50,015 in the budget for the projects.

A resolution was passed setting up a policy to be followed in future encroachments on unused city rights of ways. Under the new policy, anyone wanting to erect a major structure on the city's right of way, must make an agreement with the city council. This agreement could be cancelled at any time by the council.

The council accepted the deed for the second parcel of land for the Greenbrae Fire Station from Niels Schultz of Bon Air Development Co. The first parcel was deeded to the city last year.

Plans for the proposed fire station were submitted by architect R. R. Zahn of Burlingame. Cost of the building was estimated at $52,753, including equipment.

The city council ordered that specifications be ready so bids can be called at the April 5 meeting and opened April 19.

The council instructed City Manager Ronald E. Piper to make further study into financon the pay-as-you-go basis.

Piper told the council that the fire station could be financed by a bond issue, creation of an assessment district under the 1911 Act, or borrowing from the city's sanitary fund, repaying it over a three-year period.

This fire station could save the residents of the area $3,700 a year in fire insurance, Piper told the council.

The council appointed Victor Corsini of 285 Harbor Drive to replace Martin O'Brien of 129 Tulane Drive on the planning commission.

After discussing whether to enlarge the planning commission or ask for help on committees from interested citizens, the council tabled further action on reorganizing the planning commission, pending meeting with the commission.

The council left any decision on whether to create a board of zoning adjustments until it meets with the planning commission.

New Mill Valley Art Gallery To Open On Monday

The gallery, which will feature showings of paintings, prints, sculpture and ceramics, and will sell European coffees and pastries, will open Monday noon at 17 Madrona Avenue in Mill Valley, in the former Pacific Gas and Electric Co. office.

Hours will be from noon to midnight, Monday through Saturday, and from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Sundays for brunch.

The gallery and coffee house will open with a group show of works by artists Kett Zegart of Mill Valley; Owen Stone and Harry Eisinger of Larkspur; John Ihle of Mill Valley, Frank Milner of Tiburon, Albert Alvo-Volckerts and Ralph Putzker of San Francisco.

Partners in the business are Elizabeth Coffelt of 115 Highland Lane and Jean Stires of 460 Cascade Drive, both of Mill Valley, and Eisinger of Larkspur.

Paintings, according to Mrs. Coffelt, will be by Bay Area artists, and The Gallery will feature graphics, scultpre and ceramics. There will be an enclosed courtyard with tables and chairs to the rear of the building.

THOSE TRAINS ARE WORKING IN TEAMS

PALO ALTO (AP)—There's the joke about a train just missing a victim and then backing up to have a second go.

Well, it happened here yesterday, only it was two trains.

Palo Alto housewife Mrs. Elena C. George, 39, drove onto a Southern Pacific crossing just as the signal started clanging. The gates came down, one resting on the back of her car.

She jumped out. A northbound commute train passed harmlessly on another track.

The gates went up but Mrs. George couldn't start her car. The signal clanged, the gates came down, Mrs. Gates leaped.

This time it was a southbound freight.

Pow!

She was unhurt. The auto was smashed.

2 Runaway Boys Booked In Marin

Two runaway boys, aged 14 and 15, who wrecked a stolen car in West Sacramento and hitchhiked to Reno, were booked at Marin Juvenile Hall this morning for car theft and delinquency.

The 14-year-old, from Mill Valley, admitted stealing a station wagon parked at the home of Charles Gustav Dreyer of 7 Morning Sun Avenue on Tuesday. He told sheriff's deputies he then picked up his companion from Sausalito and drove toward Sacramento.

They abandoned the car in West Sacramento when the vehicle hit a utility pole, then hitchhiked to Reno. Police in Reno arrested the boys Tuesday night.

The father of one of the boys went to Reno to pick up the boys and delivered them to the sheriff's office.

Terra Linda Police Appointment Delayed

The Terra Linda Community Services District board last night held off appointment of a new police commissioner to give itself more time to choose among four candidates.

The vacancy resulted from resignation of John Hansen. The board plans to announce the appointment at its next meeting, March 29.

One of the new commissioner's jobs will be to supervise forming a bicycle safety class for youngsters. Board members are working with the Dixie School District board and Parent-Teacher Assns. on the matter.

The board has been working with Capt. Theodore F. Parnow of the California Highway Patrol on re-surveying the traffic problems for school children at Terra Linda intersections. A traffic light might be installed at the intersection of Las Gallinas Avenue and Freitas Parkway, it was suggested last night.

Director Remington Hodgson recommended the board create a three-man committee to work with the county planning commission on developing the community. Hodgson suggested architects or persons familiar with planning and building be appointed. The board was in favor of the move and indicated a committee may be appointed at its next meeting.

Beginning next month, the board of directors will meet the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month at 8 p.m. in the Terra Linda Community Building. They have been meeting in the Bernard Hoffman School.

The board decided to hire a landscape architect to plan the development of some of the land in Terra Linda included in the area's master plan.

The Terra Linda Fire Department reported its agreement with Hamilton Air Force Base to exchange help when needed had been renewed.

Property Taxes Exemption Passes

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The Assembly yesterday passed a bill to permit a $500 exemption on personal property taxes.

The present law, enacted in 1904, permits taxpayers to exempt $100 worth of personal property from county taxation.

Assemblyman Carl Britschgi (R-Redwood City) had originally proposed a $2,000 exemption but said he modified the bill because of pressure from the California Supervisors Assn., and the League of California Cities.

Opponents of the measure said it would deprive local communities of revenue. It was approved by a 41-35 vote.

BACK TO MAMA — Dr. Carl Eklund puts a penguin egg back in the nest after installing a miniature broadcasting station within the shell. With this stunt, the scientist was able to find out how warm a penguin egg had to be to hatch. It is pictured, along with much other Antarctic lore, in "The Penguin Egg and IGY," which Eklund will show and narrate at the Fairfax Theater on Monday.

Crew Taken Off Freighter

LONG BEACH (AP)—Twenty-two crewmen were taken from the grounded Greek freighter Dominator after a huge crack developed amidships today, but the captain remained aboard.

Great waves were crashing over the ship as the crewmen were taken aboard a small boat and transferred to a Coast Guard cutter.

The Coast Guard said the skipper, Capt. C. H. Papanicopopolous, decided to stay aboard to protect the vessel from salvage claims and try to save radio equipment and part of the cargo of 9,000 tons of grain.

The decision to take off crewmen came at dawn as the Dominator listed to starboard.

Because of darkness, hidden rocks and heavy seas, the rescue craft were unable to get closer than 50 yards to the 10,000-ton, 441-foot vessel last night.

Scientist To Show Color Pictures About Antarctica

Color motion pictures of Antarctic exploration and adventure will be shown and narrated by Carl Eklund on Monday at 8 p.m. at the Fairfax Theater, for the benefit of the Junior Museum of Marin.

During International Geophysical Year, Dr. Eklund was scientific leader of one of the U.S. bases in Antarctica. He was chosen for this assignment on the basis of his accomplishments during Admiral Richard E. Byrd's 1939-41 Antarctic expedition.

In honor of his explorations, a group of islands in the King George VI Sound have been named "Eklund Islands."

Dr. Eklund is with the Polar Branch of the U.S. Army Research Office.

He brings to the lecture platform a wealth of revealing "deep-freeze" information, illustrated with a human-interest color film, titled "The Penguin Egg and IGY."

Dr. Eklund drew wide newspaper and magazine coverage when he "broadcast" the temperature of a penguin egg. A miniature broadcasting station, placed within the penguin egg, transmitted temperature signals for nine days, as Dr. Eklund sat patiently in a shelter nearby. It was thus determined by electric telemeter that the penguin warmed its egg to 92 degrees to hatch it.

San Rafael Council Candidates Argue Municipal Policies

Two incumbent San Rafael city councilmen defended current policies against a challenger for the council on today's "Marin Sounding Board" of radio station KTIM. Two other candidates didn't show up.

All three agreed that San Rafael needs more four-hour and all day parking. They saw Highway 101 enlargement as a major problem. The outsider felt in position to be more critical of present plans.

The incumbents are David Menary Jr. and Louis H. (Bud) Baar. Third candidate to appear was Orlando Conti, who ran for mayor four years ago.

Said Conti: "Four years ago I u r g e d — and they laughed, but now . . . "

Absent were candidates Joseph R. Filippo and Michael McLean.

Describing himself as an independent given to "calling them as I see them," Menary, who is an attorney, led off with a recital of what has been done since he was appointed to the council last year. He said major problems are traffic congestion, need for more city hall space (Menary favored a new hall) and benefits to be derived from more business and industry.

He said he'd long favored one-way streets without which "San Rafael in time will lose business." Without sales tax income the city can't hold its present growth rate, he declared.

The council, said Menary, "is doing a good job."

Conti's opening statement was extremely brief but embodied a plea for four-hour parking lots. A plumbing contractor, he has served on the city planning commission two and one-half years and throughout the program he stressed the value of that commission's work.

He said there is need of a city hall "but we should leave it up to the vote of the people."

Baar, a real estate broker, listed council accomplishments over the past four years and said he believed the 96-cent tax rate — reduced in 1957 from $1.15—"should remain in future."

He said 300 parking places have been provided but more may be built in future. He said negotiations are still proceeding with the state "for the best plan" for Highway 101.

Also planned, he said, is a fourth fire station.

The present city council is considered, thought Baar, to be "accomplishing more than any of the past."

Conti's brevity left some spare time during the first half-hour so he was given a chance to tell more of the value of the planning commission. On his personal views, he said that when running for mayor he had stressed the need for more parking "but people laughed—maybe I'm too far ahead."

Menary said he agreed with Conti about the need for parking to accommodate downtown workers and shoppers.

"Municipal lots aren't being used to capacity now," he said. "If we made some four-hour, they would be used to a greater extent."

Baar said all-day parking is provided on the lot at Second Street and Lincoln Avenue "but people don't want to walk to the shopping area," which has caused study of double-decking more accessible lots.

"Study has shown," said Baar, "that the cost of such a job on the Third Street lot would be approximately the same price as land acquisition and paving. Feasibility and necessary parking charges must be determined."

Terra Linda came into several questions phoned by listeners, with Conti saying that annexation failed because of lack of recreational provision by the city but the councilmen feeling that a proposed recreation site had been overpriced.

Baar said "there would have been severe criticism" if the costly property had been acquired and then Terra Linda had stayed out anyhow. All felt that Terra Linda would favor annexation eventually. Menary predicted that "San Rafael eventually will expand up to near Novato."

About Highway 101, the councilmen felt the best arrangements possible are being made since the freeway runs through San Rafael, but Conti "would have liked to see it miss San Rafael completely," didn't think the city should be "cut to ribbons" and forecast new problems every 10 to 15 years.

Asked about a possible dog leash law, all three were most cautious, with Menary dismissing the topic thus: "I'm a dog lover—no comment!"

Larkspur Eyes Bigger Share Of Fine Money

The City of Larkspur stands to gain some $2,600 per year if the resolution passed last night by the city council is carried through the Marin County Board of Supervisors and the State Legislature.

The resolution reverses the ratio of sharing fines between Marin County and the City of Larkspur. Under the old ratio, Marin County received 62 per cent and the City of Larkspur 38 per cent of the fines.

Under the proposed agreement, the City of Larkspur would receive 70 per cent and Marin County would get 30 per cent.

City Manager Ronald E. Piper of Larkspur met with the Marin County Board of Supervisors Monday to discuss the inequality of the division of fines in cities in the county.

San Anselmo receives 89 per cent; San Rafael and Mill Valley, 87 per cent; Corte Madera, 88 per cent; Novato and Belvedere, 84 per cent and Sausalito, 79 per cent.

Fairfax was the only other city where the county received a larger percentage. Fairfax received 42 per cent and the county 58 per cent.

Public Dance Slated

The Stump Jumpers Square Dance Club will hold a public dance from 8:30 p.m. to midnight Saturday at the IDESI hall in Novato. Gordon Collins will be guest caller.

Developer Opposes Proposal For Park

Developer George M. Goheen told the Mill Valley City Council last night he approves of the use of planned unit development, the first in the county, for his 52-acre subdivision at Scott Highlands Unit 2, but he objected to the city's proposal that he include a park.

"I don't want a park where kids can come up and throw out their beer cans," he said.

Goheen said he plans $75,000-$80,000 homes in the area to be similar to Kent Woodlands and Del Mesa. "The type of people we hope to attract are not interested in a playground for their kids," said Goheen. "I have checked around at Kent Woodlands where they have no playground and don't want one."

The council set a work session April 1 at 10 a.m. in the City Hall to look further into the matter of a possible park.

Planned unit development, recommended March 1 by the planning commission, relaxes some of the restrictions on lot sizes, etc., in the interest of over-all development of the subdivision.

The planning commission informed the council by letter that it does not oppose Goheen's request to rezone 180 acres in the Alto Bowl from suburban agricultural to be another planned residential development. The commission said it has reservations about density and traffic which would result if the rezoning is approved by the county planning commission, which takes the matter up Monday.

The city council took no action.

Three letters from Alto residents, opposing the rezoning, were read.

The council voted unanimously to adopt a street plan for East Mill Valley with the exception that all references to rapid transit be removed from the plan.

The plan is for the marshland area and envisions East Blithedale Avenue as a four-lane road from Highway 101 to Camino Alto, Miller Avenue as four lanes to East Blithedale Avenue along Camino Alto, and a Sycamore Avenue extension as a two-lane road from Camino Alto to Highway 101.

The council also:

1. Voted 3-2, Mayor Robert D. Huber and Councilman Michael Wornum voting "no," to reaffirm its position that it wants the rapid transit district line east of Highway 101.
2. Adopted three resolutions to care for legal details in connection with the small craft harbor project.
3. Referred to planning commission a proposal from Kent Seymour that the city purchase the E. A. Stainton property at 36 Corte Madera Avenue for $22,500 for future expansion of city offices.
4. Established arterial stop signs at Ashford Avenue and East Blithedale Avenue, Dorset Avenue and East Blithedale, Lomita Avenue and East Blithedale, Edgewood Avenue and Dorset, and Throckmorton Avenue at Bernard Street. Planning commission and city engineer were asked for a report on the possibility of putting in a traffic light at East Blithedale and Lomita.
5. Referred to City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson a suggestion that the sewer connection fee for persons outside the city be set at $600, a sum $500 more than the city resident pays. The charge is now $200.

Russ Demand Early U.N. Congo Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI)—The Soviet Union today demanded that the U.N. General Assembly begin full debate on the Congo problem before the end of the week.

The Soviet demand was in a letter from Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to the assembly's president, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland.

Later an informant quoted Boland as saying: "There will not be a meeting this week on the Congo. It is impossible."

Gromyko said the situation in the Congo "is steadily deteriorating." In an apparent reference to the recent agreement of Congolese leaders to form a Congo confederation, he declared:

"Attempts have been undertaken of late to dismember the Republic of the Congo, due to which the threat to the independence and territorial integrity of that country has grown."

It had been generally agreed a Congo debate would take place early in the current session of the assembly, but no formal move had been made. Several African countries have been pressing for a discussion.

San Rafael Council Candidates Argue Municipal Policies

Two incumbent San Rafael city councilmen defended current policies against a challenger for the council on today's "Marin Sounding Board" of radio station KTIM. Two other candidates didn't show up.

All three agreed that San Rafael needs more four-hour and all day parking. They saw Highway 101 enlargement as a major problem. The outsider felt in position to be more critical of present plans.

The incumbents are David Menary Jr. and Louis H. (Bud) Baar. Third candidate to appear was Orlando Conti, who ran for mayor four years ago.

Said Conti: "Four years ago I urged — and they laughed, but now . . . "

Absent were candidates Joseph R. Filippo and Michael McLean.

Describing himself as an independent given to "calling them as I see them," Menary, who is an attorney, led off with a recital of what has been done since he was appointed to the council last year. He said major problems are traffic congestion. need for more city hall space (Menary favored a new hall) and benefits to be derived from more business and industry.

He said he'd long favored one-way streets without which "San Rafael in time will lose business." Without sales tax income the city can't hold its present growth rate, he declared.

The council, said Menary, "is doing a good job."

Conti's opening statement was extremely brief but embodied a plea for four-hour parking lots. A plumbing contractor, he has served on the city planning commission two and one-half years and throughout the program he stressed the value of that commission's work.

He said there is need of a city hall "but we should leave it up to the vote of the people."

Baar, a real estate broker, listed council accomplishments over the past four years and said he believed the 96-cent tax rate — reduced in 1957 from $1.15—"should remain in future."

He said 300 parking places have been provided but more may be built in future. He said negotiations are still proceeding with the state "for the best plan" for Highway 101.

Also planned, he said, is a fourth fire station.

The present city council is considered, thought Baar, to be "accomplishing more than any of the past."

Conti's brevity left some spare time during the first half-hour so he was given a chance to tell more of the value of the planning commission. On his personal views, he said that when running for mayor he had stressed the need for more parking "but people laughed—maybe I'm too far ahead."

Menary said he agreed with Conti about the need for parking to accommodate downtown workers and shoppers.

"Municipal lots aren't being used to capacity now," he said. "If we made some four-hour, they would be used to a greater extent."

Baar said all-day parking is provided on the lot at Second Street and Lincoln Avenue "but people don't want to walk to the shopping area," which has caused study of double-decking more accessible lots.

"Study has shown," said Baar, "that the cost of such a job on the Third Street lot would be approximately the same price as land acquisition and paving. Feasibility and necessary parking charges must be determined."

Terra Linda came into several questions phoned by listeners, with Conti saying that annexation failed because of lack of recreational provision by the city but the councilmen feeling that a proposed recreation site had been overpriced.

Baar said "there would have been severe criticism" if the costly property had been acquired and then Terra Linda had stayed out anyhow. All felt that Terra Linda would favor annexation eventually. Menary predicted that "San Rafael eventually will expand up to near Novato."

About Highway 101, the councilmen felt the best arrangements possible are being made since the freeway runs through San Rafael, but Conti "would have liked to see it miss San Rafael completely," didn't think the city should be "cut to ribbons" and forecast new problems every 10 to 15 years.

Asked about a possible dog leash law, all three were most cautious, with Menary dismissing the topic thus: "I'm a dog lover—no comment!"

Larkspur Eyes Bigger Share Of Fine Money

The City of Larkspur stands to gain some $2,600 per year if the resolution passed last night by the city council is carried through the Marin County Board of Supervisors and the State Legislature.

The resolution reverses the ratio of sharing fines between Marin County and the City of Larkspur. Under the old ratio, Marin County received 62 per cent and the City of Larkspur 38 per cent of the fines.

Under the proposed agreement, the City of Larkspur would receive 70 per cent and Marin County would get 30 per cent.

City Manager Ronald E. Piper of Larkspur met with the Marin County Board of Supervisors Monday to discuss the inequality of the division of fines in cities in the county.

San Anselmo receives 89 per cent; San Rafael and Mill Valley, 87 per cent; Corte Madera, 88 per cent; Novato and Belvedere, 84 per cent and Sausalito, 79 per cent.

Fairfax was the only other city where the county received a larger percentage. Fairfax received 42 per cent and the county 58 per cent.

Public Dance Slated

The Stump Jumpers Square Dance Club will hold a public dance from 8:30 p.m. to midnight Saturday at the IDESI hall in Novato. Gordon Collins will be guest caller.

Developer Opposes Proposal For Park

Developer George M. Goheen told the Mill Valley City Council last night he approves of the use of planned unit development, the first in the county, for his 52-acre subdivision at Scott Highlands Unit 2, but he objected to the city's proposal that he include a park.

"I don't want a park where kids can come up and throw out their beer cans," he said.

Goheen said he plans $75,000-$80,000 homes in the area to be similar to Kent Woodlands and Del Mesa. "The type of people we hope to attract are not interested in a playground for their kids," said Goheen. "I have checked around at Kent Woodlands where they have no playground and don't want one."

The council set a work session April 1 at 10 a.m. in the City Hall to look further into the matter of a possible park.

Planned unit development, recommended March 1 by the planning commission, relaxes some of the restrictions on lot sizes, etc., in the interest of over-all development of the subdivision.

The planning commission informed the council by letter that it does not oppose Goheen's request to rezone 180 acres in the Alto Bowl from suburban agricultural to be another planned residential development. The commission said it has reservations about density and traffic which would result if the rezoning is approved by the county planning commission, which takes the matter up Monday.

The city council took no action.

Three letters from Alto residents, opposing the rezoning, were read.

The council voted unanimously to adopt a street plan for East Mill Valley with the exception that all references to rapid transit be removed from the plan.

The plan is for the marshland area and envisions East Blithedale Avenue as a four-lane road from Highway 101 to Camino Alto, Miller Avenue as four lanes to East Blithedale Avenue along Camino Alto, and a Sycamore Avenue extension as a two-lane road from Camino Alto to Highway 101.

The council also:

1. Voted 3-2, Mayor Robert D. Huber and Councilman Michael Wornum voting "no," to reaffirm its position that it wants the rapid transit district line east of Highway 101.
2. Adopted three resolutions to care for legal details in connection with the small craft harbor project.
3. Referred to planning commission a proposal from Kent Seymour that the city purchase the E. A. Stainton property at 36 Corte Madera Avenue for $22,500 for future expansion of city offices.
4. Established arterial stop signs at Ashford Avenue and East Blithedale Avenue, Dorset Avenue and East Blithedale, Lomita Avenue and East Blithedale, Edgewood Avenue and Dorset, and Throckmorton Avenue at Bernard Street. Planning commission and city engineer were asked for a report on the possibility of putting in a traffic light at East Blithedale and Lomita.
5. Referred to City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson a suggestion that the sewer connection fee for persons outside the city be set at $600, a sum $500 more than the city resident pays. The charge is now $200.

Russ Demand Early U.N. Congo Debate

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) —The Soviet Union today demanded that the U.N. General Assembly begin full debate on the Congo problem before the end of the week.

The Soviet demand was in a letter from Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko to the assembly's president, Frederick H. Boland of Ireland.

Later an informant quoted Boland as saying: "There will not be a meeting this week on the Congo. It is impossible."

Gromyko said the situation in the Congo "is steadily deteriorating." In an apparent reference to the recent agreement of Congolese leaders to form a Congo confederation, he declared:

"Attempts have been undertaken of late to dismember the Republic of the Congo, due to which the threat to the independence and territorial integrity of that country has grown."

It had been generally agreed a Congo debate would take place early in the current session of the assembly, but no formal move had been made. Several African countries have been pressing for a discussion.

Seven Candidates Seek Two Positions On Board Of Education In San Rafael

Two Incumbents Retiring; Vote Slated April 10

A wide open race has developed for two positions on the San Rafael Board of Education, with seven candidates running in the April 10 election.

The two incumbents, Harold H. Fulkerson and Willard E. Veron, are not seeking re-election.

This has left the field open for candidates running for these positions. The two candidates receiving the highest vote will get four-year terms on the board that runs both the San Rafael High School District and San Rafael Elementary School District.

The seven candidates are Bella Aaron, Joseph Albanese, John M. Bagshaw, Ben F. Petrini, Lothar Salin, Howard L. Simon and H. David Sokoloff.

BELLA AARONS
San Rafael attorney

BELLA AARON

Bella Aaron, 50, of 325 Point San Pedro Road, is an attorney. She is a native of Lipton, Canada. She was educated in Utah, attending Weber College and University of Utah. She is also a graduate of the law school of University of California.

She taught school in Utah. She has also worked in radio, merchandising and done secretarial work prior to taking her law degree. She was a member of Tobriner and Lazarus before starting her own legal practice in San Rafael, with an office in the Cheda Building.

In her platform, Mrs. Aaron states: "I believe in the use of the taxpayers' money for the streamlining and upgrading of the school system without any further taxation, by a judicious application of existing funds . . . because of my background of teaching, business and law, coupled with my great interest as a mother . . . I am qualified for the board of education."

Her husband, Lewis Aaron, a certified public accountant, was born in San Anselmo. They have two adopted children, Deena Aaron, 15, and Susan Aaron, 12.

JOSEPH ALBANESE
Former board member

JOSEPH ALBANESE

Joseph Albanese, 52, of 26 Alta Vista Way, an insurance agent, served on the San Rafael Board of Education from 1949 to 1953.

A native of Rumford, Me., Albanese hitch-hiked to California in 1926, where he has made his home ever since. He was graduated from Huntington Park High School. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of California at Los Angeles and attended U.C. at Berkeley for two years.

Albanese states: "I feel that I am especially qualified to serve the people of the San Rafael School District because of my training in the field of education, past experience on the San Rafael Board of Education. Since 1940 I have been very close to school activities pertaining to the San Rafael School District."

Albanese and his wife Margaret have one daughter, Mariam.

Drunken Drivers Hear Sentences

Three drunken drivers were sentenced yesterday in Marin Municipal Court by Judge Leonard A. Thomas.

James John Payton, 40, of 519 Northern Avenue, Mill Valley, and Clifford Eugene Palmer, 25, of 63 Railroad Avenue, San Rafael, each drew a $158 fine and six months probation. Payton was caught on San Pedro Road on Monday. Palmer was arrested on Highway 101 near Corte Madera on Jan. 30.

Ernest Malloy, 39, a visiting truck driver from Texas, drew a 15-day jail sentence and six months probation but got off without a fine. Malloy said he is going right back to Texas. If he returns to California during the probation, said the judge, he must report back to the court to tell where he is and why.

Malloy was caught on Highway 101 on Tuesday.

Irishmen Asked To Donate Blood

An SOS to Irishmen has been issued by Mrs. Kenneth Denman, chairman of the Marin County blood program. She asks that they turn out in force to donate blood at the Elks Club in San Rafael from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Blood donors will wear their colors proudly as Mrs. Denman has arranged for Katherine Eubanks, Larkspur florist, to present each donor with a green carnation.

Drunken Drivers Hear Sentences

Three drunken drivers were sentenced yesterday in Marin Municipal Court by Judge Leonard A. Thomas.

James John Payton, 40, of 519 Northern Avenue, Mill Valley, and Clifford Eugene Palmer, 25, of 63 Railroad Avenue, San Rafael, each drew a $158 fine and six months probation. Payton was caught on San Pedro Road on Monday. Palmer was arrested on Highway 101 near Corte Madera on Jan. 30.

Ernest Malloy, 39, a visiting truck driver from Texas, drew a 15-day jail sentence and six months probation but got off without a fine. Malloy said he is going right back to Texas. If he returns to California during the probation, said the judge, he must report back to the court to tell where he is and why.

Malloy was caught on Highway 101 on Tuesday.

Irishmen Asked To Donate Blood

An SOS to Irishmen has been issued by Mrs. Kenneth Denman, chairman of the Marin County blood program. She asks that they turn out in force to donate blood at the Elks Club in San Rafael from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Blood donors will wear their colors proudly as Mrs. Denman has arranged for Katherine Eubanks, Larkspur florist, to present each donor with a green carnation.

ASSEMBLYMEN TOLD:

Printer Unaware Of Text Surplus

SACRAMENTO (AP) — State Printer Paul E. Gallagher says he didn't know he was printing more textbooks than California's schoolchildren could use, and didn't know the Education Department was destroying the surplus.

Gallagher was the chief witness last night as an Assembly ways and means subcommittee held a third public hearing in the investigation set off by the disclosure that the Education Department had burned 185,000 new books.

Chairman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles) opened the session by announcing he had found no evidence of criminal acts or anything more than "oversight, negligence, or poor judgment."

The Education Department has admitted destroying more than one million new books in the past 20 years and said that the surplus was partly caused by consistent overruns by the state printer.

Gallagher testified it is standard practice in the printing industry to allow 10 per cent over or under the quantity ordered.

"In the 15 years I have been state printer, I have had no knowledge or information that the overruns delivered were not acceptable or usable, and that destruction of remainders was being done," he said.

Gallagher also testified he has charged the Education Department, and all other state departments, the exact cost of printing performed.

'It is our opinion that costs are being computed accurately," he said. Legislative Analyst A. Alan Post had said that accounting at the printing plant was so sloppy that nobody could tell what a book cost to print.

Post said the printing plant once built up a four-million-dollar reserve in its fund, which is not subject to legislative control.

"Agencies were systematically overcharged for printing," he said.

Asst. Finance Director Arthur Collins denied Post's testimony. He said the surplus resulted from allocating too much to reserves for employees' sick leave and other benefits.

Unruh set the next hearing for Tuesday night and said Gallagher would be asked to appear again.

Textbook Choice Plan Approved

SACRAMENTO (AP)—California's elementary schools would have a choice of the free state texts under legislation approved by the Assembly Education Committee last night.

Under present law the State Board of Education adopts standard texts which must be used in all public schedules.

The bill by Assemblyman Gorden Winton (D-Merced), would require the board to offer school districts several texts in a subject when possible.

The bill now goes to the Assembly Ways and Means Committee.

HE SAID IT—John Profumo, British war minister, touched off an uproar in the House of Commons yesterday when, in the heat of a debate, he threw the Americanism, "lousy," at his opponent. He was forced by shocked MPs to withdraw the word in favor of a more British expression. (AP Wirephoto)

Marin Solon Plans Fight On Vote Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael) planned today a last ditch effort to change a Democratic bill which would eliminate the right of poll workers to challenge the literacy of voters.

The bill was passed the Assembly and the Senate Elections Committee and is ready for a Senate vote.

McCarthy called it "the most politically dangerous legislative measure" he has seen.

His amendment would require that deputy registrars, who would give the only literacy test required by law, would have to sign an affidavit that the test had been given.

Democrats claim that poll workers in the last presidential election unfairly rejected minority group voters.

Finger Mashed

VICTIM OF HUMANS' INHUMANITY

This cat was patched up in San Mateo yesterday by Dr. Arthur Gilber, veterinarian, and nurse Mrs. Betty Shoop at the city's animal shelter after being rescued by two deputy sheriffs. The deputies found the cat at a Half Moon Bay gas station, dangling by a rope tied to its hind legs and above a leaping dog. The cat had been bitten on the forelegs, the dog was lashed over the right eye. The officers booked Robert J. Maliszewski, 26, station owner, and John F. Rogers, 19, a San Francisco barber, on cruelty to animal charges. The men said they were teaching the dog to kill cats. (AP Wirephoto)

LOCAL ELECTIONS

Solons Back Party Labels On Ballots

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Is California swinging back toward partisan city and county elections?

The state took local elections out of partisan politics more than 50 years ago at the height of a reform movement sparked by boss-ridden scandals.

The Assembly Elections and Reapportionment Committee decided yesterday it's time to revive partisan local elections, at least part way.

By a vote of 10 Democrats to four Republicans, the committee approved a bill to permit candidates for city and county officers — all except county clerk—to attach party labels to their names on the ballot.

Assemblyman John A. O'Connell, D-San Francisco, contended his bill would give the voters a better clue to their candidates than the present listing of occupations.

Nonpartisan local elections, said Assemblyman George A. Willson, D-Huntington Park, are a deception because everyone knows the candidates belong to a political party.

Richard Carpenter, opposing the bill for the League of California Cities, warned it would return California to a system that bred corruption at the turn of the century.

The committee also approved a bill designed to prevent a repetition of the long delay in determining the winner of the presidential election in California last November.

The law now requires absentee ballots to be postmarked no later than election days but allows them to be received up to five days after election.

The bill, by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), would require the mailed ballots to come in no later than three days before election, and to be counted on election day. The committee approved it by a vote of 10 Democrats to four Republicans.

Education Bill Under Attack

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Far-reaching legislation to emphasize academic subjects in the training of California teachers and school administrators was put under heavy fire yesterday by vocational teachers.

Spokesmen for statewide groups of instructors in business and home economics, industrial arts, agriculture and other non-academic subjects attacked the measure as giving them "second class status."

The bill by Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) would allow teachers with non-academic degrees to teach, but only in the subjects in which they had degrees. Teachers would have to have five years of college.

State Medical Plan For Aged Is Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Ronald B. Cameron (D-Whittier) today introduced legislation to create a state sponsored program for providing "comprehensive" medical care for the aged.

Cameron said that current programs before Congress were designed primarily to furnish hospitalization for persons over 65. His program would furnish them with out-patient care, eyeglasses, false teeth and other prosthetic devices.

He proposed that employees alone finance the program by extending the range of payroll deductions from the current $4,000 to a base of $10,000.

Hospital Record Disclosure Bill Wins Committee Backing

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly Public Health Committee has unanimously approved a bill to force disclosure of private hospital records.

The bill by Assemblyman Ronald B. Cameron would make public applications for licenses by hospitals, annual statistical reports of hospitals and reports of periodic inspections by the state.

The bill caused a flurry of excitement in the legislature when it was reported that two lobbyists met at the weekly luncheon with members of the committee and decided to kill the bill. However, the Assembly committee that credentials lobbyists later gave the two a clean bill of health.

Solons Blast Red Charges

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Democratic and Republican leaders of the State Senate have accused Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) of headline hunting on the Communist issue.

"We will firmly resist the establishment of any kind of headline hunting committee," said a joint statement Wednesday by Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), and Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

Burns is chairman and McCarthy a member of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities.

Francis also came under fire from Assemblyman William A. Munnell (D-Montebello), majority leader of the lower house.

Munnell asked Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover to investigate Francis' charges of subversive activity at Humboldt State College.

Probably half of all yearling buck deer have two points on each side of their antlers.

Solon Would Tighten Curbs On Unethical Car Dealers

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A proposal to protect car buyers against "unethical" auto dealers was ready for introduction in the legislature today.

Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles) said he would introduce a comprehensive measure to bolster existing state laws which govern auto purchases.

His bill would:

Require dealers to refund down payments when sales are not completed.

Require dealers to show buyers the actual amount charged for financing the purchases.

Require dealers to notify buyers by registered mail four days in advance of payment deadline of the amount needed to retain possession and where the car, if repossessed, is located.

Repeal provisions of the law allowing liens on real estate second trust deeds.

THEY RE-GREW HAIR!

Mr. Newhouse, (left), gave about 20 minutes of his time for the Harlow free hair and scalp consultation and re-grew his hair.

Mrs. Haller, (right), shows her results by Harlow treatments.

Scalp Specialist Here Tomorrow Only Will Show How to Save Hair and Prevent Baldness

Coral Gables, Fla., Friday, March 17 only, at the Bermuda Palms Motel in San Rafael, California, Staff Director E. J. Mankus will give free hair and scalp consultation between 1:00 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. to hair worried men and women.

Harlow Hair & Scalp Consultants, the oldest and largest organization of its kind, makes regular visits to San Rafael, California, throughout the year to assure you of success in a minimum period of time. Harlow is now in its seventh year. Last year alone, over one-quarter million Harlow home scalp treatments were used.

Surveys among men and women in all walks of life show that the worst enemies of your hair are (1) doubt and (2) delay. Many balding people who are doing nothing to help themselves are justifying their condition with thinking like this: "I don't think anybody can stop hair loss"—or "I'm going to see an expert when I get around to it." That doesn't solve your problem. You are going to keep right on losing your hair until you are bald . . . unless you get your scalp in a healthy, hair-growing condition again.

HOPELESS CASES REFUSED

If you are totally bald, there is nothing Harlow can do for you. Harlow or no other treatment known is of benefit to excessive hair loss due to male pattern baldness. Neither of the persons shown above suffered from male pattern baldness. Therefore, Harlow continues its policy of refusing all hopeless cases. Baldness is slow and gradual, even in the most common forms. The two most common causes are neglect and mistreatment, but the two worst enemies are skepticism and procrastination.

BEWARE THESE SYMPTOMS

Once you notice symptoms of excessive dryness or oiliness, itchy scalp, excessive hair in the combings, tender areas, come in for an examination before follicle shrinkage ruins all hopes for a healthy head of hair.

97% SATISFIED

So selective is the Harlow system that the organization is proud of its 97% satisfaction among those persons accepted.

RESULTS ARE SO AMAZING THAT

We constantly receive letters of praise and gratitude from our clients who say "I know my hair is thicker . . . I was saved from baldness!" or "Thanks for getting my hair back," or "I had almost complete loss of my hair before my treatments, and today I have regained my original head of hair," or "My hair has not only improved in general condition, but has grown thicker." (Ask to see actual letters from clients in your hometown.)

FREE CONSULTATION

There is absolutely no charge or obligation of any kind for seeing the Harlow specialist for consultation. Your only obligation is to yourself to ease your mind of hair worries by learning how easily and inexpensively you can save and thicken your hair at home. You will be told frankly and sincerely whether the Harlow Home Treatment can help, how long it will take, and the cost.

GUARANTEED RESULTS!

IF YOU ARE ACCEPTED FOR TREATMENT, the Harlow Hair & Scalp Consultants will give you a written guarantee that you must be satisfied within 30 days or it costs you nothing.

Harlow's scientific treatments are so phenomenally effective that we offer you, and every one of our clients, the opportunity to enjoy more virile hair, a healthier scalp within just 30 days! If you can get such satisfaction within 30 days, imagine the thicker hair you'll be growing within 12 months!

FREE EXAMINATION

Administered in private . . . no appointment needed. Ask the desk clerk at the Bermuda Palms Motel for E. J. Mankus' room number, on Friday only, March 17, between 1:00 p.m. and 8:30 p.m. only in San Rafael, California. You will not be obligated or embarrassed in any way. Consultations are free and given in private.

VICTIM OF HUMANS' INHUMANITY

This cat was patched up in San Mateo yesterday by Dr. Arthur Gilber, veterinarian, and nurse Mrs. Betty Shoop at the city's animal shelter after being rescued by two deputy sheriffs. The deputies found the cat at a Half Moon Bay gas station, dangling by a rope tied to its hind legs and above a leaping dog. The cat had been bitten on the forelegs, the dog was lashed over the right eye. The officers booked Robert J. Maliszewski, 26, station owner, and John F. Rogers, 19, a San Francisco barber, on cruelty to animal charges. The men said they were teaching the dog to kill cats. (AP Wirephoto)

LOCAL ELECTIONS

Solons Back Party Labels On Ballots

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Is California swinging back toward partisan city and county elections?

The state took local elections out of partisan politics more than 50 years ago at the height of a reform movement sparked by boss-ridden scandals.

The Assembly Elections and Reapportionment Committee decided yesterday it's time to revive partisan local elections, at least part way.

By a vote of 10 Democrats to four Republicans, the committee approved a bill to permit candidates for city and county officers — all except county clerk—to attach party labels to their names on the ballot.

Assemblyman John A. O'Connell, D-San Francisco, contended his bill would give the voters a better clue to their candidates than the present listing of occupations.

Nonpartisan local elections, said Assemblyman George A. Willson, D-Huntington Park, are a deception because everyone knows the candidates belong to a political party.

Richard Carpenter, opposing the bill for the League of California Cities, warned it would return California to a system that bred corruption at the turn of the century.

The committee also approved a bill designed to prevent a repetition of the long delay in determining the winner of the presidential election in California last November.

The law now requires absentee ballots to be postmarked no later than election days but allows them to be received up to five days after election.

The bill, by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh (D-Los Angeles), would require the mailed ballots to come in no later than three days before election, and to be counted on election day. The committee approved it by a vote of 10 Democrats to four Republicans.

Education Bill Under Attack

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Far-reaching legislation to emphasize academic subjects in the training of California teachers and school administrators was put under heavy fire yesterday by vocational teachers.

Spokesmen for statewide groups of instructors in business and home economics, industrial arts, agriculture and other non-academic subjects attacked the measure as giving them "second class status."

The bill by Sen. Hugo Fisher (D-San Diego) would allow teachers with non-academic degrees to teach, but only in the subjects in which they had degrees. Teachers would have to have five years of college.

State Medical Plan For Aged Is Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Assemblyman Ronald B. Cameron (D-Whittier) today introduced legislation to create a state sponsored program for providing "comprehensive" medical care for the aged.

Cameron said that current programs before Congress were designed primarily to furnish hospitalization for persons over 65. His program would furnish them with out-patient care, eyeglasses, false teeth and other prosthetic devices.

He proposed that employees alone finance the program by extending the range of payroll deductions from the current $4,000 to a base of $10,000.

Hospital Record Disclosure Bill Wins Committee Backing

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The Assembly Public Health Committee has unanimously approved a bill to force disclosure of private hospital records.

The bill by Assemblyman Ronald B. Cameron would make public applications for licenses by hospitals, annual statistical reports of hospitals and reports of periodic inspections by the state.

The bill caused a flurry of excitement in the legislature when it was reported that two lobbyists met at the weekly luncheon with members of the committee and decided to kill the bill. However, the Assembly committee that credentials lobbyists later gave the two a clean bill of health.

Solons Blast Red Charges

SACRAMENTO (AP) — The Democratic and Republican leaders of the State Senate have accused Assemblyman Louis Francis (R-San Mateo) of headline hunting on the Communist issue.

"We will firmly resist the establishment of any kind of headline hunting committee," said a joint statement Wednesday by Sen. Hugh M. Burns (D-Fresno), and Sen. John F. McCarthy (R-San Rafael).

Burns is chairman and McCarthy a member of the Senate Fact Finding Committee on Un-American Activities.

Francis also came under fire from Assemblyman William A. Munnell (D-Montebello), majority leader of the lower house.

Munnell asked Federal Bureau of Investigation Director J. Edgar Hoover to investigate Francis' charges of subversive activity at Humboldt State College.

Probably half of all yearling buck deer have two points on each side of their antlers.

Solon Would Tighten Curbs On Unethical Car Dealers

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A proposal to protect car buyers against "unethical" auto dealers was ready for introduction in the legislature today.

Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles) said he would introduce a comprehensive measure to bolster existing state laws which govern auto purchases.

His bill would:

Require dealers to refund down payments when sales are not completed.

Require dealers to show buyers the actual amount charged for financing the purchases.

Require dealers to notify buyers by registered mail four days in advance of payment deadline of the amount needed to retain possession and where the car, if repossessed, is located.

Repeal provisions of the law allowing liens on real estate second trust deeds.

New York Assembly Blocks Expansion Of Nat'l League

Officials Stunned By Rejection Of Stadium

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner told a stunned baseball world today that approval "can still be obtained" of a New York State bill essential to the National League's plans to expand to 10 clubs in 1962.

The bill, empowering New York City to construct an $18-million stadium for a new National League club, failed to achieve the necessary two thirds majority in the New York State Assembly yesterday and was tabled by Assemblyman Anthony P. Savarese Jr., (R-Queens), the sponsor.

"It is important to realize that the resolution was not killed," said Wagner, who was caught completely by surprise along with baseball's officials by the Assembly's action. "I am confident that next time there will be enough votes favoring it to pass it."

STUNNING EFFECT

But the stunning effect of the Assembly's action was evident in the reaction of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, President George Weiss of the new N.L. club and even co-owner Dan Topping of the New York Yankees who has bitterly opposed the construction of the stadium for the new club.

"This certainly makes things difficult for the new club," said Frick in Phoenix, Ariz., "I'm hoping they can get a recommendation for a new vote."

"This is a situation carried on by the club prior to my joining it," said George Weiss, who was appointed president of the new club only last Tuesday. "I don't know enough about it to make an intelligent evaluation of the situation."

TOPPING ASTOUNDED

Topping's only comment was that he was "astounded," but a Yankee spokesman added that the Yankees "are on record as agreeing only to the new club using the Polo Grounds." This was a warning that the Yankees might refuse to lease Yankee Stadium to the new club and thus leave it without a park of big league standards. Ebbets Field, former home of the Dodgers, already has been torn down and the Polo Grounds, former home of the Giants, is scheduled to be razed so that a housing project can be built on the site.

The state assembly's vote on the measure was 80-58, the majority falling 20 votes short of the necessary two-thirds, and crossed party lines with 25 Democrats and 33 Republicans opposed. The tabled measure can be brought to another vote during this session, but still would require 100 votes for approval.

BRESSOUD-DARK BEEF RUMOR; HINT EDDIE MAY BE TRADED

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY

PHOENIX — Rumors were flying thick and fast here today that shortstop Eddie Bressoud and Manager Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants are at sword's end.

Bressoud, so the reports go, is to be traded and Milwaukee is likely to be involved. The Braves have two shortstops, either of whom would help the Giants—Roy McMillan and Johnny Logan.

Along with the Bressoud rumor is a companion report that second baseman Don Blasingame may be sold or traded down the river.

Both Blasingame and Bressoud had off years in 1960 and so far haven't been on the spectacular side in training.

The reports here have it that Bressoud already has clashed with Dark, who has been using everyone else in the infield except Eddie, last year's regular shortstop.

Woolpert To Coach S.F. Entry In New Pro League

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Professional basketball is coming to San Francisco this fall with Phil Woolpert as coach.

Official announcement that San Francisco would be a member of the newly formed eight-team American Basketball League was made at a luncheon yesterday.

Owners of the team were revealed as Chris McKeon, wealthy San Francisco contractor, and his son, George, who will serve as the club's new president.

One-time Notre Dame and professional cage star Kevin O'Shea, now a local insurance broker, will serve as general manager for the team. He and Woolpert took off for Chicago yesterday for a league meeting where other teams for the league will be chosen and a set of new rules drawn up.

RULES CHANGES

Abe Saperstein, guiding light behind the new league, has promised that some rules will be different from those in the National Basketball Assn.

Woolpert coached the University of San Francisco to NCAA title in 1954 and 1955. His teams won 60 straight at one time and lost only 10 games over one four-year stretch.

He resigned in November, 1959 suffering from a bad back and a nervous condition. After two years with a vending machine company, he announced that he was interested in returning to coaching.

Islanders Resume Training Routine

ONTARIO, Calif. (UPI) — The Hawaiian Islanders, new entry in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, hold their third spring training drill at John Galvin Park today.

Their second, yesterday, was interrupted by rain. Manager Tommy Heath and pitching coach Roger Bowman will direct 21 players in batting and fielding practice. Fourteen other players, some Cubans, are due in camp within the next few days.

The Islanders play their first exhibition game here next Wednesday night against the Vancouver Mounties.

McCovey Continues To Smash Line Drives Like Old Self

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Willie McCovey rapped a home run, a double and a single yesterday —and the single drew the most comment.

It also started the San Francisco Giants toward their run in the last of the ninth inning that brought a 10-9 exhibition game verdict over the Chicago Cubs.

"He ripped that last ball," declared Manager Alvin Dark of the line drive single to center by the big first baseman who starred in 1959 and flopped in 1960.

Willie hit his homer over the right field fence in the second inning, one of four by the Giants while the Cubs were smashing a pair. And he doubled in the four-run eighth. But the single indicated he was hitting line drives of the variety that made him Rookie of the Year in the National League two years ago.

ANTI-CLIMAX

The winning run came on a balk, an anti-climax almost to a free swinging game that saw the Giants rap two triples and a pair of doubles in addition to their homers.

Chicago batters had five doubles, and two triples by rookie Nelson Matthews in addition to the homers by Ron Santo and Ernie Banks.

In the last of the ninth with one out, McCovey hit his single and Hobie Landrith added another with a pinch-hitting performance. Matty Alou grounded out and John Orsino was walked intentionally. Then with a count of three balls and one strike on rookie Charlie Hiller, pitcher Dick Burwell of Chicago was charged with a balk and the game was over.

Generally rookies shone for San Francisco, but it was veteran left-hander Mike McCormick who pitched five innings and won credit for the victory after the Giants overcame an 8-1 deficit.

Catcher Orsino hit a homer and tripled, Orlo Engel and Bob Farley homered and Manuel Motal doubled.

Willie Mays tripled, the only veteran Giant besides McCovey to hit for extra bases.

Harvey Kuenn started his first exhibition game for the Giants but didn't collect a hit. He played third base. But Dark announced that for today's game here against the Boston Red Sox, the newcomer from the American League will be in the outfield.

Juan Marichal pitched the first three innings for the Giants and gave up a five-run third as the Cubs got three hits, two walks and Juan tossed a pair of wild pitches.

"Wait for three more outings and see how he's doing," Dark told newsmen.

The victory was the second in five exhibitions for San Francisco. The Cubs took their second loss in five games.

Marin Bows To State '9'

College of Marin's baseball squad lost a 13-6 decision to San Francisco State College yesterday, but Coach Ed Grimm saw enough encouraging signs to predict a bright future for his Tars in Golden Valley Conference play.

"That infield of ours really looks sharp," said Grimm as he praised third sacker Ernie Bray, shortstop Ron Blum, second baseman Eddie Vigno and first baseman Jack LaHargoue. Blum, Vigno and LaHargoue teamed up on a snappy double play.

Marin played without the services of some regulars because of extra school work, Grimm noted, "And we'll be much better when everyone's available for conference action." Saturday the Tars travel to Sacramento for a doubleheader with American River College.

S.F. State outhit the Tars 9-4 yesterday, but most of the winners' hits were off reserve pitchers. Starter Mike Woods gave up only one hit in his four innings of work. After he left State managed to pile up its victory.

Rookies Impressive; Is There One Like Cepeda, McCovey Or Marichal?

HANLEY

PHOENIX, Ariz—In 1958 the Giants harvested their biggest and best crop of rookies in many years. That was the spring that produced Orlando Cepeda, Jim Davenport, Bob Schmidt and Willie Kirkland. Felipe Alou later joined them after playing at Phoenix the first couple of months. So did Leon Wagner. It was a bumper crop.

In 1959 Willie McCovey was the rookie phenom of the year. He didn't make the club in spring camp, but none who saw his debut on July 30 in old Seals Stadium will ever forget the way he hit all the fences and touched all the bases on a pair of triples and pair of singles off the veteran Robin Roberts.

Last year it was Juan Marichal who was the indisputable rookie star. Marichal's debut last July 19 was as impressive as McCovey's the previous year. The 23-year-old Dominican Republic native pitched a one-hit 2-0 shutout against the Phillies.

Now, who is the likely rookie, if any, to make the big team this year? There are a whole batch of them in camp. Seven are first year rookies, youngsters who played their first pro ball last year. They are listed on the Giant roster only as protection against the new draft laws.

THIS GROUP of seven will be sent back for further polishing by Giant farm clubs. They include pitchers Dick Denton and Ray Feldman; catchers Dick Dietz and Cecil Hundley; infielders Gil Garrido, Cap Peterson and Arlo Engel, the latter a first year rookie of the Los Angeles Dodgers who left him unprotected on their Orlando farm club from which the Giants plucked him for the $12,500 draft fee, a bargain basement price for a youngster with Engel's potential.

Those with two or more years of minor league experience and getting their first opportunity at major league ball are: Pitchers Bobby Bolin, Ray Daviault and Jim Duffalo; catchers Tom Haller and John Orsino; infielders Ferrell Bowman and Charles Hiller; outfielders Manuel Mota and John Weekly who came to camp last year but broke his ankle in the first week of practice.

THEN THERE are three other pitchers — George Maranda, Don Choate and Ed Fisher, who were on the club last year, Maranda for most of the season, Choate and Fisher joining up at the tail end of the campaign when the player limit of 25 was lifted.

Alvin Dark says he hasn't seen enough yet of any of them to determine what candidate, if any, he would like to keep with the first team he has ever managed.

Al of them, excluding the pitchers, have looked exceptionally good in spots. Haller and Orsino still need lots of glove experience behind the plate but both can belt the ball. Hiller is getting a good shot at second base. Bowman has been at both second and third.

Hiller, a southpaw swinger, was the Texas League batting champ last year. He hit .334. Bowman was moved up from Corpus Christi to Tacoma in mid-season last year and wound up hitting .286. He looks like Billy Martin.

MOTA GOT some notices earlier in the week when he tripled and homered in that wild nine-run inning the Giants staged against their old boss, Bill Rigney, and his aging Angels. So much happened in that game that a superb throw to the plate by Weekly from left field, cutting off what should have been an easy score, went unchronicled.

Dark could use a bullpen stopper. He hopes that Daviault, who had a splendid 13-5 relief record at Harlingen last year, qualifies.

Bratkowski Sees Challenge Taking Charge Of Rams

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Quarterback Zeke Bratkowski, newly acquired by the Los Angeles Rams from the Chicago Bears, has no illusions of stepping in as the No. 1 field boss for the Rams.

The five-year veteran of the National Football League was introduced to the Los Angeles press last night.

"I'd rather hoped the Rams would want me to work my way to the No. 1 quarterback job," said Bratkowski. "I think Frank Ryan has the same idea. Any good football player would have the same thought."

Ryan is a tough contender for the quarterback job, along with Buddy Humphrey.

Bratkowski, in effect, replaces Bill Wade as the first veteran quarterback, Wade having gone to the Chicago Bears.

INGO ACTUALLY GOT BENEFIT OF LONG COUNT

NEW YORK (UPI) — Floyd Patterson can take a lot more pride in his world heavyweight boxing crown today following proof that the "short count" was actually the "long count."

Many observers of the championship fight between Patterson and Sweden's Ingemar Johansson at Miami Beach, Fla., Monday night, were of the opinion that referee Billy Regan counted Johansson out a split second too soon in the sixth round.

However, films taken by Teleprompter Corporation showed yesterday that Johansson was down for 11-1/12th seconds, or 1 1/12th more than the required 10.

No Betters

MANILA (AP)—Nobody seems to be giving boxer Joey Lopes a chance against Flash Elorde here on Sunday except Lopes and his adviser, John Sylvester.

Five days before the Filipino world junior lightweight champion defends his crown against the Portuguese-American challenger from Sacramento, Calif., no one appears to be willing to make a bet on Lopes, no matter what the odds.

Raiders Sign 4 More Prospects

OAKLAND (UPI) — The Oakland Raiders of the American Football League today announced the signing of four more players which brought the roster to 19 new men.

Those coming to terms were John Freim, 225-pound end from Adams State College in Colorado; Charley Moore, 220-pound end from North-Eastern State College in Oklahoma; Fred Tunnicliffe, 175-pound halfback from U.C. of Santa Barbara, and William (Bo) Bankston, 200-pound fullback from the University of New Mexico.

New York Assembly Blocks Expansion Of Nat'l League

Officials Stunned By Rejection Of Stadium

NEW YORK (UPI) — Mayor Robert F. Wagner told a stunned baseball world today that approval "can still be obtained" of a New York State bill essential to the National League's plans to expand to 10 clubs in 1962.

The bill, empowering New York City to construct an $18-million stadium for a new National League club, failed to achieve the necessary two thirds majority in the New York State Assembly yesterday and was tabled by Assemblyman Anthony P. Savarese Jr., (R-Queens), the sponsor.

"It is important to realize that the resolution was not killed," said Wagner, who was caught completely by surprise along with baseball's officials by the Assembly's action. "I am confident that next time there will be enough votes favoring it to pass it."

STUNNING EFFECT

But the stunning effect of the Assembly's action was evident in the reaction of Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick, President George Weiss of the new N.L. club and even co-owner Dan Topping of the New York Yankees who has bitterly opposed the construction of the stadium for the new club.

"This certainly makes things difficult for the new club," said Frick in Phoenix, Ariz., "I'm hoping they can get a recommendation for a new vote."

"This is a situation carried on by the club prior to my joining it," said George Weiss, who was appointed president of the new club only last Tuesday. "I don't know enough about it to make an intelligent evaluation of the situation."

TOPPING ASTOUNDED

Topping's only comment was that he was "astounded," but a Yankee spokesman added that the Yankees "are on record as agreeing only to the new club using the Polo Grounds." This was a warning that the Yankees might refuse to lease Yankee Stadium to the new club and thus leave it without a park of big league standards. Ebbets Field, former home of the Dodgers, already has been torn down and the Polo Grounds, former home of the Giants, is scheduled to be razed so that a housing project can be built on the site.

The state assembly's vote on the measure was 80-58, the majority falling 20 votes short of the necessary two-thirds, and crossed party lines with 25 Democrats and 33 Republicans opposed. The tabled measure can be brought to another vote during this session, but still would require 100 votes for approval.

BRESSOUD-DARK BEEF RUMOR; HINT EDDIE MAY BE TRADED

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY

PHOENIX — Rumors were flying thick and fast here today that shortstop Eddie Bressoud and Manager Alvin Dark of the San Francisco Giants are at sword's end.

Bressoud, so the reports go, is to be traded and Milwaukee is likely to be involved. The Braves have two shortstops, either of whom would help the Giants—Roy McMillan and Johnny Logan.

Along with the Bressoud rumor is a companion report that second baseman Don Blasingame may be sold or traded down the river.

Both Blasingame and Bressoud had off years in 1960 and so far haven't been on the spectacular side in training.

The reports here have it that Bressoud already has clashed with Dark, who has been using everyone else in the infield except Eddie, last year's regular shortstop.

Woolpert To Coach S.F. Entry In New Pro League

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Professional basketball is coming to San Francisco this fall with Phil Woolpert as coach.

Official announcement that San Francisco would be a member of the newly formed eight-team American Basketball League was made at a luncheon yesterday.

Owners of the team were revealed as Chris McKeon, wealthy San Francisco contractor, and his son, George, who will serve as the club's new president.

One-time Notre Dame and professional cage star Kevin O'Shea, now a local insurance broker, will serve as general manager for the team. He and Woolpert took off for Chicago yesterday for a league meeting where other teams for the league will be chosen and a set of new rules drawn up.

RULES CHANGES

Abe Saperstein, guiding light behind the new league, has promised that some rules will be different from those in the National Basketball Assn.

Woolpert coached the University of San Francisco to NCAA title in 1954 and 1955. His teams won 60 straight at one time and lost only 10 games over one four-year stretch.

He resigned in November, 1959 suffering from a bad back and a nervous condition. After two years with a vending machine company, he announced that he was interested in returning to coaching.

Islanders Resume Training Routine

ONTARIO, Calif. (UPI) — The Hawaiian Islanders, new entry in the Pacific Coast Baseball League, hold their third spring training drill at John Galvin Park today.

Their second, yesterday, was interrupted by rain. Manager Tommy Heath and pitching coach Roger Bowman will direct 21 players in batting and fielding practice. Fourteen other players, some Cubans, are due in camp within the next few days.

The Islanders play their first exhibition game here next Wednesday night against the Vancouver Mounties.

McCovey Continues To Smash Line Drives Like Old Self

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Willie McCovey rapped a home run, a double and a single yesterday —and the single drew the most comment.

It also started the San Francisco Giants toward their run in the last of the ninth inning that brought a 10-9 exhibition game verdict over the Chicago Cubs.

"He ripped that last ball," declared Manager Alvin Dark of the line drive single to center by the big first baseman who starred in 1959 and flopped in 1960.

Willie hit his homer over the right field fence in the second inning, one of four by the Giants while the Cubs were smashing a pair. And he doubled in the four-run eighth. But the single indicated he was hitting line drives of the variety that made him Rookie of the Year in the National League two years ago.

ANTI-CLIMAX

The winning run came on a balk, an anti-climax almost to a free swinging game that saw the Giants rap two triples and a pair of doubles in addition to their homers.

Chicago batters had five doubles, and two triples by rookie Nelson Matthews in addition to the homers by Ron Santo and Ernie Banks.

In the last of the ninth with one out, McCovey hit his single and Hobie Landrith added another with a pinch-hitting performance. Matty Alou grounded out and John Orsino was walked intentionally. Then with a count of three balls and one strike on rookie Charlie Hiller, pitcher Dick Burwell of Chicago was charged with a balk and the game was over.

Generally rookies shone for San Francisco, but it was veteran left-hander Mike McCormick who pitched five innings and won credit for the victory after the Giants overcame an 8-1 deficit.

Catcher Orsino hit a homer and tripled, Orlo Engel and Bob Farley homered and Manuel Motal doubled.

Willie Mays tripled, the only veteran Giant besides McCovey to hit for extra bases.

Juan Marichal pitched the first three innings for the Giants and gave up a five-run third as the Cubs got three hits, two walks and Juan tossed a pair of wild pitches.

"Wait for three more outings and see how he's doing," Dark told newsmen.

The victory was the second in five exhibitions for San Francisco. The Cubs took their second loss in five games.

College of Marin's baseball squad lost a 13-6 decision to San Francisco State College yesterday, but Coach Ed Grimm saw enough encouraging signs to predict a bright future for his Tars in Golden Valley Conference play.

The Saga Of Willie Mays Shows Signs Of Clouding Up; Arizona Fans Quiet

CONNOLLY

Phoenix, March: Maybe you haven't noticed or maybe you just don't care. But the saga of Willie Mays, hailed as the most exciting player in baseball, is beginning to show signs of clouding up. So far very few press notices have appeared about Willie. And even the Arizona fans, where he is idolized, no more go into fits of horn tooting and clapping of hands when his name is mentioned.

Willie, so far in training camp, hasn't hit his weight. And as long as he is around everybody expects him to be the limelighter.

But a fellow who might steal most of Mays' thunder is budding and ripening awfully fast. I refer to Felipe Alou, who can run as fast as Willie, hit as hard, if not as often, throw as accurately, and who just might blossom out this season as the great successor to Willie.

The scouts, from other teams than the Giants, rate Alou the most improved player they've seen.

Giant scouts, some of whom wouldn't allow their names to be mentioned under the threat of murder, say right now Alou is greater than Mays. I can't agree to all of it but I do think Alou is going to become, along with Harvey Kuenn and Mays, the core of the Giants' offense.

Since Kuenn came into camp, he has been taking it slow, like the old pro he is. An injury or a blistered heel, slowed him up in the field, but at bat, during batting practice, he really sprays line drives, hither and thither.

Next to Mays, Kuenn and Alou the talk of the camp here is Tom Haller, the big rookie catcher, who clouted two towering homeruns in his first appearance against the Angels. His second homerun was on a 3 and nothing pitch and old-timers just winked at the gall of the recruit.

Haller is a thoroughly capable catcher and has a good throwing arm. My guess is he will remain, and may get active duty on and off. I hope it is "on."

Joe Amalfitano and Jose Pagan and perhaps Jim Marshall will be kept with the Giants, at least until after the season opens.

Willie McCovey, over whom there is written a lot of good and a lot of bad, hasn't hit up to snuff but is fielding much better and working much harder. My guess on McCovey is that after a thorough trial in the spring, he'll be relegated to the pinch hitting role and Cepeda lifted into the spot. But its all a guess and may be as bad as some other guesses I've made.

Giant pitching, after showing great stuff at the outset, seems to have fallen off. Sam Jones, Juan Marichal, Billy Loes and Jack Sanford have been wild. Little has been seen of Stu Miller but Mike McCormick looks like the standout with O'Dell a close second.

Manager Al Dark pulled a fast one the other day when he yanked Loes in an exhibition game, with the count standing 3 and 2 and replaced him with Eddie Fisher who proceeded to walk the batter.

Dark and pitching coach Larry Jansen have a system that controls the number of pitches each makes before they yank him.

Loes had pitched 57 times in less than three innings and was yanked because that evidently is the limit of throws a fellow can make before the hooks are thrown into him. At that rate Loes, if he pitched the full nine innings, would have had to throw almost 180 miles to end the game.

NEWELL

12-Foot Hoop Experiment Big Success

BERKELEY (UPI)—California, an erstwhile powerhouse in college basketball circles, has ended the season with high hoops after starting it with high hopes.

While Athletic Director Pete Newell munched a cigar instead of his usual towel on the sidelines yesterday, the Bear varsity played an intra-squad game in which the players shot at baskets elevated 12 feet above the floor instead of the conventional 10.

And after the blues, consisting of sophomores and juniors, had turned back the white clad seniors, 64-62, Newell said that he was satisfied by the experiment.

"I liked what I saw," said the former Cal and U.S. Olympic coach who has come out in favor of the higher basket. "There was not so much congestion on the rebounds which often results in fouls being called. Play around the baskets was clean and a greater variety of shots was brought out."

Newell said that he would present the statistics to the forthcoming meeting of the rulesmakers "for what they are worth."

MORE EXPERIMENTING

"We aren't going to plug for a change right now," Newell added. "We still must do a lot of experimenting. But our game showed that the little player has more of a chance against the big man. The smaller guy can shoot at more of an arc and get a basket. I didn't see a blocked shot all day. And the tip-ins were well organized things—a recognized, well coordinated play instead of mere dunk shots. A player's agility counted more. The game was not so stereotyped as now is the case."

HERRERIAS AGREES

Rene Herrerias, Newel's former star at the University of San Francisco and now the Cal coach, went along with his boss.

"Twelve foot hoops will bring back the set shot," Herrerias said. "There were no gifts in this game, no dunking."

Statistics showed that the victorious Blues, led by six foot, four inch Jim Smith who had 16 points, hit on 36 per cent of their field goal attempts and 42 per cent of their free throws.

The defeated Whites, remnants of two great NCAA teams, connected 31 per cent of the time from the floor and clicked on 29 per cent of their free shots during the informal and breezy contest.

STAFFORD HIGH

The game's high scorer was Dave Stafford who had 18 points for the Whites. He stands 6-3. How about the little guys? Dave Williams, 5-9, had six points and John Wible, 5-10, another six. But both players said they liked the innovation.

Stan Morrison, the regular center who is the big man on the team at 6-7½, meshed seven points while hitting on only three of 12 field goal attempts.

"This game minimizes the effectiveness of the big man," Morrison said. "The litle player has more time to recover on the boards."

"The value of the outside shot would be greatly increased if the baskets were higher," added Stafford. "And the set shot would come back, all right."

Redwood's Annual Gridiron Clinic Set

More than 300 prep football coaches are expected to attend the 7th Annual Redwood Football Clinic at Redwood High School Saturday, Chairman Bob Troppmann said today.

The Redwood Clinic which has become the largest prep football clinic in California will attract top prep football coaches.

The program at Larkspur will get underway at 8:45 a.m. The speakers for the day will be: Hart Fairclough, Mt. Diablo, organization; John Giannoni, Lodi, offensive line play; Joe Marvin, Sequoia, team defense; Forrest Klein, Alameda, pass defense; J. R. Boone, Sanger, pass offense; Chade Reade, Washington High, team offense. In addition Coach Troppmann and his 1960 Marin County Athletic League Giants will demonstrate drills and offensive maneuvers.

Awards will be given to the top prep teams in each of the enrollment classifications and the Northern California Prep Coach of the Year will receive a trophy.

During the past six years more than 1500 coaches have attended. The purpose of the clinic is to "have good fellowship within our profession as well as the exchanging of ideas," states the clinic program.

In addition to the clinic proper, there will also be booths for the coaches concerning jobs, games wanted, open dates, etc., said chairman Troppmann, who is also Redwood's athletic director.

Two-Ball Foursome Set

Sunday the Mill Valley Golf Club will have a two-ball foursome at Mill Valley. Last Sunday the club team lost in the Home and Home matches at Ukiah, reported member Keeler Nash.

Trojans Squeek Past Oregon, Face Arizona Next In NCAA

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Favored Southern California meets Arizona State University in the NCAA Western Regional Basketball Tournament's second round here tomorrow night and both of them just barely squeaked in.

The Southern Californians, one of America's top-rated teams, trailed an alert University of Oregon team at the half 36-27 in their first NCAA elimination round game last night. They overcame this and pulled into a 10-point lead with nearly four minutes left in the game, then were pressed to hold off a late Oregon surge for an 81-79 victory.

In Arizona State's opener before 4,709 fans, the losing team—Seattle University—was ahead at the half 39-28. Arizona State gradually ate into that, tied it up at 60-60, and finally won on Gary Hahn's 10-foot jumper from the left of the key as the buzzed sounded for a 72-70 victory.

RUDOMETKIN OKAY

Southern California's brilliant John Rudometkin, who was a doubtful starter a week ago due to a leg injury, is going to be all right for tomorrow, said Coach Forrest Twogood. He was all right last night after a weak first half and wound up with 24 points, the high total.

Southern California and Arizona State meet in Friday's second game. The opener pits Utah, the Skyline Conference champion, against Loyola of Los Angeles, winner of the West Coast Athletic Conference.

Wednesday night's losers were independents, chosen to meet conference champions that qualified automatically, Arizona State of the Border Conference and Southern Cal of the Big Five.

Arizona State now has a 22-5 record against Southern California's 21-6. The Trojans are favored, though, in the remaining rounds of the western regional. Twogood said he wasn't sure of that: "There are 16 teams left in the country now and they are all good ones."

Of the victory over Oregon, it came because "we started to shoot in the second half," he said. In the opening period the Trojans averaged only .357 from the floor to Oregon's .406. They came back brilliantly in the second half with a .613 average.

Oregon's Glenn Moore kept Rudometkin well tied up in the first half, limiting him to a pair of field goals. In the second half, though, the 6-6 junior hit seven times from the floor, several times on twisting jumpers from well out. He did it with four fouls accumulated in the first half, then finally fouled out with three minutes to go. USC was ahead 73-65 at the time and Oregon promptly began closing the gap on a rally that just fell short.

Oregon's Charlie Warren had 21 points and second high scorer.

Lakers Take Strong Lead In Playoffs

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Los Angeles Lakers have just about won the right to play the St. Louis Hawks for the Western Division title in the National Basketball Assn. playoffs.

The Lakers whipped the Detroit Pistons 127-118 last night to take a commanding 2-0 lead in the best-of-five first round playoffs. Even if the Pistons square the series by winning the next two games at Detroit, tomorrow night and Saturday afternoon, they would have to buck the home court advantage in the deciding fifth game Sunday at Los Angeles.

As in Tuesday's opening game, Elgin Baylor, the former All-America at Seattle University, was the big gun for the Lakers last night on the Los Angeles court. He fired in 49 points.

The Eastern Division first round playoffs resume tonight at Syracuse with the Philadelphia Warriors and Wilt Chamberlain trying to square the series with the Nats at 1-1. Syracuse upset the Warriors in the opening game at Philadelphia Tuesday night.

Horse Racing Board Schedules Race Dates

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The California Horse Racing Board has approved these 1962 thoroughbred racing dates:

Santa Anita, Dec. 26, 1961, through March 10, 1962; Tanforan, March 13 through May 26; Hollywood Park, May 9 through July 23; Del Mar, July 24 through Sept. 11; Golden Gate, Sept. 10 through Oct. 30, and Bay Meadows Oct. 31 through Dec. 18.

Ingo To Appear March 23 On U.S. Income Tax Case

MIAMI (UPI)—The government must prove before March 24 that its million-dollar tax case against Ingemar Johansson is valid or the defeated Swedish heavyweight challenger will be allowed to leave the country.

Federal Judge Emett Choat made the ruling yesterday in a hearing at which Johansson's attorneys agreed to bring him to court March 23 to make a deposition in his case.

The government claims Johansson owes $1,009,801 in taxes on income from his last two fights with champion Floyd Patterson. It has obtained an injunction forbidding him to leave the country and claims the taxes are due immediately.

It also has temporarily attached the estimated $700,000 purse Johansson will receive from Monday night's fight at Miami Beach, when he was knocked out in the sixth round.

Johansson, resting at the Palm Beach motel, where he trained for the fight, has said he will let his attorneys worry about his tax woes.

He claims he is working for a Swiss corporation and that the U.S. Government has a treaty with Switzerland which allows Swiss corporations to do business in the United States without paying taxes.

Rudometkin Easy Winner Of Big 5 Scoring Title

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—John Rudometkin of Southern California missed his two final games, but still easily captured the Big Five scoring race, according to final league figures released today.

The big center hit 248 points in 10 games for a 24.8 average. Bill Hanson of Washington was second with 196 points in 12 games for a 16.3 average. Hanson was 1959 champion.

Rounding out the Big Five were Chris Appeal of SC, John Berberich of UCLA and Bill McClintock of California.

Earl Schultz of California edged Rudometkin for the free throw title. Schultz hit 45-of-53 for .849, while Rudometkin made 64-of-76 for .842.

Ed Correll of Washington was the most accurate shot as he scored 50 times on 99 shots for a .505 mark.

McClintock was top rebounder with Correll second and Rudometkin third.

Tiburon League To Practice Saturday

Team tryouts for Tiburon Little League will be held from 10 a.m. to noon Saturday, announced official James Mithun.

Sorting the boys into major, minor and farm team groups will be at Tiburon's Judge Field, where all Tiburon Little League games are played. All prospective Little Leaguers in the Tiburon League area are urged to be on hand for assignment to a team, and opening day is tentatively set for Saturday, May 6, at Judge Field, said Mithun.

The Saga Of Willie Mays Shows Signs Of Clouding Up; Arizona Fans Quiet

CONNOLLY

Phoenix, March: Maybe you haven't noticed or maybe you just don't care. But the saga of Willie Mays, hailed as the most exciting player in baseball, is beginning to show signs of clouding up. So far very few press notices have appeared about Willie. And even the Arizona fans, where he is idolized, no more go into fits of horn tooting and clapping of hands when his name is mentioned.

Willie, so far in training camp, hasn't hit his weight. And as long as he is around everybody expects him to be the limelighter.

But a fellow who might steal most of Mays' thunder is budding and ripening awfully fast. I refer to Felipe Alou, who can run as fast as Willie, hit as hard, if not as often, throw as accurately, and who just might blossom out this season as the great successor to Willie.

The scouts, from other teams than the Giants, rate Alou the most improved player they've seen.

Giant scouts, some of whom wouldn't allow their names to be mentioned under the threat of murder, say right now Alou is greater than Mays. I can't agree to all of it but I do think Alou is going to become, along with Harvey Kuenn and Mays, the core of the Giants' offense.

Since Kuenn came into camp, he has been taking it slow, like the old pro he is. An injury or a blistered heel, slowed him up in the field, but at bat, during batting practice, he really sprays line drives, hither and thither.

Next to Mays, Kuenn and Alou the talk of the camp here is Tom Haller, the big rookie catcher, who clouted two towering homeruns in his first appearance against the Angels. His second homerun was on a 3 and nothing pitch and old-timers just winked at the gall of the recruit.

Haller is a thoroughly capable catcher and has a good throwing arm. My guess is he will remain, and may get active duty on and off. I hope it is "on."

Joe Amalfitano and Jose Pagan and perhaps Jim Marshall will be kept with the Giants, at least until after the season opens.

Willie McCovey, over whom there is written a lot of good and a lot of bad, hasn't hit up to snuff but is fielding much better and working much harder. My guess on McCovey is that after a thorough trial in the spring, he'll be relegated to the pinch hitting role and Cepeda lifted into the spot. But its all a guess and may be as bad as some other guesses I've made.

Giant pitching, after showing great stuff at the outset, seems to have fallen off. Sam Jones, Juan Marichal, Billy Loes and Jack Sanford have been wild. Little has been seen of Stu Miller but Mike McCormick looks like the standout with O'Dell a close second.

Manager Al Dark pulled a fast one the other day when he yanked Loes in an exhibition game, with the count standing 3 and 2 and replaced him with Eddie Fisher who proceeded to walk the batter.

Dark and pitching coach Larry Jansen have a system that controls the number of pitches each makes before they yank him.

Loes had pitched 57 times in less than three innings and was yanked because that evidently is the limit of throws a fellow can make before the hooks are thrown into him. At that rate Loes, if he pitched the full nine innings, would have had to throw almost 180 miles to end the game.

NEWELL

12-Foot Hoop Experiment Big Success

BERKELEY (UPI)—California, an erstwhile powerhouse in college basketball circles, has ended the season with high hoops after starting it with high hopes.

While Athletic Director Pete Newell munched a cigar instead of his usual towel on the sidelines yesterday, the Bear varsity played an intra-squad game in which the players shot at baskets elevated 12 feet above the floor instead of the conventional 10.

And after the blues, consisting of sophomores and juniors, had turned back the white clad seniors, 64-62, Newell said that he was satisfied by the experiment.

"I liked what I saw," said the former Cal and U.S. Olympic coach who has come out in favor of the higher basket. "There was not so much congestion on the rebounds which often results in fouls being called. Play around the baskets was clean and a greater variety of shots was brought out."

Newell said that he would present the statistics to the forthcoming meeting of the rulesmakers "for what they are worth."

MORE EXPERIMENTING

"We aren't going to plug for a change right now," Newell added. "We still must do a lot of experimenting. But our game showed that the little player has more of a chance against the big man. The smaller guy can shoot at more of an arc and get a basket. I didn't see a blocked shot all day. And the tip-ins were well organized things—a recognized, well coordinated play instead of mere dunk shots. A player's agility counted more. The game was not so stereotyped as now is the case."

HERRERIAS AGREES

Rene Herrerias, Newel's former star at the University of San Francisco and now the Cal coach, went along with his boss.

"Twelve foot hoops will bring back the set shot," Herrerias said. "There were no gifts in this game, no dunking."

Statistics showed that the victorious Blues, led by six foot, four inch Jim Smith who had 16 points, hit on 36 per cent of their field goal attempts and 42 per cent of their free throws.

The defeated Whites, remnants of two great NCAA teams, connected 31 per cent of the time from the floor and clicked on 29 per cent of their free shots during the informal and breezy contest.

STAFFORD HIGH

The game's high scorer was Dave Stafford who had 18 points for the Whites. He stands 6-3. How about the little guys? Dave Williams, 5-9, had six points and John Wible, 5-10, another six. But both players said they liked the innovation.

Stan Morrison, the regular center who is the big man on the team at 6-7½, meshed seven points while hitting on only three of 12 field goal attempts.

"This game minimizes the effectiveness of the big man," Morrison said. "The litle player has more time to recover on the boards."

"The value of the outside shot would be greatly increased if the baskets were higher," added Stafford. "And the set shot would come back, all right."

Redwood's Annual Gridiron Clinic Set

More than 300 prep football coaches are expected to attend the 7th Annual Redwood Football Clinic at Redwood High School Saturday, Chairman Bob Troppmann said today.

The Redwood Clinic which has become the largest prep football clinic in California will attract top prep football coaches.

The program at Larkspur will get underway at 8:45 a.m. The speakers for the day will be: Hart Fairclough, Mt. Diablo, organization; John Giannoni, Lodi, offensive line play; Joe Marvin, Sequoia, team defense; Forrest Klein, Alameda, pass defense; J. R. Boone, Sanger, pass offense; Chade Reade, Washington High, team offense. In addition Coach Troppmann and his 1960 Marin County Athletic League Giants will demonstrate drills and offensive maneuvers.

Awards will be given to the top prep teams in each of the enrollment classifications and the Northern California Prep Coach of the Year will receive a trophy.

During the past six years more than 1500 coaches have attended. The purpose of the clinic is to "have good fellowship within our profession as well as the exchanging of ideas," states the clinic program.

In addition to the clinic proper, there will also be booths for the coaches concerning jobs, games wanted, open dates, etc., said chairman Troppmann, who is also Redwood's athletic director.

Two-Ball Foursome Set

Sunday the Mill Valley Golf Club will have a two-ball foursome at Mill Valley. Last Sunday the club team lost in the Home and Home matches at Ukiah, reported member Keeler Nash.

Here Are Tales Of Boat Launches And 'Armor-Plated' Fish Tow Boats

STEVENS

Did I say in my last article that even with adverse conditions — primarily minus tides — that always someone found some spot that would produce? I did, and two sections of the San Pablo Bay bore the theory out. For one duo, father and son, it was a case of perfect fishing on Sunday. The heroes were from Hayward, and therein lies a tale.

Luther Curry, of Hayward, called me to ask where he could launch his boat not too far away from the China Camp area. Said he had read my columns and had a yen to give that sector a trial. The closest place, on the Contra Costa side of the bay, I could think of was the Point San Pablo Yacht Harbor. Years ago I launched a boat from the beach at the harbor. Well, angler Curry drove there only to find there was no launching available.

The Curry's are hard to discourage. They were close to the bridge at Richmond, they could drive across and launch from China Camp. They did. They drove about two miles northeast to a point about opposite Point Pinole. Dropped the hook in around 15 to 18 feet of water and proceeded to catch fish. Each had his limits of beautiful stripers. Fresh run, hard fighting characters that made the red blood run riot in the veins of the pair. Each angler was using light tackle, Luther was using a spinning outfit with light line and son Albert, was using genuine light tackle.

SIX BASS BOATED

As mentioned, six bass from five to 10 pounds were boated. Then Dad caught a large red-tailed perch and Albert felt a slight nudge on his line; upended his rod with a will and sank the hook into—the tail of a sturgeon. Father Curry quickly lifted the anchor and then sat back while that armor-plated fish took the boat in tow. For an estimated two miles, that six foot sturgeon towed the boat. What a thrill! What a finale for a false start!

The Currys headed back for China Camp around midday, but found the water too shallow to get the boat aboard the trailer, so Albert drove the car to the Richmond Harbor and Luther drove his boat to that port.

By the way, there were very few boats in the area where the Currys fished. Grace Quan of China Camp told me two other boats had taken a chance and fished in that general area and came back with limits that were the envy of the many others who either pulled a blank or had but one or two fish per boat.

CHINA CAMP LAUNCH

For the benefit of the hopefuls who live in the East Bay region but would give the waters off China Camp a whirl, yet don't relish the idea of waiting for an incoming tide to get back to shore, I would suggest they try the new resort about half way between the highway and China Camp. Take the same road you would to get to China Camp and watch for the new district. On the right hand side of the road just above the grammar school you will find McCarthy's Harbor. Good launching ramp, plenty of water at all times, and, Grace Quan assured me, at lower rates than some others.

Okay, I said at least two spots had produced on Sunday. The other spot was Joe's Launching at Santa Venetia Slough. Over 200 nice fish (some hefties, too) were unloaded from the skiffs out of Joe's place. A partial list of winners follows: Donald Lee and brother and friend, nine bass to 14 pounds; George Pozzi and friend, five bass to 16 pounds; Florencio Aldes, limit of stripers that hardly varied on ounce from 12 pounds; Harry Pence and friend, six bass to 12 pounds; Mr. and Mrs. Bill King, limits to eight pounds, and Carl Lipha and friend, five stripers that weighed a total 55 pounds. The big majority of those catches were made on Sunday. On Monday adverse conditions and a leader and line broken on a large fish, caused Frank Marsala to come in with one short of his limit. The pair ran in the 10 pound class.

Tuesday, as most of you know was "sloppy." Few boats, other than cruisers, ventured forth.

And that is it for today, be with you tomorrow. Chow!

Kent Vs. Cummins In Cage Finals

Kent and Neil Cummins schools were battling today for the championship of the Redwood Elementary School District basketball championship at Redwood High.

They advanced through semi-finals yesterday, Kent with a 35-17 victory over Larkspur-Corte Madera and Cummins with a 19-17 decision over Reed School. In a consolation game Ross downed Henry Hall School, 26-17.

Rosburg Plans To Shun Advice Of Doctors

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Bespectacled Bob Rosburg, the popular round-faced golfer with the baseball grip, says he will try one more cortisone shot if it will take him to the Masters tournament at Augusta next month.

The 34-year-old Palo Alto, Calif., veteran, now playing out of Portland, Oregon, has an inflamed tendon sheath in his left hand and admits some doctors have advised him against playing.

"I shouldn't be playing, but the Masters means so much," Rosburg said today on the eve of the $20,000 St. Petersburg Open.

PASADENA TEE OFF

Today he was to be among 148 professionals and 11 amateurs teeing off at the Pasadena course.

"I am playing here, then in Miami next week and in the Seminole pro-am at Palm Beach the following week. I'm holding on for the Masters, my seventh in the last eight years. Best I ever did there was fourth in 1955," he said.

"I might just as well play on. This is the best start I have ever had on the tour. I won about $9,500 in less than three months," he said.

ONE-SHOT MISS

Rosburg missed the National Open by one shot in 1959 but won the PGA that year. After that he hit dry wells until this winter.

Defending champion George Bayes, Gary Player, leading money winner thus far this year, Cary Middlecoff, Mike Souchak, Art Wall Jr., Bill Casper, Doug Sanders, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt and Ted Kroll are among the top St. Petersburg contestants.

Arnold Palmer, 1960 Masters and Open champion, is taking a week off, but plans to play in the Sunshine Open in Miami next week, with Augusta in mind.

John F. Grunigen, Navy seaman apprentice, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil R. Grunigen of 550 Fairview Ave., Mill Valley, is serving aboard the heavy cruiser USS St. Paul, operating out of Yokosuka, Japan.

POOCH AND BUNNY

People Are Going To Dogs In Florida With Vengeance

By OSCAR FRALEY

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (UPI) — People are going to the dogs with a vengeance in Florida this season.

To the greyhounds, that is. For attendance at Hollywood's recent meeting was up 40 per cent over a year ago and the pooch pursuers were wagering almost 50 per cent more money than in 1960.

The rabbit is, of course, an essential bit of the business at hand and at Hollywood the mechanical lure industry is in the hands of Eddie Webb and his wife, Sophie.

Mrs. Webb creates the fuzzy imitation rabbits, for each one using three rabbit pelts supplied by a New York furrier. She does the job up real fancy with a zipper in cottontail's tummy for secure fitting on a wire frame.

Eddie controls the bunny on its ride around the rails from a control tower atop the grandstands, using an ancient rheostat which looks like it might have come off an old Broadway trolley car.

"The rabbit can travel up to about 80 miles an hour," he says, hoping that the dogs don't hear him and understand the futility of the whole business of chasing it. "Of course it isn't necessary to run the rabbit that fast.

As close as we can figure it," he adds, "a greyhound travels close to 55 miles an hour coming out of the box and in the early stages of the race. But they slow down near the end, generally averaging about 38 miles an hour or slightly better for a race of five-sixteenths of a mile."

When the dogs slow down, Webb eases up on his rheostat so as to keep the rabbit about 15 feet in front of the leading dog. That's just close enough to keep him interested.

Sure, once in a while the dog does catch the fake bunny. Like in the 1948 Hollywood derby, biggest race of the year.

"The rheostat stuck," Eddie grunted. And his face was as cerise as "Red Board Charley's" ever was.

L.A. Cracks Down On Scalpers At Sports Events

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A bill aimed at ticket scalpers in the Los Angeles Sports Arena and Coliseum won approval from the assembly committee on agriculture yesterday.

The measure, by Assemblyman Jesse M. Unruh, D-Los Angeles, would prohibit unauthorized ticket resales in Exposition Park or any of the other fair and exposition sites owned by district agricultural associations in the state.

Don Muchmore, executive secretary of the Sixth Agricultural District, said Unruh introduced the bill to prevent scalping at football and basketball games during which scalpers got $6 to $10 for $4 tickets.

HAMILTON BASE SLATES 'WORLD' BOXING MEET

CAPTIVATED WITH the two bunny rabbits and the chicken held by Pixie Parent members are these children who will be on hand March 22, 23 for the sixth annual Easter Egg Hunt and Fair to be held by the Pixie Parents at the Marin Art and Garden Center, Ross. From left are Mesdames Edward G. Biglieri, Fred H. Brylka and Merritt A. Robinson.

CUTE LITTLE DEBBIE COBB shows one of the dyed eggs for the Egg Hunt while Pixie Parent members, from left, Mesdames Albert H. Angelini, Robert Berry and Doris Lowe, prepare for Tuesday when the Pixie Parent volunteers will dye 30 dozen eggs for the occasion. The event will also feature a fishing pond and entertainment by Dick Ford.

BOBBY LOWE and Roxanne Berry seem delightfully intrigued with this Easter basket as, from left, Mesdames George Cobb, Robert Allport and Frank Adamson, watch. Easter Egg Hunt, Fair Planned By Pixie Parents, March 22, 23

Hundreds of willing and able Pixie Parents members have come to the aid of the Easter Bunny and are busily making last minute plans for the mammoth sixth annual Easter Egg Hunt and Fair to be held Wednesday and Thursday mornings, 9:30 a.m. to 12 noon, March 22 and 23 at the Marin Art and Garden Center.

Everyone, including co-chairmen Mrs. Doris Lowe and Mrs. Robert H. Berry, are hoping for clear sunny skies, but in case of rain children will receive their baskets at the Barn and at Northgate kitchen.

Each child who will be hunting eggs will require a ticket. Stroller babies and mothers will gain free entrance. Reservations for the event must be made with Mrs. Les Vogel Jr., Kentfield. Some tickets may be available at the gate. In recent years up to 2000 children have attended the Easter Egg hunt.

Activities this year have been expanded to include a fishing pond, under the direction of Mrs. Robert Allport. Mrs. Henry Whittier, food booth chairman, has announced that sandwiches will be available this year, as well as milk, coffee and doughnuts.

Dick Ford, Marin modern dance instructor, will present an audience participation show in the Barn three times each morning. His program will stress creative dance for children.

Children will also be able to participate in Mother Goose story telling groups, have their portrait sketched, investigate a live pet show, and buy Hawaiian leis and pinwheels from strolling clowns on the premises.

Unusual behind-the-scenes jobs for this event include six Pixie Parents mothers who have been assigned the task of blowing up balloons for the party. They will use a foot-operated pump.

Seventeen Pixie Parents volunteers will spend the day before the fair dying Easter eggs. This promises to be an all-day project since each girl will dye 30 dozen eggs (one crate).

Sprightly "bunny" guides will help steer foot traffic and will help the children in the egg-hunt areas. These 40 Pixie Parents mothers, who will wear costumes and rabbit ears, received specific instructions early in March at two separate meetings.

Even "lost children" and first aid have been considered. Mrs. James Farley and Mrs. Dan Dougherty will service these emergencies.

Advisors for the Egg Hunt are Mrs. Charles Bodington, Pixie Parents president, and Mrs. James Schryver. Mrs. William Epstein is handling publicity and Mrs. Remy Burkel is in charge of gate ticket takers.

Other committee chairmen for the annual event include Mesdames Jerry Mathis, barn show; Frank Adamson, story telling; Molly Eschen, poloroid pictures; Jerroll Flood, sketches; John Blakney and William Porter, clowns; Merritt Robinson and Edward Biglieri, pet show; Herbert Grimbley and Kenneth Ducan, signs and staking; A. H. Angelini, dyeing eggs; George Cobb, hunt operations; and Sage Morris, mailing.

Nurses Of County Meeting Tonight

San Rafael General Hospital will be host to Marin County Nurses' Association tonight at 8 o'clock, according to Mrs. Ellen Bergman, R.N., president of District 28.

Coffee and dessert will be served. All registered professional nurses are invited.

El Marinero To Hear Of Conference

The report of the Daughters of the American Revolution state conference will be given by Mrs. Kenneth R. Gregory, regent of El Marinero Chapter, DAR at the luncheon meeting to be held on Monday, March 20 at the Tiburon home of Mrs. Sheldon T. Dahl, at 12 m. Also attending the conference as a delegate were Mesdames Earl P. Bartholomew, Thomas Harris, Vera Haffly Harlan, Georgiana Gabb, Dahl, Anne Smart and Dr. Eugenia M. Campbell. Mrs. Edwin W. Thomas served as a page during the Wednesday sessions.

The board met recently at the Enchanted Knolls home of Mrs. Bartholomew for luncheon and a stork shower in honor of Mrs. Christian J. Matthew, the treasurer of the chapter. Present were Mesdames Gregory, Cecil Miller, Robert E. Munter, Ercolini, Roger P. Garety, Harlan and Richard E. Mittelstaedt.

Phi Sigma Kappa Queen Finalist

Carol Franchini of San Anselmo is a finalist in Phi Sigma Kappa's Moonlight Girl Contest. Carol is a freshman at University of California at Berkeley. She is representing her sorority, Alpha Phi, and is one of the seven finalists who will attend the coronation ball at the Hotel Canterbury in San Francisco, March 17. The Moonlight Girl will be Omega of Phi Sigma Kappa's representative in the fraternity's national contest.

Work Day For Dads At Arequipa

Fathers in the Santa Venetia and Novato areas will help observe the "Out-of-Door Day" of Girl Scout Week on Saturday, by participating in a work day at Arequipa, Fairfax.

Plans call for laying water pipe to the unit sites to ready the property for Day Camp this summer. Spraying for poison oak will also be done. Workers are asked to bring wrenches and shovels.

The last work party found work "supervisors": Messrs. and Mesdames Leigh Abells, Wayne Bingham, Frank Duhme, Harold Green, Barnett Huse and Messrs. Dick De Berry, and Arch Caldwell, working with volunteers from Terra Linda and Marinwood.

From Terra Linda were: Lt. Cols. R. J. Butler, Stanley Dragnich, W. F. Pitman, Messrs. Jack Danielson, Fred Cole, Bob Griffiths, Herb Lundmark, Messrs. and Mesdames Chan Carpenter and Frank Warner.

Workers from Marinwood included: Maj. C. S. Izenour, Messrs. F. E. Allen, L. S. Gustad, Walter Savage, Abbott Stinchcomb, Alaiester Smith and Lawrence Wright Jr.

Any interested volunteers are urged to attend the monthly work parties from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 18, April 22, May 20 and June 17. Further information can be obtained from the Girl Scout Office, 739 "A" Street, San Rafael.

Tiburon Plant-Up Day To Honor Good Neighbor—The Railroad

By CORENA GREEN

Tiburon merchants, chiefs, Girl Scouts, Bluebirds and just plain citizens will team up on Saturday, March 25, for a plant-up day in honor of a good neighbor, the Northwestern Pacific Railroad.

"The Bloomingest Best Railroad" is the theme for the day and the target is the bank on Mar West between the Tiburon School and the trestle at the far end of the railroad yard. The plant-up will be the first in a series designed to beautify the town of Tiburon, according to Mrs. Palmer Field, who is organizing the project.

"We are primarily concerned with conserving and creating beauty. Someday we would like Tiburon to be as beautiful as Carmel," Mrs. Field explains. "We want to show that a town with industry can be attractive."

G. L. Morrison, president of the Northwestern Pacific Railroad, which has donated the pipes for watering, will officially open the plant-up day and an Italian lunch will follow with the food donated by the Mantegani family, long time residents of the area. Edward Mackay and Robert Vanderleith will provide accordion serenades and feature both Italian and Irish songs in honor of the earliest settlers in Tiburon who came to work on the railroad.

Committee members are well in the spirit of the affair and have assumed railroad titles for the day. Chief Stoker Albert Goodman is luncheon chairman. Advisor on the Italian food is James Testa.

Committee members who are planning the beautification project are Dr. Albertine Nash, Mesdames Elizabeth Frazer, Katherine Short, Wellman Farley, Thomas E. Stanton Jr., Olfve Ellingsen, Harry B. Allen and Messrs. Natale Anderotti and Donald Flynn. Adm. F. E. Beatty has been appointed "seachest" treasurer, Mrs. Edwin Weed, liaison to the garden club and Mrs. William B. Newman, liaison to the Park and Recreation Commission.

Miss Juanita Aureguy is in charge of "beg, borrow, or steal" and many are donating plants, money and time. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Sam Vella, Mrs. Harry Allen, Mrs. Dorothy Fisher, William Bailey, Jack McCormick, C. V. Means, Tommie Cox and Donald Geddes. Mrs. Bruce Jacobs is lettering "Gift of" signs which will be placed in the planting area. Warren Callister and William Brooks are the architectural advisors.

David Moore will be chief engineer in charge of workers. Among those who have promised to come are the Richard Adams, Arthur Waynes and Mr. and Mrs. George Dias. Mrs. Dick De Berry is bringing Girl Scouts and Mrs. Robert Samilson, Bluebirds. Marie Grbac, descendant of one of the earliest settlers on "Irish Hill," is organizing the teenagers.

Following the planting a group of young people will assist with the care of the area. Maylian Goodman is chief engineer in charge of maintenance. Assisting her with watering will be Sharon Callaghan and Carol Weeks. Mark Goodman, age 11, has been appointed water tower engineer and Dunya Chernenko supervising engineer on Mar West.

Even the Mill Valley Garbage Company will get into the act by removing the debris.

Plants are still needed according to Mrs. Field. She especially requests berries, ceanothus and bush Malay eucalyptus which does not grow high and will not spoil the view of the residents.

Old Mill P-TA's St. Pat's Party

"Leprechauns will be a-dancing as we hail St. Patrick's Day" invitations read to tomorrow night's annual frolic of Mill Valley's Old Mill School P-TA.

It is rumored that the leprechauns will be none other than parents themselves who will provide entertainment.

In order to accommodate the large crowd expected the party will be held at the Mill Valley American Legion Hall on Miller Avenue. Festivities will start at 7 p.m. with a pot luck dinner.

General chairman Mrs. Marian Scott announces that arrangements for the dinner are to be made with Mrs. L. M. Symmes Jr. or Mrs. Fred Bitgood.

In charge of refreshments to be served during the evening are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jessup, and Mrs. Edmond Gross is planning entertainment.

Tam Valley P-TA To Elect Officers

Election of officers and an open meeting of the Mill Valley School district board of trustees will be on the agenda for the March 20 meeting of the Tamalpais Valley School P-TA.

The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m. with coffee to be served at 7:45 p.m. before the 8 o'clock meeting of the board of trustees.

The slate of proposed P-TA officers is composed of Mesdames William Connarn, president; Lloyd Madison, vice president; David Rovens, secretary; and John McRee, treasurer.

Young Republicans To Hold 'Bus Stop' Champagne Party

A gala champagne theater party at the Marin Art and Garden Center has been planned for tomorrow by the Young Republicans of Marin. After that evening's performance of "Bus Stop" by the Ross Valley Players at "The Barn" champagne and canapes will be served on stage. Chairman of the event is Mrs. Lou Frost of Novato; Mrs. Edwin Thomas of Terra Linda is social events co-ordinator for the club.

Committee members include Mrs. John Arnett of Mill Valley, canapes, assisted by Mrs. John Schmitz and Mrs. David Hudson of Glenwood; Mrs. John Clow, Mill Valley, has designed posters; Mrs. Gordon Ness of San Rafael, publicity; Mrs. William Keeler, Mill Valley, tickets, and on her committee, Mesdames Jon Joslyn, Corte Madera; Henry Aubel, Marinwood; Richard Calahan, Sausalito; Lyle Hoover and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Carrier of Mill Valley, and Edwin Thomas. The ticket committee has also been assisted by Gerald F. Tice of Santa Venetia, membership chairman, and his committee, Judd McKay of Glenwood, and Mrs. John E. Koster of Greenbrae. Gordon Ness, president of the YR's has arranged for the champagne.

Many pre-theater parties have been planned. Mr. and Mrs. Lowell N. Ross will serve cocktails to a large group in their new Mountain View Avenue home. Their group includes Messrs. and Mesdames George Walton, Richard Skuse, Reese Machinich, Richard Fagerstrom, E. H. Loewenguth, Edward F. McLaughlin, Philip Collischonn III, C. M. Sullivan, David Miller and Roy Powers, all of San Rafael; and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ross of Lafayette, Mr. and Mrs. M. Frye of Berkeley and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. McChristi of Piedmont.

The William Keelers of Mill Valley will have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris of San Francisco; and also from San Francisco come Mr. and Mrs. Robert Solas to be guests of the Richard Calahans of Sausalito. Miss Gene Gainer of Mill Valley has planned a gathering, and in Marinwood, Mr. and Mrs. James Neiswonger and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Clark will meet at the home of the Birge Clarks. From Novato will come Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grundstrom Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Palmer. Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Tice of Santa Venetia will bring neighbors Mr. and Mrs. Martin Collins.

Also reserving seats at the "Barn" are Dr. and Mrs. James Freeman of Mill Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Haas of San Rafael, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Emmons of Fairfax; and Douglas Weddell of San Rafael and Peter Fischel of San Anselmo who are both bringing large groups.

Scotland Theme For Novato Club

The Open Door Club visited Scotland in song, pictures, recitation and in community singing at its recent meeting.

It was the ninth in the club's Get-Acquainted-with-the-World series and the opening of Girl Scout week for Troop 336 under the leadership of Mrs. Roland Vetter. There are 33 girls in the troop. The six who appeared were especially chosen to entertain the Open Door Club.

The Troop chose Scotland for their International Friendship program this year because of one of their members, Claire Craik, a native-born Scotch lassie, whose father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Craik have been much help to the Scouts in their study. Mrs. Craik trained the Scouts in their folk dance and in the singing of Loch Lomond as well as her daughter in her solo number.

It was a coincidence that Scotland night at the Open Door fell on the evening that the club was honoring Natalie Merritt and Walter Sundberg who have an intense interest in Scotland and in The Macleod clan. The club showered the couple with gifts for the kitchen.

Rev. Prindeville Will Speak On Seminary Life

To heighten an awareness for religious vocations, Rev. John Prindeville, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church in Santa Venetia, will speak on "Life in the Seminary" at the meeting of the Blessed Sacrament Women's Guild to be held on Monday, March 20 at 8 p.m. in the parish hall.

On Tuesday, April 25, a spring fashion show and luncheon will be held at Rickey's Rancho Rafael. Mrs. Charles Matthews is chairman.

At a recent board meeting at which Mrs. Joseph Redmond presided, plans were made for the Guild's two annual events: the fall dessert-fashion show on Wednesday evening, Oct. 11, with Mrs. Albert Paczkowski Jr. as chairman, and the Christmas bazaar on Sunday, Dec. 3, coordinated by Mrs. James Hetrick.

Other committee chairmen introduced at the board meeting were as follows: Mesdames Michael Russell, spiritual; Herb Mooney, hospitality; Albert Freitas, NCCW representative; Arthur Fegan, membership; Dan Crowley, catechism; Don McCarthy, Altar Society; Delbert King, motion pictures; Hugo Phillips, telephone; Anton Lonich, refreshments; Tom Collins, refreshments; Fred Hoffman, potluck supper; Frederick Von Lehr, awards; Ad Mahood, cake sale; Bernard Whitehill, publicity; and Mrs. Katherine Morris, programs.

Club Plans Low Jinks On Saturday

On Saturday evening at the Sausalito Woman's Club, many members will be seeing the annual High Jinks for the second time.

Presented as Low Jinks, following the Thursday showing on Founders' Day, husbands and escorts are permitted to join in the fun. General chairman for the event is Mrs. Carl J. Finn. The club's president, Mrs. S. C. Stapp, will greet arrivals at the door with Mrs. L. S. M. Beckett and Mrs. Byron Hurd at the desk.

Following the performance, the refreshment committee will be staffed by Mesdames James J. Carroll, Sally K. Cook, Denton N. Erskine, Vera Harlan, Conrad T. Kett, Ernest H. King, John E. Koenig and Fay Sparks. Dancing is included in the evening planned strictly for fun.

St. Patrick's Jig To Be Larkspur Event

It will be a great night for the Irish when the St. Patrick's Jig will be given by members of St. Patrick's Guild at St. Patrick's Center in Larkspur tomorrow night. Cotton and gingham dresses will be worn by the ladies and the men can leave their neckties at home.

The evening will begin with a candlelight dinner, served buffet style from 8 to 9. Entertainment with an Irish theme will take place during the dinner hour and after that there will be dancing until midnight.

The party proceeds will go to St. Patrick's Parish school fund.

Mrs. Salvatore A. Lococo, general chairman of the party, will be assisted by Messrs. and Mesdames Hugo D. Andreis, Giulio Boeri, Ronald Delucchi, Allyn Hamilton, J. W. Johnson, Adolph E. Lubamersky, Julio Poletti, Robert J. Prowse, Phil Ruggiero, Pieter Tool, William Von der Mehden, Mesdames Dorothy Burton, Eugene Byrnes Jr., Frances Casey, John Corriea, Gordon Dickman, John F. Erlwein, Paul Giovannoni, Leo P. Hulick, Milo Hurley, Raymond Maher, John J. McCarthy, Rudy Mullins, Herbert Neal, Martin O'Brien, Arnold Pieri, Mario Pompei, Thomas Scott, John Storrs, P.R.Streett, David Swanson, Miss Mary Salaka, Paul Bosque, Salvatore A. Lococo and Louis Malvino.

Reservations should be made at once with Mrs. Julio Poletti or Mrs. Ronald Delucchi of Corte Madera.

Marin Girl Scouts Mark Week With Varied Projects

Marin Girl Scout troops are observing Girl Scout Week in many ways.

In Novato, fifth grade Troop 336 will plant oleanders on the grounds of St. Francis Episcopal Church and will also have a display in a store window. Leaders of the 34 Intermediate Scouts are Mesdames Roland Vetter, Robert Morse, Henry Wallenvorse and Leander Herber.

Another group of Novato Scouts, members of Troop 361, purchased a "Golden Girl Scout Rose," specially developed to commemorate the Golden Anniversary of the Girl Scouts in 1962, which they will present to Novato General Hospital. With their leaders, Mesdames Eugenio Fagnani, Robert Strom and Robert Espagnolle, the sixth graders will also assist in setting out cuttings of oleanders on the hospital grounds.

Celebrating "Out-of-Door Day" Wing Scout Troop 345 has planned a trip to the snow with their leaders, Misses Barbara Mugg and Jo Cheney.

The 12 seventh grade members of Ross Troop 121 will present a fashion show entitled "Budding Butterflies," at St. John's Community House. Under the direction of Mesdames C. O. Ammonette Jr., Richard Zoellner, and T. C. Hossfeld, the girls have prepared for the show as part of the requirements for the Good Grooming Badge. The sixth grade troop members will serve refreshments to the guests.

Third grade Brownie Troop 146, also from Ross, celebrated "Citizenship Day" by inviting Ross School third grade Blue Birds and their leaders, Mrs. D. F. Deedy and Mrs. Frederick Scatena Jr., to hear Mrs. Philip Landa, the "Doll Lady," talk about our famous Americans. They recently heard of the need for nursery books in Kerala, India. The girls collected, cleaned and mended the books before sending them to the newly formed nursery school. Helping the Brownies with their "World Friendship Through Books" project were Mesdames O. R. Turney, Carl H. Hansen and Jean McCauley.

A flower bed by the entrance of Marin Terrace School will be planted during the week by the members of Mill Valley Brownie Troop 76. The second graders plan to care for the plot after their fathers do the initial spading. The planting will be done under the direction of Mesdames Paul White, Richard Bowen and John Norall.

Buzzin' Boots Club Dance Tomorrow Eve

The Buzzin' Boots Square Dance Club will hold a dance session at the Star Hall in San Anselmo tomorrow between 9 and 11 p.m. Beginners will dance from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

Bill Owen will be the caller. Door hosts will be Jean Ashby, Bill Lyons and Bob McDermott.

Mary Parisi, Bill Scovill and Joan Sloan will be in charge of the coffee hour. Marge Van Couwenberghe, Boots Pool and George McLaughlin will be the club checkers and floor guides.

Corned Beef Dinner

A corned beef dinner sponsored by Genessee Council, No. 180 Degree of Pocahontas and Tamal Tribe No. 288 will be held at the group's "Irish Night" at the Portuguese-American Hall in San Rafael tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. Members, wives and husbands are invited. Entertainment and dancing will follow. Chairmen are Mrs. Julia Tartaul and George Hall Jr.

Birthday Fete For Presleys' Little Girl

Donna Presley celebrated her second birthday at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don R. Presley at their San Rafael home on Sunday. Donna is the sister of Donald Jr., 5, and Eugene, 4, who were present.

Also present were Donna's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. DeMartini; her uncle, John DeMartini; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elwin E. Ramponi; and cousins David, Paul, Stephen, Cathy and Margaret Ann Ramponi. All the above are also from San Rafael.

A cake with two pink candles was served with ice cream and soft drinks.

Donna is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Alma H. Presley of Sterling, Colo. and John E. Presley of Sebastopol.

Deer Park P-TA Meeting Tonight

Superintendent of Schools Homer Sisk will be the guest speaker at the general meeting of the Deer Park P-TA tonight at 7:45 p.m. in the multi-purpose room.

Sisk will explain the proposed semi-departmentalization of Fairfax Central School which will come before the school board for approval at the regular monthly meeting next week.

Bruce McDonald, principal of Fairfax Central and Deer Park Schools and Thomas Kelly, vice principal and eighth grade teacher at Fairfax Central School, will also be guest speakers on the same subject.

This will be the first general meeting of the Deer Park P-TA since Founders' Day, when two honorary life memberships were presented — to Mrs. Harold Walker, past president of the P-TA, and to Mrs. Isabel Cartwright, sixth grade teacher at Deer Park School.

Kaffee Klatsch For Guild Held In Keller Home

Mrs. L. J. Keller of Tiburon recently held a kaffee klatsch at her home to acquaint new and prospective members with the Holy Family Guild of Marin.

Mrs. Dan C. Crowley of Terra Linda, president of the Guild, welcomed the many guests and introduced the founder of the Guild in Marin, Mrs. William Fahy of Mill Valley, who spoke on the start of the group and introduced other long time members, Mrs. Walter Garrett of Greenbrae and Mrs. Arthur Luchetti of Corte Madera. Honored guests were Sister Miriam Auxilium and Sister M. Euphraua of the Holy Family Convent in San Francisco.

Sister Auxilium gave a talk on the function of the Holy Family Sisters and their work in religious instruction to Catholic children who attend public schools.

Club Luncheon To Aid Students

A benefit luncheon and card party will be given by the Larkspur Women's Club on March 22, at noon at the Larkspur City Hall under the chairmanship of Mrs. Eva Calhoun.

Proceeds from the affair will go towards sending two Redwood High School students, Margaret Deedy to Sweden and David Wilkins to Mexico under the "Experiment in International Living" program.

Mrs. William Turner, chairman of the Redwood High School Parents Committee, informs us that these young people will live with the selected family for the first five weeks absorbing their way of life and customs and then they take a tour of that area.

There have been four previous winners in the past, Lynn Harriman who went to Sweden, Thorley Turner, also to Sweden, Shirley McClure to Austria and Sally Humberger to Switzerland.

Sorority Initiate

Suanne S. Jeffries of Ross has recently been initiated into active membership of Gamma Phi Beta, national social sorority, at Arizona State University, Tempe, Ariz. Suanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. Jeffries, is a freshman at ASU majoring in journalism. A 1960 graduate of Katharine Branson School, she was a cheerleader and a member of the school newspaper staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lantz of Novato are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Robert F. Mountjoy of Novato.

The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Isaacson of Novato.

The bride-elect was graduated from Novato High School and is employed with the California Casualty Indemnity Exchange. She is the sister of Robert, Richard and Janet Lantz of Novato.

Robert was graduated from San Rafael High School and is a sound technician for the Rapp Brush, Inc. in San Francisco. He is the brother of Nancy and Bruce Mountjoy and Michael and Peter Isaacson all of Novato. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carlson of Virginia, Minn., are his grandparents.

The wedding will be an event of August in Novato's Grace Lutheran Church.

Service League Easter Sale

The Marin General Hospital Service League will hold its annual Easter Sale of hand-made articles tomorrow from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the hospital cafeteria.

Doubling as sales staff are the following Pink Ladies, who also devoted many hours making the articles: Mesdames George Ingram of Kentfield; Arne Kionig, George Steinert and Arnold Leonhard of San Rafael; J. P. Redington of Greenbrae; and Hans Fischel of San Anselmo.

In order to acquaint the public with a new Recipe Club, under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. S. Danziger of Fairfax, homemade cookies will be on sale with recipes attached.

The Jonquil Branch of the Marin General Hospital Auxiliary has made Easter Egg trees for the sale.

Weight Reduction Classes To Get Underway Monday

The sixth series of weight reduction classes sponsored by the Marin County Heart Assn. will get underway on March 20 and continue each Monday and Wednesday thereafter for 16 weeks.

Sessions will be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m. in the offices of the Heart Assn. in San Rafael.

Arrangements also have been made for a repeat course to be held on Thursdays for those patients having completed a previous 16 week session of instructions, starting on Thursday, March 23, 1961.

Class groups will be approximately 15 to 20 in size, depending upon number of registrants and are open to both men and women.

An average weight loss of 1 to 1½ pounds per week is anticipated, based on results of previous classes. Overweight persons will be accepted only on referral from physicians and will be using a 1200 calorie plan.

Students will weigh in weekly and chart progress. Movies and guest speakers will be part of the class program.

Instructing will be Miss W. J. Derryberry and Mrs. Frances Dahl, registered dieticians, both of whom have worked with weight reduction classes sponsored by the Heart Association for the past three years.

Alpha Phi Luncheons

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

There Still May Be Time To Rebuild Friendships

"Why don't you American editors put more information in your newspapers about Latin American matters?"

That was the question put to us at the Independent-Journal some weeks ago by Senor Eduard Tellez-Vargas, chief police reporter for El Universal, Mexico City daily newspaper.

Senor Tellez-Vargas was in a group of Latin American newsmen who visited at United States on a U.S. State Department tour. Their tour included a brief stop in Marin County.

We were able to respond glibly to Senor Tellez-Vargas' question with the explanation that our readers simply are not much interested in what happens "south of the border."

Actually, a more accurate reply would be that the people of the United States are mostly so little educated about the importance of Latin America to us that we cannot understand the significance of any news that comes out of our southern neighbor nations.

This is, of course, most tragic.

The area that is Marin County was under Spanish and Mexican flag for many years.

When the Marin County Journal began publication just 100 years ago, it carried news in Spanish as well as English.

But those ties have long since been severed and lost.

We are and long have been pretty thoroughly out of touch with affairs in Latin America and, as we say, unable to see any connection between what is happening there and our everyday lives here.

The advent of Castro and communism in Cuba has begun to change all this.

Take a look at the dispatch in the lower right hand corner of this page today. It indicates that Castro-ism and communism may be even closer to our borders than Cuba.

Now we can begin to perceive the errors of omission of the past. We should have been paying attention to what has gone on in Latin America.

Our schools and our colleges did not emphasize these matters in yesteryear — although they have begun to now — and that lack is plaguing us.

What can be done?

Those of us who are interested in international relations and world affairs must "hit the books" to make up for lost time in learning how Latin American developments affect us.

We may still have time to regain sufficient respect south of the border to retain "Latinos" as our friends.

Saturday Morning Music

The one-lung gasoline lawn mowers shatter the Saturday morning air in our Marin neighborhoods with their happy weekend racket.

The sound of grass being cut and the lazy exercise involved is one of the necessary rituals of our spring and summer.

If it isn't really music, and we doubt it is, at least it is akin to music in that it arouses strange emotions in the heart of the happy home owner.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BLAZE SETS OFF A DISPUTE

Fire that broke out in a Connecticut home spurred a passer-by to dash to the nearest telephone. But in his anxiety he gave the volunteer firemen the wrong address.

By the time that the volunteers had arrived, the blaze had done several thousand dollars' damage to the unoccupied house. Even as the embers smoldered, however the accident touched off a dispute between two neighboring municipalities as to who should have put out the fire.

The burning house was within the jurisdiction of one fire house, but somewhat closer to the other. No matter who was right, the owners of the home, who were away at the time, had quite a repair job on their hands.

It is often useless to parcel out blame for damage already done, whether to a burned-out house or to society as a whole. More pleasing to God and helpful to man is to bind up the wounds of discord. Then find reasonable ways to overcome past mistakes by common agreement on what to do in the future.

"But if you bite and devour one another, take heed you be not consumed of one another." (Galatians 5:15)

Let my question, Lord, be "What can I do to help?" and not "Whose fault is it?"

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

Want To Rough Up Office Boy? Then Just Make These Remarks

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks an office boy gets tired of hearing:

"Hey, boy, get a move on!"

"When I worked as an office boy, I got $7.50 a week and was glad to get it. Now they want $50 to start—and they think they're doing you a favor."

"I can stand everything about him except that ducktail haircut. Every time he goes to the men's room he spends half an hour combing it while he looks at himself in the mirror."

"If you don't mind, young man, would you please wear an ordinary suit coat tomorrow? We're not exactly an old-fashioned firm, but we still feel a black leather jacket is a bit out of place in a business office."

"I don't mind that so much. It's the expression on his face while he's listening to it that gives me the creeps."

"Oh, they all look dopey at that age. It's their adenoids or something."

Presidents' Day Is Ill Advised

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Congratulations on your fine editorial re the ill-advised Presidents' Day. A "lumping together" of celebrations of all United States Presidents on a week end, would serve to downgrade the magnificent contributions each President, individually, has made to make this republic great and would contribute a victory to our enemies.

The lack of red-blooded patriotism has long been a cause of great concern to all thinking Americans. We must emphasize, not homogenize, our heroes and their virtues.

This brings me to something that is happening in Sacramento along these same lines. A bill, introduced into the Senate by Sen. Randolph Collier would make it mandatory for our school children to attend school on four great patriotic holidays. These are Lincoln's Birthday, Washington's Birthday, Admission Day and Veterans' Day. How can we expect our children to properly learn of the lives of our two magnificent Presidents when they find that our state so overlooks them as to cancel a legal holiday marking their birthdays?

The American Legion and its auxiliary are protesting actively this unfortunate bill. Their resolution rightly points out that "the lives and deeds of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln have been a strong influence and inspiration to the youth of our land."

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, great American poet, put it nobly:

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And departing leave behind us
Footprints in the sands of time."

Let us, as Americans, resist the move toward a Presidents' Day. Also let us join in the mounting tide of protest against our school holiday ban. Why should we conceal our beautiful American heritage from our children?

Give And Take Of Medical Care

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Our great nation was born of the unity of freedom and responsibility. We have grown and developed through the years as a result of this heritage. We have matured in many ways, to the extent that today we lead the world in its struggle for those things that we consider basic.

My political philosophy embraces, under the concept that freedom and responsibility must go hand in hand to insure the survival of freedom, the ideal that government should not only intervene on the behalf of those who cannot help themselves, but also should not intervene with the freedom of those who are willing and able to be responsible for their own care and welfare.

Without responsibility on the part of our able citizens, an enormous amount of the freedom our country has fought and died for will be forfeit.

The proposal to put medical care on top of, not under, social security, is a threat to our basic freedom, in that it purposes to take away responsibility, rather than to encourage it. Further, it would compel those persons who would rather be responsible for and to themselves, to participate. Compulsion is the extreme opposite of and a threat to freedom.

The basic purpose of qualification for relief when deeded, is not to humiliate or degrade the person who seeks it, but rather to safeguard from abuse the right of the needy to obtain help. The argument that everyone would pay for what he receives does not convince me that people should not protect their freedom by taking responsibility for themselves as long as able.

I should think that the present administration would give more thought instead to the protection of the value of the dollars saved in productive years so that when the non-productive years are reached responsible planning ahead for those years is rewarded by self-respect, independence, and most important, freedom.

Cannot "justice for all" be attained without the sacrifice of liberty?

Should Preserve Water Fronts

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

At its regular monthly meeting March 7, the board of directors of the Marin Conservation League listened to a presentation of the problem facing Belvedere in its fight to preserve the view across the Bay to San Francisco from Beach Street.

The board took unanimous action to support the position of the Belvedere citizens in their efforts because the board is convinced that irreparable damage would be done by obstructing the present maginficent outlook, and that this view should be preserved for this and coming generations. It belongs not only to Belvedere and the Tiburon Peninsula, but to all of Marin.

The examples set in this country, in Europe and South America, in preserving for public use their waterfronts might well be followed.

What Do You Do When You Must Write Column And Have No Ideas?

SO YOU THINK it's easy to write a column? Don't believe it.

There are days like this—when you sit and stare at that blank sheet of paper in your typewriter.

Then you look around, for inspiration.

The church editor sitting opposite your desk is deep in sermons and services and stories about missionaries.

A repairman deftly probes the inside of a wirephoto machine. A copyreader, deep in thought, rubs his hand over the top of his head and frowns.

A more voluble column writer across the room pounds his typewriter steadily as the words flow out, oh-so-easily.

You look at the blank page some more, and stare at the calendar in front of you. Inspiration there? Maybe.

YOU NOTE THE date. It's an anniversary of sorts for you—one you'd rather not remember. It was just a year ago that you were driving home from the Novato I-J bureau. A car rammed the rear of your small English auto, shoving it into the back of a big tractor-trailer.

Somehow you came out of that wreck with no broken bones. And there's nothing to remind you of a few terrifying minutes except a recurring neck stiffness, and the I-J stories on the auto accidents that still happen much too frequently on Highway 101.

You check the calendar again, for a more pleasant memory. And you find it, on Friday. It's St. Patrick's Day.

It reminds you of your visit to Ireland, that lovely land. And especially you remember one misty, rainy day when you climbed to the top of towering Blarney Castle.

There, like all the other tourists, you lay on your back, grabbed two steel bars, leaned way back to reach that famous stone.

And having done all that, acquiring, so the legend goes, the gift of eloquence, wouldn't you think that writing this column would be a simple matter?

'Tisn't so.

NOW THAT WE'RE back in the big city of San Rafael, column writing is harder work. Out in the small town of Corte Madera, and neighboring areas, there was often an interesting item to pick up at the coffee shop next door. Or one of the youngsters on the way home from school dropped in with a tale to tell.

Police Chief Frank Nelson usually had time for a friendly chat. And the College of Marin and Tam District were good for many a column-worthy item on the world of education.

It takes time to get back to the faster pace of San Rafael, and more time to write a column.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION

Russ, Castro Cubans Work Hand-In-Hand In Mexico

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

MEXICO CITY (AP)—One of the first things Fidel Castro's current ambassador did when he arrived in Mexico — even before presenting his credentials to the government—was to call on the Soviet ambassador.

And from that time a year ago until today there has been a steady stream of traffic between the embassies of Moscow's Vladimir Bazykin and Cuba's Jose Antonio Portuendo Valdor.

There is every evidence that activities of the two embassies, less than two blocks apart on the Calzada Tacubaya, are carefully coordinated, and that the Russians are the unquestioned bosses of their common efforts.

THE RUSSIANS and the Castro Cubans concentrate much of their energies on recruiting among Mexico's students and teachers and the intellectual class in general. They obviously are making significant progress in building a dangerous fifth column for Mexico.

Mexico is one of the bright spots of Latin America in many respects. The capital has a bright, hopeful look and hums with an energy seldom encountered elsewhere in Latin America. Mexico's economy is sound, its currency strong, its prospects encouraging.

Most Mexican labor unions are headed by strongly anti-Communist leadership. The Confederation of Labor itself is a stabilizing influence in Mexican politics. The Communists have practically no strength in trade union leadership—with one exception. This is the national union of education workers, embracing all education ministry workers outside the university, both in the state and federal school systems.

THE MEXICAN Confederation of Labor leadership disagrees with the charge that the teachers' union is Communist-dominated. But at least six members of its 18-member national executive are known Communists. It is the only Mexican union affiliated with the Communist World Federation of Trade Unions.

Within the union, the Communists and their Castro allies are building for the future, effectively fanning violent hatred of the United States as a political tool in the hands of extremists.

The union publishes a monthly magazine, Magisterio, a slick, cleverly produced expensive review of 96 pages which is distributed free to union members.

Month after month it is loaded with pro-Moscow, pro-Castro propaganda. Frequently it carries articles by Soviet Communists. It blasts the United States and the Roman Catholic clergy month in and month out.

THE CUBAN revolution, students are told, "represents the cause of all Latin America." The friendship of the United States, they read, "is a useless trinket." Fidel Castro, they are informed, "is shaking the world with the impassioned words of a true Latin-American leader" while the United States plots against Latin-American countries.

Mexico's normal school, source of the country's lower and secondary school teachers, is considered a hotbed of communism. The teachers are ready targets. Generally they are overworked and underpaid in comparison with other professional people, although the government of President Adolfo Lopez Mateos has taken some steps toward trying to lessen the gap.

The school of economics of the National University, too, seems to have been heavily infected. It is reported turning out many a Communist-oriented graduate to send into the country's economic mainstream.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

There Still May Be Time To Rebuild Friendships

"Why don't you American editors put more information in your newspapers about Latin American matters?"

That was the question put to us at the Independent-Journal some weeks ago by Senor Eduard Tellez-Vargas, chief police reporter for El Universal, Mexico City daily newspaper.

Senor Tellez-Vargas was in a group of Latin American newsmen who visited at United States on a U.S. State Department tour. Their tour included a brief stop in Marin County.

We were able to respond glibly to Senor Tellez-Vargas' question with the explanation that our readers simply are not much interested in what happens "south of the border."

Actually, a more accurate reply would be that the people of the United States are mostly so little educated about the importance of Latin America to us that we cannot understand the significance of any news that comes out of our southern neighbor nations.

This is, of course, most tragic.

The area that is Marin County was under Spanish and Mexican flag for many years.

When the Marin County Journal began publication just 100 years ago, it carried news in Spanish as well as English.

But those ties have long since been severed and lost.

We are and long have been pretty thoroughly out of touch with affairs in Latin America and, as we say, unable to see any connection between what is happening there and our everyday lives here.

The advent of Castro and communism in Cuba has begun to change all this.

Take a look at the dispatch in the lower right hand corner of this page today. It indicates that Castro-ism and communism may be even closer to our borders than Cuba.

Now we can begin to perceive the errors of omission of the past. We should have been paying attention to what has gone on in Latin America.

Our schools and our colleges did not emphasize these matters in yesteryear — although they have begun to now — and that lack is plaguing us.

What can be done?

Those of us who are interested in international relations and world affairs must "hit the books" to make up for lost time in learning how Latin American developments affect us.

We may still have time to regain sufficient respect south of the border to retain "Latinos" as our friends.

Saturday Morning Music

The one-lung gasoline lawn mowers shatter the Saturday morning air in our Marin neighborhoods with their happy weekend racket.

The sound of grass being cut and the lazy exercise involved is one of the necessary rituals of our spring and summer.

If it isn't really music, and we doubt it is, at least it is akin to music in that it arouses strange emotions in the heart of the happy home owner.

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BLAZE SETS OFF A DISPUTE

Fire that broke out in a Connecticut home spurred a passer-by to dash to the nearest telephone. But in his anxiety he gave the volunteer firemen the wrong address.

By the time that the volunteers had arrived, the blaze had done several thousand dollars' damage to the unoccupied house. Even as the embers smoldered, however the accident touched off a dispute between two neighboring municipalities as to who should have put out the fire.

The burning house was within the jurisdiction of one fire house, but somewhat closer to the other. No matter who was right, the owners of the home, who were away at the time, had quite a repair job on their hands.

It is often useless to parcel out blame for damage already done, whether to a burned-out house or to society as a whole. More pleasing to God and helpful to man is to bind up the wounds of discord. Then find reasonable ways to overcome past mistakes by common agreement on what to do in the future.

"But if you bite and devour one another, take heed you be not consumed of one another." (Galatians 5:15)

Let my question, Lord, be "What can I do to help?" and not "Whose fault is it?"

REP. MILLER REPORTS

Housing Picture Not Same Today

WASHINGTON—During my recent tour of the district I talked with a number of Redwood Empire lumbermen and home builders and their unemployed workers.

One of the convictions I brought back to Washington is that conventional methods probably will not solve the problems of the lumber and homebuilding industries.

Today's housing market is very different from that of a few years ago.

There is no longer a large backlog of consumer demand for homes which can be met simply by providing ample credit.

At the same time millions of Americans do not have decent housing—including many with what might be called moderate incomes. These are the families without the means to buy a newer or better home under present financing programs, but not poor enough for public low-rent housing. They include those with incomes in the $5,000 to $6,000 bracket.

These are the families who offer the largest and most immediate potential in today's housing market at today's interest rates.

I believe that to reach this market we have got to provide homes in the $70 to $90 a month price range. This is what it's going to take to pry loose activity in housing right now so the housing and lumber industries can play their essential roles in the upturn.

Feeling as I do I was very encouraged by President John F. Kennedy's housing program sent up to Capitol Hill last Thursday.

I was especially glad to see the legislation he requests to help provide better housing for those "moderate" income families.

Kennedy asked us to extend the Federal Housing Authority's no-down payment, 40-year mortgage insurance program to any family for a temporary, experimental period of 12 to 18 months and on homes costing less than $13,500.

(These terms are now available only to families displaced by government action. Now the limit on regular FHA financing is 30 years.

For California, at least, I feel the $13,500 ceiling is too low to be of enough benefit. I believe it is unrealistic at today's construction costs.

When the legislation comes before my committee I will try to raise the ceiling for the 40-year, no-down-payment program to $15,000.

Under the proposed 40-year, no-down-payment program, a family could buy a $13,500 home (at 5½ per cent) with monthly payments of $69.66. Under present FHA terms a down payment of $450 and monthly payments of $74.12 are required on the same home.

With a $15,000 ceiling monthly payments will be in the neighborhood of $90.

The president's program also asked for expanded, extended and new loan programs for housing the elderly, home improvement loans, city planning grants, and urban renewal loans and grants.

By separate executive action under existing legislation the adminilstration has already taken steps to stimulate the flow of mortgage money, reduce FHA-insured mortgage rates, speed up urban renewal and low-rent housing projects, release additional funds for college and farm housing and housing for the elderly, and remove restrictions and reduce interest rates on community facility loans.

The goals of all this activity include helping to make decent housing available for all Americans and to renew and assure sound growth of our cities.

Another goal is to encourage prosperous construction and lumber industries as essential parts of general economic prosperity and long-term economic growth.

22,000 Living In State Prisons

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — California's total prison population topped 22,000 for the first time in January, according to a recent report from the State Department of Corrections.

The department predicted that the state's institutions for males would be 5,735 over actual capacity by March 31, causing preparations for the early opening of a 600-man unit at the California Men's Colony. April 1 is the target date.

There are 93 lakes in Kosciusko County in Indiana.

REP. MILLER REPORTS

Housing Picture Not Same Today

WASHINGTON—During my recent tour of the district I talked with a number of Redwood Empire lumbermen and home builders and their unemployed workers.

One of the convictions I brought back to Washington is that conventional methods probably will not solve the problems of the lumber and homebuilding industries.

Today's housing market is very different from that of a few years ago.

There is no longer a large backlog of consumer demand for homes which can be met simply by providing ample credit.

At the same time millions of Americans do not have decent housing—including many with what might be called moderate incomes. These are the families without the means to buy a newer or better home under present financing programs, but not poor enough for public low-rent housing. They include those with incomes in the $5,000 to $6,000 bracket.

These are the families who offer the largest and most immediate potential in today's housing market at today's interest rates.

I believe that to reach this market we have got to provide homes in the $70 to $90 a month price range. This is what it's going to take to pry loose activity in housing right now so the housing and lumber industries can play their essential roles in the upturn.

Feeling as I do I was very encouraged by President John F. Kennedy's housing program sent up to Capitol Hill last Thursday.

I was especially glad to see the legislation he requests to help provide better housing for those "moderate" income families.

Kennedy asked us to extend the Federal Housing Authority's no-down payment, 40-year mortgage insurance program to any family for a temporary, experimental period of 12 to 18 months and on homes costing less than $13,500.

(These terms are now available only to families displaced by government action. Now the limit on regular FHA financing is 30 years.

For California, at least, I feel the $13,500 ceiling is too low to be of enough benefit. I believe it is unrealistic at today's construction costs.

When the legislation comes before my committee I will try to raise the ceiling for the 40-year, no-down-payment program to $15,000.

Under the proposed 40-year, no-down-payment program, a family could buy a $13,500 home (at 5½ per cent) with monthly payments of $69.66. Under present FHA terms a down payment of $450 and monthly payments of $74.12 are required on the same home.

With a $15,000 ceiling monthly payments will be in the neighborhood of $90.

The president's program also asked for expanded, extended and new loan programs for housing the elderly, home improvement loans, city planning grants, and urban renewal loans and grants.

By separate executive action under existing legislation the adminilstration has already taken steps to stimulate the flow of mortgage money, reduce FHA-insured mortgage rates, speed up urban renewal and low-rent housing projects, release additional funds for college and farm housing and housing for the elderly, and remove restrictions and reduce interest rates on community facility loans.

The goals of all this activity include helping to make decent housing available for all Americans and to renew and assure sound growth of our cities.

Another goal is to encourage prosperous construction and lumber industries as essential parts of general economic prosperity and long-term economic growth.

QUIZ FOR ADVERTISERS

Q. What is the most effective and economical way to present a selling message to 25,000 Marin families? CHECK ONE.

1. POSTAL CARD . . . 2. LETTER . . . 3. ADVERTISING FOLDER . . . 4. AN I-J ADVERTISEMENT . . .

A. An I-J Advertisement, by a tremendous margin.

ANALYSIS

Postal Card. We used to call it a "penny postal." That's when you could buy them at any post office for one cent each. Today a government postal costs 3c—$750 for postage alone to send a short message to 25,000 names. Engravings, printing, addressing, compiling or buying a mailing list, delivery to the postoffice, other expenses, could easily double (or triple) that figure, depending on how elaborate you make your 3c mailing card.

A Letter. This costs even more—$1,000 for postage alone if you send it first-class. Individually typed letters would, of course, be prohibitive in cost; the expense of a form letter would include costs of the paper, mimeographing or printing, filling in names if desired, envelopes, addressing, enclosing, handling expense, in addition to postage. Ten cents per name would be a low estimate. That's $2,500.

Advertising Folder. Your message, adequately presented in type and pictures, could hardly cost less than a letter — say, $2,500 — and could run to almost any amount, depending on size, colors used, etc.

An I-J Advertisement. For $750—the cost of 25,000 Postal Cards—you can present your selling message in the Independent-Journal more than 37 times, in a space (2 columns by 10 inches) larger than a postcard! No expense for mailing list, addressing, printing . . . not even for engravings, if you use the I-J's free mat service.

Or you could run TWO full page ads in the I-J for $750, giving your message tremendous impact and selling power . . . and still have nearly $100 left in your advertising kitty.

You could even have an EXTRA COLOR in one of your page ads, and still keep close to your $750 budget.

CONCLUSION: To cover Marin, with your message delivered on the doorsteps of 2 out of 3 homes (an estimated audience of close to 100,000), ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY I-J!

Be Sure Tranquilizers Are Kept Safely Out Of Children's Reach

Have any tranquilizers around your house? Here's a tip. Lock them up and keep the key. Don't tempt your children with them.

I've been working with a girl we'll call "Mary." She is 14. She has a boy friend, but goes out with him rarely. Mary runs with a nice gang. She has a good reputation. She is a little rambunctious, like many 14-year-olds, but she is not a bad girl.

Mary was home alone one evening. Her boy friend happened by. They got to talking about tranquilizers. They called them "Happy pills." Mary went to the medicine cupboard and got some. Her mother uses them occasionally. Then Mary and the boy swallowed several. After that they started necking. The pills lowered their resistance, so that they hardly knew what they were doing. Now Mary is pregnant.

Recently I asked a federal officer how much of a problem tranquilizers had become. "They're a great problem," he said. "Tranquilizers affect at least a thousand times as many teen-agers as narcotics do. Kids get them easily at home because they know their parents have them around. They aren't afraid to experiment. Some teen-agers combine tranquilizers and alcohol. They really get fuzzy. Will you warn parents to keep their tranquilizers locked up?" I said I would.

Please, friends, don't assume I'm pointing my finger at your offspring. I'm not saying they're bad or wild. All I am saying is that they are young, and can make mistakes. It's best to keep temptation away. You won't be sorry.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "They caught a man selling narcotics to high school children. He received a short prison sentence. I think he should have been hung. Why can't we get more severe laws against men like that?" J.N.

(A) Some states have very severe laws. In these, juries are reluctant to convict peddlers, because the penalties are so stiff. Juries are apt to acquit them, and law enforcement is weakened. We can't win, can we?

Some Marinites Eligible For 4th Polio Shots

Beginning Monday the Marin County Health Department will offer fourth polio shots to all Marin County residents of any age whose third polio shot was received two or more years ago.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, in making the announcement, explained that up to this time the health department has been giving fourth shots to selected age groups only. Polio vaccinations are available at the health department office at 920 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, Monday through Friday, 1 to 4 p.m.

Dr. Albrecht urged that those who have not already had at least three injections of polio vaccine attend to completing the basic series of shots as soon as possible.

"The polio 'disease year' begins in April," she said, "and incidence of polio usually reaches a peak in Marin County in September and October. For the past two years our polio record has been quite gratifying. Let's try to keep it that way."

Lands Movie Job

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The son of Douglas Johnson, the unemployed janitor who returned $240,000 cash to the armored car firm which had lost it, has been given a summer job in a movie studio.

Richard Johnson, 16, who says his ambition is to become an actor, will be able to work around Allied Artists studios during the summer and will be considered for possible movie roles, the studio announced yesterday.

School Planning Play Festival

Competing casts of three plays will go on stage April 4 and April 6 at Novato High School to begin the school's second play festival.

Six casts and six directors will compete for rolls in three one-act plays, all comedies. Judges will choose the best directors and actors to make up composite casts. The plays will be presented to the public April 28 and 29 at the high school, when awards for the best director and actor or actress will be made.

The play festival is sponsored by instructors Rosemary Barker, Donald Carr and Tali Merritt.

Hiroshima, Nagasaki Toll Still A Mystery

TOKYO (UPI) — More than 15 years have passed since the first atomic bombs plunged down on the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

To this day no one really knows how many persons died in the blasts, the first and only instances of atomic power being used in war.

Perhaps no one will ever know.

Difference in official Japanese casualty figures from official American figures for Hiroshima alone were more than 300,000.

Almost every office queried in Japan discloses different A-bomb death figures.

The Japanese Welfare Ministry said 260,000 persons died in Hiroshima and that 163,263 either were missing or died later from bomb effects.

Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur's headquarters, however, officially announced that 78,150 persons were killed and 13,083 were missing, a figure also used by world almanacs.

The Welfare Ministry said its figures included an estimated 70,000 Japanese soldiers who were in Hiroshima when the first A-bomb was dropped Aug. 6, 1945.

But because all records were destroyed, no one knows for sure exactly how many servicemen were in the city.

The Japan Society Against the Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs, a leftist-inclined organization which has long campaigned against nuclear weapons, said it believes the Welfare Ministry's figures are "most accurate."

But the Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission (ABCC) disagreed.

The ABCC set the death toll at Hiroshima at 79,000.

There was more agreement on the Nagasaki death toll.

The Japanese Welfare Ministry said 73,884 persons were killed and 74,000 were missing after the Nagasaki bomb Aug. 9, 1945.

The official American figure also is 73,884 killed.

The Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission set the number killed at 15,220.

But the atom bombs still are taking their toll.

The Welfare Ministry said that between 1955 and 1960, 294 persons died in the Hiroshima or Nagasaki A-Bomb Hositals from illnesses attributed to the A-bombs.

It said it did not know how many persons had died in other hospitals.

NEW CENSUS

Arab Males Outnumber The Girls

CAIRO (UPI)—In the United Arab Republic, girls should have no marriage problems.

New census figures showed the UAR has a population of 30,641,000. Of these, 15,476,000 are males and 15,165,000 are females.

In one case — that of the province of Al-Suweida in the Syrian region—the population is 100,000, of which exactly 50,000 are males and the other 50,000 are females.

Some provinces, though, showed more females than males. But these were mainly provinces in upper Egypt or desert areas—where both agriculture and industry are poor and men have to emigrate to other provinces in search of work.

The census figures placed the population of the Syrian region at 4,561,000. That of the Egyptian region was 26,080,000.

According to the figures, Egypt has increased its population by more than one-third in slightly over 13 years. In the last census, taken early in 1947, Egypt had a population of 19 million. The current census showed an increase of over seven million.

Wine Production Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Production of wine in California dropped 1.97 per cent in 1960 to 143,269,000 gallons, according to the Wine Institute.

Course Planned On Television

"Too often people find it easier to criticize a film or television production in terms of simple likes or dislikes, rather than study the elements of the artistic process involved," states Herbert L. Zettl, assistant professor of radio-television, San Francisco State College, and former staff director with KPIX Television in San Francisco.

Professor Zettl will teach the University of California Extension evening course, "Communication as Art in Television and Films," which begins 7:30 p.m. today in the San Rafael High School Little Theater. It is designed to sharpen the viewer's critical faculties, increase his enjoyment of film and television, and deepen his understanding of art forms of mass communications. Enrollments will be accepted at the first meeting.

Marketing Receipts

WASHINGTON, D. C. (UPI)—Cash receipts from marketing of farm products rose to a new high of 33.7 billion dollars in 1960, according to the U. S. Agriculture Department.

Be Sure Tranquilizers Are Kept Safely Out Of Children's Reach

Have any tranquilizers around your house? Here's a tip. Lock them up and keep the key. Don't tempt your children with them.

I've been working with a girl we'll call "Mary." She is 14. She has a boy friend, but goes out with him rarely. Mary runs with a nice gang. She has a good reputation. She is a little rambunctious, like many 14-year-olds, but she is not a bad girl.

Mary was home alone one evening. Her boy friend happened by. They got to talking about tranquilizers. They called them "Happy pills." Mary went to the medicine cupboard and got some. Her mother uses them occasionally. Then Mary and the boy swallowed several. After that they started necking. The pills lowered their resistance, so that they hardly knew what they were doing. Now Mary is pregnant.

Recently I asked a federal officer how much of a problem tranquilizers had become. "They're a great problem," he said. "Tranquilizers affect at least a thousand times as many teen-agers as narcotics do. Kids get them easily at home because they know their parents have them around. They aren't afraid to experiment. Some teen-agers combine tranquilizers and alcohol. They really get fuzzy. Will you warn parents to keep their tranquilizers locked up?" I said I would.

Please, friends, don't assume I'm pointing my finger at your offspring. I'm not saying they're bad or wild. All I am saying is that they are young, and can make mistakes. It's best to keep temptation away. You won't be sorry.

READERS' FORUM

(Q) "They caught a man selling narcotics to high school children. He received a short prison sentence. I think he should have been hung. Why can't we get more severe laws against men like that?" J.N.

(A) Some states have very severe laws. In these, juries are reluctant to convict peddlers, because the penalties are so stiff. Juries are apt to acquit them, and law enforcement is weakened. We can't win, can we?

Some Marinites Eligible For 4th Polio Shots

Beginning Monday the Marin County Health Department will offer fourth polio shots to all Marin County residents of any age whose third polio shot was received two or more years ago.

Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht, county health officer, in making the announcement, explained that up to this time the health department has been giving fourth shots to selected age groups only. Polio vaccinations are available at the health department office at 920 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, Monday through Friday, 1 to 4 p.m.

Dr. Albrecht urged that those who have not already had at least three injections of polio vaccine attend to completing the basic series of shots as soon as possible.

"The polio 'disease year' begins in April," she said, "and incidence of polio usually reaches a peak in Marin County in September and October. For the past two years our polio record has been quite gratifying. Let's try to keep it that way."

Lands Movie Job

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The son of Douglas Johnson, the unemployed janitor who returned $240,000 cash to the armored car firm which had lost it, has been given a summer job in a movie studio.

Richard Johnson, 16, who says his ambition is to become an actor, will be able to work around Allied Artists studios during the summer and will be considered for possible movie roles, the studio announced yesterday.

School Planning Play Festival

Competing casts of three plays will go on stage April 4 and April 6 at Novato High School to begin the school's second play festival.

Six casts and six directors will compete for roles in three one-act plays, all comedies. Judges will choose the best directors and actors to make up composite casts. The plays will be presented to the public April 28 and 29 at the high school, when awards for the best director and actor or actress will be made.

The play festival is sponsored by instructors Rosemary Barker, Donald Carr and Tali Merritt.

Hiroshima, Nagasaki Toll Still A Mystery

TOKYO (UPI) — More than 15 years have passed since the first atomic bombs plunged down on the Japanese cities of Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

To this day no one really knows how many persons died in the blasts, the first and only instances of atomic power being used in war.

Perhaps no one will ever know.

Difference in official Japanese casualty figures from official American figures for Hiroshima alone were more than 300,000.

Almost every office queried in Japan discloses different A-bomb death figures.

The Japanese Welfare Ministry said 260,000 persons died in Hiroshima and that 163,263 either were missing or died later from bomb effects.

Gen. Douglas A. MacArthur's headquarters, however, officially announced that 78,150 persons were killed and 13,083 were missing, a figure also used by world almanacs.

The Welfare Ministry said its figures included an estimated 70,000 Japanese soldiers who were in Hiroshima when the first A-bomb was dropped Aug. 6, 1945.

But because all records were destroyed, no one knows for sure exactly how many servicemen were in the city.

The Japan Society Against the Atomic and Hydrogen Bombs, a leftist-inclined organization which has long campaigned against nuclear weapons, said it believes the Welfare Ministry's figures are "most accurate."

But the Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission (ABCC) disagreed.

The ABCC set the death toll at Hiroshima at 79,000.

There was more agreement on the Nagasaki death toll.

The Japanese Welfare Ministry said 73,884 persons were killed and 74,000 were missing after the Nagasaki bomb Aug. 9, 1945.

The official American figure also is 73,884 killed.

The Atomic Bomb Casualty Commission set the number killed at 15,220.

But the atom bombs still are taking their toll.

The Welfare Ministry said that between 1955 and 1960, 294 persons died in the Hiroshima or Nagasaki A-Bomb Hositals from illnesses attributed to the A-bombs.

It said it did not know how many persons had died in other hospitals.

NEW CENSUS

Arab Males Outnumber The Girls

CAIRO (UPI)—In the United Arab Republic, girls should have no marriage problems.

New census figures showed the UAR has a population of 30,641,000. Of these, 15,476,000 are males and 15,165,000 are females.

In one case — that of the province of Al-Suweida in the Syrian region—the population is 100,000, of which exactly 50,000 are males and the other 50,000 are females.

Some provinces, though, showed more females than males. But these were mainly provinces in upper Egypt or desert areas—where both agriculture and industry are poor and men have to emigrate to other provinces in search of work.

The census figures placed the population of the Syrian region at 4,561,000. That of the Egyptian region was 26,080,000.

According to the figures, Egypt has increased its population by more than one-third in slightly over 13 years. In the last census, taken early in 1947, Egypt had a population of 19 million. The current census showed an increase of over seven million.

Drake Scholar Group To Install

Senior Sandra Mugford of 35½ Mereed Avenue, San Anselmo, will be installed as president of the Sir Francis Drake High School chapter of the California Scholarship Federation on March 23 at 8 p.m. in the school's little theater.

Also elected were junior Barbara Levy of San Anselmo, vice president; junior Deborah Rossman of Fairfax, secretary, and sophomore Linden Press of San Anselmo, treasurer.

A student qualifies for CSF with three As and a B. Life membership is earned if a member belongs for four out of the last six semesters, one semester of which is in the senior year.

Life members at Drake are: Roxana Collins, Andrea Hall, Dorothy Hartman, Melinda Miller, Karen Nelsen, Luray Schiewe, and Rosemary Smith.

Wine Production Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Production of wine in California dropped 1.97 per cent in 1960 to 143,269,000 gallons, according to the Wine Institute.

Course Planned On Television

"Too often people find it easier to criticize a film or television production in terms of simple likes or dislikes, rather than study the elements of the artistic process involved," states Herbert L. Zettl, assistant professor of radio-television, San Francisco State College, and former staff director with KPIX Television in San Francisco.

Professor Zettl will teach the University of California Extension evening course, "Communication as Art in Television and Films," which begins 7:30 p.m. today in the San Rafael High School Little Theater. It is designed to sharpen the viewer's critical faculties, increase his enjoyment of film and television, and deepen his understanding of art forms of mass communications. Enrollments will be accepted at the first meeting.

Marketing Receipts

WASHINGTON, D. C. (UPI)—Cash receipts from marketing of farm products rose to a new high of 33.7 billion dollars in 1960, according to the U. S. Agriculture Department.

121—Used Cars For Sale

SALE
NO DOWN PAYMENT
We've recently taken-in some of the cleanest older cars you've ever seen. Most of them are one-owner cars that people have nursed along through the years and have finally traded on new Buicks. If your credit is good and you need a dependable car don't buy anything until you look at these.

'54 BUICK 4-DR. $395
4-dr. sedan with dynaflow, radio, heater and power steering. Original blue paint looks like new with original interior spotless. Cleanest '54 we've seen in months

'54 DeSOTO CPE. $375
Club coupe with automatic trans. radio and heater. Taken in from retired couple that really have kept this car in top shape. Good tires and paint. They may not make DeSotos any more but they never made any better than this one.

'50 BUICK 4 DR. $125
Dyna radio, heater, good dependable transportation. You can't beat the price.

'53 BUICK 4-DR. $250
4-dr. Special sedan that we sold new to local doctor. Popular standard transmission with heater. Plenty of dependable transportation left in this un-abused older vehicle. A one-owner family car.

'52 BUICK CONV. $275
If you're looking for a really clean convertible then this is it. Original paint like new. Full leather interior shows little wear. New top. Dynaflow, radio, and heater. You'll be proud to drive this anywhere.

'52 PONT. 4-DR. $225
Here's a transportation car that you can really depend on. 4-dr. sedan with gas saving standard transmission and radio-heater. Former owner spent over $200 on the engine less than six months ago. Runs like a top. Real clean.

'50 CHEV. WAG. $195
4-dr. all-metal, 9-passenger wagon. Here's a real Rare Wagon on the market. Powerglide trans., radio, heater. Really clean.

'51 BUICK WAG. $250
One owner. Super 4 dr. Wagon Dynca radio heater. Orig. owner has kept wood refinished so that it looks like new. Orig. leather interior, doesn't show a speck of wear. Good family car for the price.

121—Used Cars For Sale

SALE

NO DOWN PAYMENT

We've recently taken-in some of the cleanest older cars you've ever seen. Most of them are one-owner cars that people have nursed along through the years and have finally traded on new Buicks. If your credit is good and you need a dependable car don't buy anything until you look at these.

'54 BUICK 4-DR. $395

4-dr. sedan with dynaflow, radio, heater and power steering. Original blue paint looks like new with original interior spotless. Cleanest '54 we've seen in months

'54 DeSOTO CPE. $375

Club coupe with automatic trans, radio and heater. Taken in from retired couple that really have kept this car in top shape. Good tires and paint. They may not make DeSotos any more but they never made any better than this one.

'50 BUICK 4 DR. $125

Dyna radio, heater, good dependable transportation. You can't beat the price.

'53 BUICK 4-DR. $250

'52 BUICK CONV. $275

If you're looking for a really clean convertible then this is it. Original paint like new. Full leather interior shows little wear. New top. Dynaflow, radio, and heater. You'll be proud to drive this anywhere.

'52 PONT. 4-DR. $225

Here's a transportation car that you can really depend on. 4-dr. sedan with gas saving standard transmission and radio-heater. Former owner spent over $200 on the engine less than six months ago. Runs like a top. Real clean.

'50 CHEV. WAG. $195

4-dr. all-metal, 9-passenger wagon. Here's a real Rare Wagon on the market. Powerglide trans., radio, heater. Really clean.

'51 BUICK WAG. $250

One owner. Super 4 dr. Wagon Dynca radio heater. Orig. owner has kept wood refinished so that it looks like new. Orig. leather interior, doesn't show a speck of wear. Good family car for the price.

County Comment by Bill FUSSELMAN

WILLIAM D. FUSSELMAN
Supervisor
District 2

WELL, MY FRIENDS, that explosive week in January certainly demonstrated a surprising number of things. We all had seen, on television, similar demonstrations as trouble occurred at different spots across the nation, indeed around the world. The only difference was in the size.

THAT WHOLE AFFAIR WAS ENGINEERED by four men who were bitterly disappointed when the voice of the majority, in the June election, rejected their philosophy of government. I had heard that a group of the disappointed ones was planning to set up an organization. There was no limit to the fantastic stories that were used to mislead some very fine citizens. This may be of interest to some people; the mail that I received, personally, was predominantly favorable. I must admit, however, that some I received were master-pieces of vitriolic abuse.

I HOPE YOU WILL READ what I have to say, here, and that you will understand my sincere concern about the hospital problem. In spite of what has been said to the contrary, there were no political overtones in my approach to a solution.

WE HAVE LIVED HERE 41 YEARS and I have served this county of ours for some thirty two years, in both promotional and official capacity. This is my nineteenth year as Supervisor. During this time, I have had a definite part in developing the kind of county which was attractive to many, and induced a desire to live here.

I HAVE WORKED ON BUDGETS, YEAR AFTER YEAR, which would be in harmony with the ability of the average taxpayer to pay. I have worked at this job through depression years and the years known as, "recession years," as well as the plush years, when everyone was on the gravy train. I have seen over-instalment buying, over-credit extension, inflation and the terrible hangover when the whistle blew. I have seen heads of families (taxpayers) and their wives frantic with the fear of losing everything, of being unable to pay their taxes, of having their homes sold for taxes, with a hopeless five years to redeem plus the interest and penalties.

WHEN A MAN HAS HAD THIS SORT OF EXPERIENCE, it causes him to look beneath the satin smooth surface to the rough, hard realities underneath. Make no mistake about it. My letter to the Board, which follows, reflects this.

HERE IS THE LETTER: "It must be assumed that we are all in agreement that every effort must be made to GIVE THE TAXPAYERS OF THE COUNTY THE BEST POSSIBLE GOVERNMENT, AT A PRICE THEY CAN AFFORD TO PAY. In order to do this, in my opinion, every avenue of expenditure must be thoroughly explored together with a searching for a realistic scheduling of priorities of need . . . It is with a firm belief in this approach, that I am conveying to you my thinking as to a procedure I believe is essential to give us sea room to review and consider all financial matters and set up a complete balance sheet to guide us in our future actions . . . First: A temporary stop order should be issued on the Civic Center construction. This will allow architectural consideration as to whether or not the present structure can be converted to be used as a County Hospital Facility, for the next few years. It will also reduce the impact on the taxpayers' pocket books of paying back the $300,000.00 borrowed from the Veteran's Memorial Fund for the Juvenile Hall . . . setting up a tax for the $2,000,000 (should have read $2,250,000) hospital construction and continuing the heavy tax required for the Civic Center, totaling around $5,000,000.00 more . . . Second: We should seek consultation with citizens, trained in fiscal matters, to impartially help us set up a balance sheet of values covering the full range of the problem . . . I have asked Mr. McGuire, the County Counsel, to prepare the necessary documents to start implementing this, if the Board should agree with my thinking . . . It seems to me that, weather-wise and budget-wise, this is an ideal time to work along these lines, if the Board approves."

THERE IS NOTHING IN THIS LETTER TO INDICATE THAT THE CIVIC CENTER WAS TO BE THROWN OUT. I am convinced that Frank Lloyd Wright, with the sorrows he experienced in his life, would have been more than happy to know that his last building was being used, temporarily, to comfort the aged and sick people who were unable to care for themselves. I BELIEVE HE WOULD BE THE FIRST TO SAY . . . "BY ALL MEANS, DO THIS THING."

MY POSITION HAS BEEN ALL ALONG, that if it were possible, at this stage, fine. But if it could not be, that was that. All the hysterical screaming about the relatively minor cost of an investigation (if there was such a cost under the contract) is not consistent with the bland disregard of costs, such as the close to a half million dollars in architect's and similar fees. There is even a built in deal to pay fees over and above the cost of furnishings (chairs, desks, etc.) I will have more to say later about a matter which cost the County $26,500.00 for master planning the Fair Ground area. The State thought the total was excessive and refused to pay it all out of pari-mutuel funds. It is quite a story. There should be a review by some authoritative body to really inform the public accurately on these things. It has been a hush hush deal all the way through. There has been a quick O.K. of matters brought before the Board by the Civic Center Committee, without the proper explanations to the Board, IN SESSION. In a project like this that runs into the millions, it is of the greatest importance that the elected, validating officials be in complete touch at all times.

IN MY YOUNGER DAYS, I was a great admirer of Elbert Hubbard and his Roycrofters. Then through most of my adult years I have admired the genius of Frank Lloyd Wright. Notwithstanding all of this, I did not become enslaved in my thinking. I was and still am opposed to the successful effort to force this whole thing down the people's throat, without permitting them an opportunity to legally express a willingness or not to foot the $12,000,000.00 bill. I have always opposed the practically complete domination of the whole program by the committee, made up of appointed personnel, with one exception.

I HAVE WORRIED FOR SOME YEARS about the dangerous housing situation at the County Hospital and Farm, out at Lucas Valley. There has been a refusal to appropriate funds to make the buildings safe, with one exception, that was replacing the tile roof with one of less weight, or to build duplicate structures which would be safe. That day, in August of 1958, when the Board voted to submit a bond issue for the Hospital and Juvenile Hall, I urged them to use the unencumbered and available funds to take care of this desperately needed facility and submit a bond issue for the Civic Center, instead, but could not prevail. The plain truth is that this great need, as well as equitable salary adjustments, for county employees, have been shunted aside, to grimly push the Civic Center project through in spite of the fact that there was not the immediate need. There has been a great emphasis placed on the money being spent for outside rentals as the primary reason for giving the Center job a priority position. This is strange reasoning. It means 40c per year on the tax rate to save 2c on the rate for rentals. Obviously, one year's 40c would pay rentals for twenty years.

IN MY NEXT, "COUNTY COMMENT," I will discuss the personnel or human phase of that explosive week in January. However, for now, I will transcribe excerpts from the contract between the Contractor and the County . . . Page 8: 14 . . . (a) . . . If the work should be stopped under an order of any court, or other public authority, for a period of NINETY DAYS, (the caps are mine for emphasis) through no act or fault of the Contractor or of anyone employed by him, then the Contractor may, upon seven days written notice to the Owner and the Architect, terminate this Contract and recover from the owner payment for all work executed and any proven loss sustained upon any plant or materials and reasonable profit and damages." (Note: after ninety days). . . . Page 8B: 11 of 17 . . . (e) . . . The following shall be recognized as valid grounds for extension of time. unforeseeable causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, including but not restricted to acts of God; or of the public enemy, of Government, of the County of Marin, acts of another contractor in performance of contract with the County, fires, floods, epidemics, restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather or delays, of subcontractors due to such causes, if the Contractor shall notify the Architect within 10 days of the beginning of such delay and he shall, after ascertaining the facts and extent of delay, approve such delay. (f) No payment or compensation of any kind shall be made to the Contractor for damages because of hindrance or delay, whether or not accepted as justifiable time extension, whether avoidable or unavoidable." The foregoing part of the contract, which was prepared by the former County Counsel and presumably reviewed by the Auditor-Controller, both of whom were members of the Civic Center Committee, would be presumed also, to mean what it says, or why would they recommend that the Board of Supervisors sign up for it. However, let's assume that they were not alert to their responsibilities and that the contract does not mean what they led us to believe. Here, then, is the financial impact on our County Taxpayers, if we find that we must pay the claim of $14,047.45 . . .

This year 1c on the tax rate raises $24,260.75 . . . Therefore $14,047.45 would require the equivalent of $.006 on the rate (1 mill more than ½c).

In other words it would cost a man with a $20,000.00 home, assessed at $4,600.00 an out of pocket of 27c.

THE COMMON PRACTICE of making soil tests in the field by professional people is akin to our desire to have professional advice as to the possibility of a temporary conversion of facilities. It was a prudent act of responsible people confronted with a task brought on by the acts of others.

Sincerely,

Bill Fusselman

WILLIAM D. FUSSELMAN
Supervisor
District 2

County Comment by Bill FUSSELMAN

WELL, MY FRIENDS, that explosive week in January certainly demonstrated a surprising number of things. We all had seen, on television, similar demonstrations as trouble occurred at different spots across the nation, indeed around the world. The only difference was in the size.

THAT WHOLE AFFAIR WAS ENGINEERED by four men who were bitterly disappointed when the voice of the majority, in the June election, rejected their philosophy of government. I had heard that a group of the disappointed ones was planning to set up an organization. There was no limit to the fantastic stories that were used to mislead some very fine citizens. This may be of interest to some people; the mail that I received, personally, was predominantly favorable. I must admit, however, that some I received were master-pieces of vitriolic abuse.

I HOPE YOU WILL READ what I have to say, here, and that you will understand my sincere concern about the hospital problem. In spite of what has been said to the contrary, there were no political overtones in my approach to a solution.

WE HAVE LIVED HERE 41 YEARS and I have served this county of ours for some thirty two years, in both promotional and official capacity. This is my nineteenth year as Supervisor. During this time, I have had a definite part in developing the kind of county which was attractive to many, and induced a desire to live here.

I HAVE WORKED ON BUDGETS, YEAR AFTER YEAR, which would be in harmony with the ability of the average taxpayer to pay. I have worked at this job through depression years and the years known as, "recession years," as well as the plush years, when everyone was on the gravy train. I have seen over-instalment buying, over-credit extension, inflation and the terrible hangover when the whistle blew. I have seen heads of families (taxpayers) and their wives frantic with the fear of losing everything, of being unable to pay their taxes, of having their homes sold for taxes, with a hopeless five years to redeem plus the interest and penalties.

WHEN A MAN HAS HAD THIS SORT OF EXPERIENCE, it causes him to look beneath the satin smooth surface to the rough, hard realities underneath. Make no mistake about it. My letter to the Board, which follows, reflects this.

HERE IS THE LETTER:
"It must be assumed that we are all in agreement that every effort must be made to GIVE THE TAXPAYERS OF THE COUNTY THE BEST POSSIBLE GOVERNMENT, AT A PRICE THEY CAN AFFORD TO PAY. In order to do this, in my opinion, every avenue of expenditure must be thoroughly explored together with a searching for a realistic scheduling of priorities of need . . . It is with a firm belief in this approach, that I am conveying to you my thinking as to a procedure I believe is essential to give us sea room to review and consider all financial matters and set up a complete balance sheet to guide us in our future actions . . . First: A temporary stop order should be issued on the Civic Center construction. This will allow architectural consideration as to whether or not the present structure can be converted to be used as a County Hospital Facility, for the next few years. It will also reduce the impact on the taxpayers' pocket books of paying back the $300,000.00 borrowed from the Veteran's Memorial Fund for the Juvenile Hall . . . setting up a tax for the $2,000,000 (should have read $2,250,000) hospital construction and continuing the heavy tax required for the Civic Center, totaling around $5,000,000.00 more . . . Second: We should seek consultation with citizens, trained in fiscal matters, to impartially help us set up a balance sheet of values covering the full range of the problem . . . I have asked Mr. McGuire, the County Counsel, to prepare the necessary documents to start implementing this, if the Board should agree with my thinking . . . It seems to me that, weather-wise and budget-wise, this is an ideal time to work along these lines, if the Board approves."

THERE IS NOTHING IN THIS LETTER TO INDICATE THAT THE CIVIC CENTER WAS TO BE THROWN OUT.

I am convinced that Frank Lloyd Wright, with the sorrows he experienced in his life, would have been more than happy to know that his last building was being used, temporarily, to comfort the aged and sick people who were unable to care for themselves. I BELIEVE HE WOULD BE THE FIRST TO SAY . . . "BY ALL MEANS, DO THIS THING."

MY POSITION HAS BEEN ALL ALONG, that if it were possible, at this stage, fine. But if it could not be, that was that. All the hysterical screaming about the relatively minor cost of an investigation (if there was such a cost under the contract) is not consistent with the bland disregard of costs, such as the close to a half million dollars in architect's and similar fees. There is even a built in deal to pay fees over and above the cost of furnishings (chairs, desks, etc.) I will have more to say later about a matter which cost the County $26,500.00 for master planning the Fair Ground area. The State thought the total was excessive and refused to pay it all out of pari-mutuel funds. It is quite a story. There should be a review by some authoritative body to really inform the public accurately on these things. It has been a hush hush deal all the way through. There has been a quick O.K. of matters brought before the Board by the Civic Center Committee, without the proper explanations to the Board, IN SESSION. In a project like this that runs into the millions, it is of the greatest importance that the elected, validating officials be in complete touch at all times.

IN MY YOUNGER DAYS, I was a great admirer of Elbert Hubbard and his Roycrofters. Then through most of my adult years I have admired the genius of Frank Lloyd Wright. Notwithstanding all of this, I did not become enslaved in my thinking. I was and still am opposed to the successful effort to force this whole thing down the people's throat, without permitting them an opportunity to legally express a willingness or not to foot the $12,000,000.00 bill. I have always opposed the practically complete domination of the whole program by the committee, made up of appointed personnel, with one exception.

I HAVE WORRIED FOR SOME YEARS about the dangerous housing situation at the County Hospital and Farm, out at Lucas Valley. There has been a refusal to appropriate funds to make the buildings safe, with one exception, that was replacing the tile roof with one of less weight, or to build duplicate structures which would be safe. That day, in August of 1958, when the Board voted to submit a bond issue for the Hospital and Juvenile Hall, I urged them to use the unencumbered and available funds to take care of this desperately needed facility and submit a bond issue for the Civic Center, instead, but could not prevail. The plain truth is that this great need, as well as equitable salary adjustments, for county employees, have been shunted aside, to grimly push the Civic Center project through in spite of the fact that there was not the immediate need. There has been a great emphasis placed on the money being spent for outside rentals as the primary reason for giving the Center job a priority position. This is strange reasoning. It means 40c per year on the tax rate to save 2c on the rate for rentals. Obviously, one year's 40c would pay rentals for twenty years.

IN MY NEXT, "COUNTY COMMENT," I will discuss the personnel or human phase of that explosive week in January. However, for now, I will transcribe excerpts from the contract between the Contractor and the County . . . Page 8: 14 . . . (a) . . . If the work should be stopped under an order of any court, or other public authority, for a period of NINETY DAYS, (the caps are mine for emphasis) through no act or fault of the Contractor or of anyone employed by him, then the Contractor may, upon seven days written notice to the Owner and the Architect, terminate this Contract and recover from the owner payment for all work executed and any proven loss sustained upon any plant or materials and reasonable profit and damages." (Note: after ninety days). . . . Page 8B: 11 of 17 . . . (e) . . . The following shall be recognized as valid grounds for extension of time. unforeseeable causes beyond the control and without the fault or negligence of the Contractor, including but not restricted to acts of God; or of the public enemy, of Government, of the County of Marin, acts of another contractor in performance of contract with the County, fires, floods, epidemics, restrictions, strikes, freight embargoes, and unusually severe weather or delays, of subcontractors due to such causes, if the Contractor shall notify the Architect within 10 days of the beginning of such delay and he shall, after ascertaining the facts and extent of delay, approve such delay. (f) No payment or compensation of any kind shall be made to the Contractor for damages because of hindrance or delay, whether or not accepted as justifiable time extension, whether avoidable or unavoidable." The foregoing part of the contract, which was prepared by the former County Counsel and presumably reviewed by the Auditor-Controller, both of whom were members of the Civic Center Committee, would be presumed also, to mean what it says, or why would they recommend that the Board of Supervisors sign up for it. However, let's assume that they were not alert to their responsibilities and that the contract does not mean what they led us to believe. Here, then, is the financial impact on our County Taxpayers, if we find that we must pay the claim of $14,047.45 . . .

This year 1c on the tax rate raises $24,260.75 . . . Therefore $14,047.45 would require the equivalent of $.006 on the rate (1 mill more than ½c).

In other words it would cost a man with a $20,000.00 home, assessed at $4,600.00 an out of pocket of 27c.

THE COMMON PRACTICE of making soil tests in the field by professional people is akin to our desire to have professional advice as to the possibility of a temporary conversion of facilities. It was a prudent act of responsible people confronted with a task brought on by the acts of others.

Sincerely,

Bill Fusselman

Dumont President Plans To Give Up Kentfield Home, Move South

Robert M. Daiss, president of the Dumont Manufacturing Corp., San Rafael, a subsidiary recently acquired by the H. I. Thompson Fiber Glass Co. of Los Angeles, will shortly give up his home in Kent Woodlands to move to the Southland.

His work, he says, is split between Los Angeles and San Rafael, with more of it in the Los Angeles area. Living at either end involves some commuting back and forth but not so much if he headquarters in the south.

He says resident manager Harold Christensen and sales manager William Layton will fill in for him when he isn't in Marin.

ANOTHER MAN ON THE GO is Neill Smith of Mill Valley who has just opened his own architectural office in San Francisco with E. Morton Schaffran of El Cerrito. Smith has more accomplishments to his credit than the letters "AIA" after his name would indicate.

He received his master's degree in fine arts at Princeton where he was a winner in the Whitney Warren Prize, a national design competition, and an alternate winner in the Paris Prize.

Among other things in planning and design of large scale complexes he was associate in charge of the new master plan for the State Capitol in Sacramento, the Del Monte Shopping Center in Monterey and prize winning buildings in Asilomar State Park, Pacific Grove. He was recently appointed architectural editor of the Western Architect and Engineer.

His associate Mort Schaffran was formerly deputy executive director of the Marin County Housing Authority and Redevelopment Agency.

FEATURED this season by Douthit and Crane Boatworks, Santa Rosa, will be a new propulsion unit known as the Berkeley Jet-Drive. Outstanding features are that it eliminates propellors and rudders, makes boat handling easy and runs in ankle-deep water.

Ed Douthit claims that it gives fast acceleration and responsive steering, forward and reverse.

One advantage, he says, is the freedom of underwater gear, providing safer boating around swimmers and water skiers—neither is there danger of fouling tow ropes and fishing lines.

Douthit and Crane will install the Jet-Drive on any boat, or units may be purchased for self-installation. Models are available to use wtih any engine and in sizes from five horsepower to 500 horsepower.

CURTIS W. MONROE, 65 Canal Street, San Rafael, has been appointed a special agent here for the Prudential Insurance Co. Monroe is secretary of the San Rafael Junior Chamber of Commerce.

ASSIGNMENT of Joseph Micheletti, 1595 Redwood Highway, Corte Madera, to the staff of the Bank of America, San Rafael branch, as general lending officer has been announced by manager Leroy Rudolph.

He replaces Willmar Bergem, recently appointed manager of the bank's Lakeport branch.

Micheletti began his career with the head office of Bank of America in San Francisco in 1941 and has advanced successively through various offices, most recently with the Mill Valley and San Anselmo branches, where he was appointed assistant cashier last year.

ORGANIZES NEW FIRM—Neill Smith, 16, Helens Lane, Mill Valley, has established a new architectural firm, Neill Smith and Associates, at 211 Sutter Street, San Francisco, jointly with E. Norton Schaffran of El Cerrito.

Gallons Shipment

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Wine shipments into all markets from California reached a new high of 129,355,394 gallons in 1960, it was announced. The new figure tops the previous year's record by nearly five million gallons, the California Wine Institute said.

The United States contributes nearly one-third of the United Nations budget.

New Area Newspaper Is Planned

The Marin Publishing Co., publishers of the Novato Advance, will start a new newspaper next Wednesday for the Santa Venetia, Terra Linda and Marinwood areas.

The paper will be available, free, Wednesday mornings for the first three weeks when a subscription drive will begin, Advance publisher George Barnwell said today.

The office for the paper, to be called the North Marin Advance, will be located at 4202 Redwood Highway, and is expected to be opened within a few days. Mrs. Peter Yarish, reporter for the Advance, will be in charge of the office.

Barnwell, co-publisher and editor of the Advance, and Fred Volz, co-publisher and business manager, will have the same positions on the new paper, to have a 7,000 press run.

The Advance will continue to be published twice weekly in Novato. The North Marin Shopping News put out by the same company and now distributed in Novato and in the area of the new paper, will be limited to Novato in the future, Barnwell said.

The Advance has been published for 39 years. Barnwell and Volz have controlled it for the past five-and-one-half years.

Thinking Machines

BERKELEY (UPI) — "Thinking machines" now being developed will one day automate entire business organizations, including positions held by high-level management, according to predictions from a researcher at the University of California here.

Sports Writers Will See Marin

Twenty sports writers, columnists and editors of Los Angeles and the surrounding region are about to have a quick glimpse of Marin County and a longer recreational stay in Lake County as guests of the Redwood Empire Assn. and the Lake County Chamber of Commerce.

They will fly to San Francisco tonight and be entertained at dinner at Sausalito's Alta Mira Hotel with Paul R. Leahy of San Rafael, vice president of the association, as host.

Proceeding to Lake County by highway, they will fish for bass out of the Big Four resort at Clear Lake Oaks on the north shore of Clear Lake. They will fly home Sunday night.

Driver Charged After Wreck

Donald T. McSweeney, 36, of 725 Montecillo Road, San Rafael, suffered minor injuries when his car ran into the railroad bridge at Francisco Boulevard at 9:20 p.m. Tuesday, San Rafael police reported.

McSweeney was charged by San Rafael police with driving with undue caution, causing an accident, not having a driver's license in his possesion and improper registration on the car.

He was treated at San Rafael General Hospital for face cuts.

Fish Platform 'Fine' Voted For Adults

Adults caught fishing from the Elephant Rock memorial fishing platform in Tiburon will be "fined" $5, the Tiburon Peninsula Chamber of Commerce decided Tuesday.

President William S. Johnstone explained the "fine" will be a donation to the chamber toward the $1,500 still due on construction of the platform.

Other fund-raising events also will be tried, said Warren Callister, chairman of the Elephant Rock fund-raising committee.

The members, by 7-4 vote, endorsed the Tiburon annexation study "without liability," thus offering no financial support. Voting against were William H. Rafter, Felix M. Warburg, Fred C. Hannahs and Joseph Cherry.

Hannahs held that the chamber was endorsing annexation before the study was completed.

Mrs. Palmer Field presented her plan for the Tiburon paint-up day March 25 and said that her committee is working for a 3,000-member group, with $2 a year dues, to sponsor purchase of waterfront property as a public park area.
